politician to recognize the power of radio He appealed directly to the American people for support of his New Deal and for his foreign policy Roosevelt s speeches and fireside chats were broadcast over networks only recently equipped with newsrooms Listeners immediately learned of events they earlier would not have heard about for days In those newsrooms commentators began to interpret the news for average listeners sometimes slanting it to reflect their own view But it fell to a young star to demonstrate the full power of the medium On October 30 1938 Orson Welles War of the Worlds broadcast brought widespread panic with its fictional newscast of an alien invasion How Roosevelt used radio how the news was reported and the changes Welles caused are all detailed
