Sounding The Depths Theology Through The Arts:

Sounding the Depths Jeremy Begbie, 2002 Theologians and artists reflect here in a series of essays on how theology and the arts can be mutually enriching and beneficial The contributors argue that it is part of theology's calling to engage with culture particularly the arts and that it is not in fact true theology unless it does so The essays cover such topics as drama cathedral art poetry and music the contributors include Tom Wright Rowan Williams and David Ford Music as Theology Maeve Louise Heaney, 2012-09-01 The conversation between music and theology dormant for too long in recent years is at last gathering pace And rightly so There will always be theologians who will regard music as a somewhat peripheral concern too trivial to trouble the serious scholar and in any case almost impossible to engage because of its notorious resistance to words and concepts But an increasing number are discovering again what many of our forbears realized centuries ago that the kinship between this pervasive feature of human life and the search for a Christian intelligence of faith is intimate and ineradicable Maeve Heaney's ambitious wide ranging and energetic book pushes the conversation further forward still Her approach is unapologetically theological grounded in the passions and concerns of mainstream doctrinal theology And yet she is insisting that music must be given its due place in the ecology of theology Although convinced that music should not be set up as a rival to linguistic or conceptual articulation let alone swallow up traditional modes of theological language and thought she is equally convinced that music is an irreducible means of coming to terms with the world a unique vehicle of world disclosure and as such can generate a particular form of understanding there are things which God may only be saying through music If this is so it is incumbent on the theologian to listen Jeremy Begbie from the Foreword Theology and the Arts Ruth Illman, W. Alan Smith, 2013-06-07 This book brings the emerging fields of practical theology and theology of the arts into a dialogue beyond the bias of modern systematic and constructive theology The authors draw upon postmodern post secular feminist liberation and dialogical dialectical philosophy and theology and their critiques of the narrow modern emphases on reason and the scientific method as the model for all knowledge Such a practical theology of the arts focuses the work of theology on the actual practices that engage the arts in their various forms as the means of interpreting and understanding the nature of the communities and their members as well as the mechanisms through which these communities engage in transformative work to make persons and neighborhoods whole This book presents its theological claims through the careful analysis of several stories of communities around the world that have engaged in transformational practices through a specific art form investigating communities from Europe the Middle East South America and the U S The case studies explored include Jewish Christian Muslim Druze indigenous and sometimes agnostic subjects involved in visual art music dance theatre documentary film and literature Theology and the Arts demonstrates that the challenges of a postmodern and post secular context require a fundamental rethinking of theology that focuses on discrete practices of faithful communities rather than one dimensional theories about religion T&T Clark Handbook of Theology and the Arts

Stephen M. Garrett, Imogen Adkins, 2025-04-24 This volume presents the theology arts conversation from a distinctly Christian perspective as a witness of the Gospel of Christ to the world A widespread interest in the historical socio cultural and political embeddedness of theology and the arts permeates it This theme of embeddedness tracks through several overarching and interlocking concerns the relationship between form and content in both art and theology the intensification of the metaphysical and the theological contra materialist and positivist reductionisms the expansion of the epistemological possibilities of the theology art conversation and a robust understanding of the world as the theatre of God s glory Several chapters have been co written by theologians and artists as part of demonstrating the kind of conversation that this book commends A thorough going commitment to Scripture is also woven into the many different habits of thought represented in this volume Part I surveys different approaches to the theology arts conversation Part II focuses on how particular art forms bring theological issues to the surface and how theological and denominational traditions shape the making and receiving of the arts Part III delves into key topics in the current theology arts scene and asks how artistic and theological performance can both speak to theological and artistic knowing and help to celebrate and interrogate embodied lived reality Music:

Its Theologies and Spiritualities Edward Foley, 2020-11-25 This volume is an exploration of the varied and sometimes unrecognized ways in which music especially in ritual contexts can serve as both a spiritual conduit as well as a theological source With topics ranging from a Congolese choir in Ireland to the Orthodox chant in Georgia from postmodern reflections on new Passion compositions to reflections on the sacramentality of Black gospel music this volume offers a rich plumbing of very diverse yet well researched musical traditions case studies from around the globe for their spiritual and theological contributions

The Problem with The Dot Bruce D. Long, 2021-03-02 The Problem with the Dot is rooted in the idea that culture is a garden to be tended Gen 2 15 rather than a war to be won and uses the analogy of an ecosystem to expand the details of the individual components of the theatrical ecosystem to 1 Help those with minimal exposure to theater understand the indivisible construct of the theatrical ecosystem 2 Identify areas of Christian neglect within each component and 3 Emphasize strategic corrections that will result in the holistic restoration of a healthy global culture Each chapter strengthens the case for a long term holistic approach to the care and cultivation of global culture through the theatrical ecosystem culminating in a call to action that is magnified by the unique opportunity presented by the 2020 global pandemic that forced a hiatus on all theatrical productions The market will reset and artists will revive theaters It is my prayer that when this grand reopening occurs around the globe Christians are an integral part of the new beginning Resounding Truth ()

Jeremy S. Begbie, 2007-12-01 Christianity Today 2008 Book Award Theology Ethics Even fallen humans compose beautiful symphonies music that touches emotions as nothing else can Resounding Truth shows Christians how to uncover the Gospel message found in the many melodies that surround us Theologian and musician Jeremy Begbie believes our divinely inspired imagination reveals opportunity for sincere heartfelt praise With practical examples lucid explanations and an accessible bibliography this book will help music lovers discover how God's diversity shines through sound Begbie helps readers see the Master of Song and experience the harmony of heavenly hope Sacred Music in Secular Society Jonathan Arnold, 2016-04-08 If music has ever given you a glimpse of something beyond the horizons of our materialism or our contemporary values James MacMillan then you will find this book essential reading Sacred Music in Secular Society is a new and challenging work asking why Christian sacred music is now appealing afresh to a wide and varied audience both religious and secular Jonathan Arnold offers unique insights as a professional singer of sacred music in liturgical and concert settings worldwide as an ordained Anglican priest and as a senior research fellow Blending scholarship theological reflection and interviews with some of the greatest musicians and spiritual leaders of our day including James MacMillan and Rowan Williams Arnold suggests that the intrinsically theological and spiritual nature of sacred music remains an immense attraction particularly in secular society Intended by the composer and inspired by religious intentions this theological and spiritual heart reflects our inherent need to express our humanity and search for the mystical or the transcendent Offering a unique examination of the relationship between sacred music and secular society this book will appeal to readers interested in contemporary spirituality Christianity music worship faith and society whether believers or not including theologians musicians and sociologists The Bible and Art, Perspectives from Oceania Caroline Blyth, Nasili Vaka'uta, 2017-02-09 This volume takes readers on a fascinating journey through the visual arts of Aotearoa New Zealand Australia and the Pacific Islands contemplating the multivocal dialogues that occur between these artistic media and the texts and traditions of the Bible With their distinctively antipodean perspectives contributors explore the innovative ways that both creators and beholders of Oceanic arts draw upon their contexts and cultures in order to open up creative engagements with the stories themes and theologies of the biblical traditions Various motifs weave their way throughout the volume including antipodean landscapes and ecology post colonialism philosophy Oceanic spiritualities and the often contested engagements between western and indigenous cultures Within this weaving process each essay invites readers to contemplate these various forms of visual culture through Oceanic eyes and to appreciate the fresh insights that this process can bring to reading and interpreting the biblical traditions The result is a rich and interdisciplinary array of conversations that will capture the attention of readers within the fields of biblical reception studies cultural studies theology and art history Theological Interpretation of Culture in Post-Communist Context Ivana Noble, 2016-12-05 Twenty years after the fall of Communism in Central and East Europe is an occasion to reevaluate the cultural and theological contribution from that region to the secularization post secularization debate Czech theologian Ivana Noble develops a Trinitarian theology through a close dialogue with literature music and film which formed not only alternatives to totalitarian ideologies but also followed the loss and reappearance of belief in God Noble explains that by listening to the artists the churches and theologians can deal with questions about the nature of the world memory and ultimate fulfilment in a more nuanced way Then as partakers in the search undertaken by their secular and post secular contemporaries theologians can penetrate a new depth of meaning sending out shoots from the stump of Christian symbolism Drawing on the rich cultures of Central and East Europe and both Western and Eastern theological traditions this book presents a theological reading of contemporary culture which is important not just for post Communist countries but for all who are engaged in the debate on the boundaries between theology politics and arts

Melodies of a New Monasticism Craig Gardiner, 2018-03-09 The New Monastic Movement is a vibrant source of renewal for the church's life and mission Many involved in this movement have quoted Dietrich Bonhoeffer's conviction that the church must recover ancient spiritual disciplines if it is to effectively engage the powers that be Melodies of a New Monasticism adopts a musical metaphor of polyphony the combination of two or more lines of music to articulate the way that these early Christian virtues can be woven together in community Creatively using this imagery this book draws on the theological vision of Bonhoeffer and the contemporary witness of George MacLeod and the Iona Community to explore the interplay between discipleship doctrine and ethics A recurring theme is the idea of Christ as the cantus firmus the fixed song around which people perform the diverse harmonies of God in church and world including worship ecumenism healing peace justice and ecology

The End of the Church? Hannah Marije Altorf, John Reuben Davies, Tibor Fabiny, Michael Fuller, Trevor Hart, Alison Jack, Elisabeth Jay, Lori A . Kanitz, Vassiliki Kolocotroni, Ann Loades, Margaret Masson, Donald Orr, Jeremy J . Smith, Heather Walton, 2022-12-01 These 14 essays by scholars who have worked with David Jasper in both church and academy develop original discussions of themes emerging from his writings on literature theology and hermeneutics The arts institutions literature and liturgy are among the subject areas they cover

The Kuyper Center Review Gordon Graham, 2010 This volume of essays is a new step by the Abraham Kuyper Center for Public Theology at Princeton Theological Seminary to stimulate new work in the broad area of Reformed theology and public life The contributions here deal largely with political themes some contemporary some historical

Jesus Incognito Martien E. Brinkman, 2013 In this book Martien Brinkman explores the Jesus incognito as found in Western film literature and the visual arts since 1960 His interest here is focused primarily on indirect references to the Jesus figure To his surprise he found an abundance of allusions to Jesus in key figures in modern art This confirmed his view that film literature and the visual arts make a substantial contribution even in secular Western culture to continuing reflection on Jesus significance Brinkman finds important characteristics of a hidden Christ in films by Gabriel Axel Ingmar Bergman Krzysztof Kieslowski and Lars von Trier novels by Peter De Vries J M Coetzee and Arnon Grunberg poems by Les Murray and Czeslaw Milosz and paintings by Andy Warhol Harald Duwe and Frans Franciscus He defines a hidden Christ as a fictional human individual who can be seen as a new embodiment of the meaning that can be attributed in the present to the biblical figure of Jesus The hidden Christ is therefore a contemporized Jesus figure This book will be of interest for everyone who shares Brinkman's quest for this Jesus incognito

Redeeming Transcendence in the Arts Jeremy Begbie, 2018-02-14 How can the arts witness to the transcendence of the Christian God Many people believe that there is something transcendent about the arts that they can awaken a profound sense of awe wonder and mystery of something beyond this world even for those who may have no use for conventional forms of Christianity In this book Jeremy Begbie a leading voice on theology and the arts employs a biblical Trinitarian imagination to show how Christian involvement in the arts can be shaped by the distinctive vision of God's transcendence opened up in and through Jesus Christ

In the Beauty of Holiness David Lyle Jeffrey, 2017 Art and worship to 1500 Beauty and holiness as terms of art The paradoxical beauty of the cross Beauty and proportion in the sanctuary The beauty of light The beauty of holiness alfresco Beauty on the altar Art and the Bible after 1500 Beauty power and doctrine Beauty and the eye of the beholder Romantic religion and the sublime Art after belief Art against belief Return of the transcendentals

Freedom and Flourishing Robert Leigh, 2017-11-09 Freedom is vital both to Karl Barth's theology and to modern religion politics and culture Leigh describes how Barth's lifelong fascination by freedom culminated in a fresh daring engagement with it in his last completed book volume IV 3 of the massive Church Dogmatics which is probably the most important work of Christian theology in the twentieth century That volume builds on Barth's earlier work but also goes beyond it in ways that have not yet been appreciated Leigh shows how this mature theology of Barth not only responds profoundly to key questions about freedom both in philosophy and theology but also opens up a rich habitable understanding of Jesus Christ and of life in relationship with him that is prophetic for the twenty first century This involves a dynamic integration of knowing with being being with action truth with witness individual with community and divine initiative with human flourishing At the heart of this life with God is participation in the asymmetrical yet utterly reciprocal interaction between human beings and the God who loves them in freedom Leigh succeeds both in describing this participation convincingly and in demonstrating its provocative attractiveness

The Modern Theologians David F. Ford, 2013-09-23 This popular text has been updated to ensure that it continues to provide a current and comprehensive overview of the main Christian theologies of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Each chapter is written by a leading theologian and gives a clear picture of a particular movement topic or individual New and updated treatments of topics covered in earlier editions with over half the chapters new to this edition or revised by new authors New section singling out six classic theologians of the twentieth century Expanded treatment of the natural sciences gender Roman Catholic theology since Vatican II and African Asian and Evangelical theologies Completely new chapters on spirituality pastoral theology philosophical theology postcolonial biblical interpretation Pentecostal theology Islam and Christian theology Buddhism and Christian theology and theology and film As in previous editions the text opens with a full introduction to modern theology Epilogue discussing the present situation and prospects of Christian theology in the twenty first century

Theological Aesthetics Gesa Elsbeth Thiessen, 2005 While interest in the relationship between theology and the arts is on the rise there are very few resources for students and teachers let alone a comprehensive text on the subject This book fills that lacuna by providing an anthology of readings on theological aesthetics drawn from the first century to the present A superb sourcebook Theological Aesthetics brings together original texts that are relevant and timely to scholars today Editor Gesa Elsbeth Thiessen has taken a careful inclusive approach to the book including articles and extracts that are diverse and ecumenical as well as representative of gender and ethnicity The book is organized chronologically and each historical period begins with commentary by Thiessen that sets the selections in context These engaging readings range broadly over themes at the intersection of religion and the arts including beauty and revelation the vision of God artistic and divine creation God as artist images of God the interplay of the senses and the intellect human imagination mystical writings meanings of signs and symbols worship liturgy doxology the relationship of word and image icons and iconoclasm the role of the arts in twentieth century theology and much more

Imaginative Apologetics Andrew Davison, 2014-07-28 A dynamic and constructive contribution to the discussion about faith and the new atheism Apologetics is a key area of Christian theology especially in an increasingly secular society The authors explore what it means to do apologetics in an Anglican context
