Comparative Poverty Reduction Strategies in Eastern and Southern Africa Flora Lucas Kessy,Arne Tostensen,2008 This study examines traces and maps the poverty reduction policies adopted by six countries in Eastern and Southern Africa since the mid 1990s with a view to highlighting differences and similarities New International Poverty Reduction Strategies Jean-Pierre Cling,Mireille Razafindrakoto,Francois Roubaud,2003-05-15 The World Bank and the International Monetary Fund IMF launched a joint initiative at the end of 1999 stating that they intended to set the fight against poverty at the heart of their development policies This book provides the expert critical analysis of the poverty reduction strategies that is needed Originally published in French and updat Poverty Reduction Strategy in Bangladesh Palash Kamruzzaman,2014-01-20 This book aimed at postgraduate level students analyzes government relationships with international financial institutions to evaluate the role of citizen participation in formulating national poverty reduction policies Palash Kamruzzaman first explores the rhetoric of participation in development policies and goes on to examine how such citizen participation efforts were outlined in the Poverty Reduction Strategy Paper of Bangladesh where local development brokers play an important economic role Ultimately he argues that participatory policies are not enough we need an entire overhaul of poverty reduction thinking and enough political will from citizens and politicians alike to implement it A Migration Audit of Poverty Reduction Strategies in Southern Africa Benjamin Roberts,2007 The Migration Dialogue for Southern Africa MIDSA aims to facilitate regional dialogue and cooperation on migration policy issues amongst the governments of the Southern African Development Community SADC The overall objective is to facilitate regional co operation in migration management by fostering greater understanding of migration and strengthening regional institutional and personnel capacities A Migration Audit of Poverty Reduction Strategies in Southern Africa MIDSA report No 3 examines the extent to which recent poverty reduction strategies and policy in Southern Africa reflect the current understanding of migration and its dynamics The analysis also provides some insight into the prevailing assumptions about migration and development of regional organisations governments and donors that have shaped poverty reduction strategies in the sub region Reinventing Development Lord Mawuko-Yevugah,2016-04-08 Global development actors such as the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund claim that the shift to the poverty reduction strategy framework and emphasis on local participation address the social cost of earlier adjustment programs and help put aid receiving countries back in control of their own development agenda Drawing on the case of Ghana Lord Mawuko Yevugah argues that this shift and the emphasis on partnerships between donors and poor countries local participation and country ownership simultaneously represents a substantive departure from earlier versions of neo liberalism and an attempt by global development actors and local governing and social elites to justify and legitimize the neo liberal policy paradigm This book shows how the new architecture of aid has important implications in three distinct but related ways the discursive construction and production of post colonial societies the changing focus of Western aid and development policy interventions and the reproduction of the politics of inclusive exclusion The author provides detailed and original research on the new development paradigm and develops a critical theoretical approach to re think conventional analyses of the new discourses on aid whilst offering a fresh alternative interpretation of changes in international aid relations RealWorld Evaluation Michael Bamberger,Linda Mabry,2019-07-31 RealWorld Evaluation Working Under Budget Time Data and Political Constraints addresses the challenges of conducting program evaluations in real world contexts where evaluators and their clients face budget and time constraints The new Third Edition includes a new chapter on gender equality and women s empowerment and discussion of digital technology and data science International Institutions and Economic Development in Asia Thanh Tri Vo,2010-11-16 Are international and Asian regional institutions serving the development goals of Asian and Pacific Economies as well they should The global economy led by the Asia Pacific region has undergone immense change and growth Have the existing institutions and arrangements been able to keep pace with those changes in the global economy International Institutions and Asian Development tackles these questions and is an essential book for the assessment of regional and international institutions as well as policy prescriptions for reforming them to ensure they deliver on sustainable peaceful growth and development in the region Drawing from papers presented to the 32nd Pacific Trade and Development conference in Hanoi in 2007 the contributions by distinguished authors add to the understanding of the purpose evolution relevance and gaps in regional and global institutions and their arrangements Shiro Armstrong is a Research Fellow at the Crawford School of Economics and Government at the Australian National University Vo Tri Thanh is Director of the Department for International Economic Integration Studies of the Central Institute of Economic Management in Vietnam Challenging Territoriality in Human Rights Law Wouter Vandenhoele,2015-06-19 Human rights have traditionally been framed in a vertical perspective with the duties of States confined to their own citizens or residents

Interpretations of international human rights treaties tend either to ignore or downplay obligations beyond this territorial space This edited volume challenges the territorial bias of mainstream human rights law It argues that with increased globalisation and the impact of international corporations organisations and non State actors human rights law will become less relevant if it fails to adapt to changing realities in which States are no longer the only leading actor Bringing together leading scholars in the field the book explores potential applications of international human rights law in a multi duty bearer setting The first part of the book examines the current state of the human rights obligations of foreign States corporations and international financial institutions looking in particular at the ways in which they address questions of attribution and distribution of obligations and responsibility The second part is geared towards the identification of common principles that may underpin a human rights legal regime that incorporates obligations of foreign States as well as of non State actors As a marker of important progress in understanding what lies ahead for integrating foreign States and non State actors in the human rights dutybearer regime this book will be of great interest to scholars and practitioners of international human rights law public international law and international relations

Improving Effectiveness and Outcomes for the Poor in Health, Nutrition, and Population World Bank, World Bank Publications, 2009-01-01

This study evaluates the effectiveness of the World Bank Group s support for health nutrition and population HNP in developing countries from 1997 to 2008 totaling more than 17 billion and distills lessons for greater impact in the future It finds that the Bank Group now funds a smaller share of global support for HNP than a decade ago but its support remains substantial and adds considerable value. About two thirds of the Bank's HNP support has had satisfactory outcomes often in difficult environments. But in a number of country settings particularly in Africa it has not performed well in part due to high complexity and weak capacity. Only half of HNP support had a pro poor focus while support to reduce high fertility and promote family planning has dwindled. The evaluation highlights the contribution of investments in water supply sanitation and hygiene to improving the health of the poor and the lessons from support for sector wide approaches communicable disease control and health reform. Moving forward the World Bank needs to improve the performance of its HNP support and the Bank and IFC need to take actions to ensure their support reaches the poor and contributes greater social benefits respectively. The World Bank, Asian Development Bank and Human Rights Sanae Fujita, 2013-01-01. Dr Fujita reminds us of the critically important role that human rights can play. Opening up new perspectives this book is a major and original contribution to the literature. From the foreword by Paul Hunt. Sanae Fujita's book The World Bank Asian Development Bank and Human Rights is a significant scholarly contribution to important issues of global governance in our increasingly interconnected world. The book is an excellent treatment of the emergence of participatory rights and accountability in the context of international finance and international organizations more generally. Particularly valuable is the in depth treatment of transparency and accountability at the Asian Development Bank an important and often overlooked institution critical to international governance. David Hunter American University Washington College of Law US. The World Bank and the Asian Development Bank are two of the world's major institutions conducting development projects. Both banks recognize the importance of transparency participation and accountability. Responding to criticisms and calls for reform they have developed policies that are designed to protect these values for people affected by their projects. This original and timely book examines these policies including those recently revised through the prism of human rights and makes suggestions for further improvement. It also analyses the development of the Banks stance to human rights in general. This unique book contains valuable and deeply insightful information drawn from extensive face to face interviews with relevant actors including key personnel from both banks consultants to the banks and members of civil society organisations. It expands the scope of research discussion on human rights obligation of International financial institutions that will prove insightful for both academics and students. Practitioners will gain a great deal from the detail given on the standards of transparency participation and accountability and their applicability to the day to day operations of development institutions.
