Brass Chamber Music in Lyceum and Chautauqua Raymond David Burkhart,2016-05-23 This study of brass chamber music in lyceum and chautauqua fills a lacuna in brass history It explores the forgotten phenomenon of the many chamber brass ensembles that entertained millions of Americans from coast to coast from 1877 to 1939 and presents histories of sixty one ensembles that performed music for brass trio brass quartet brass quintet and brass sextet for lyceum and chautauqua audiences The author also writes about the large repertoire of music for small brass ensembles that he discovered was published in America from 1875 through the 1920s This First American Chamber Brass School is discussed in one of five overviews of the principal eras in brass chamber music history that form the most comprehensive history of brass chamber music written in fifty years Hardbound

Choral Arrangements of the African-American Spirituals Patricia J.

Trice,1998-02-12 Although the choral arrangements of the African American spirituals constitute the largest group of folk song arrangements in western literature they have received little scholarly attention This book provides the needed historical and stylistic information about the spirituals and the arrangements It traces the history and cultural roots of the genre through its inception and delineates the African and European characteristics common to the original folk songs and arrangements Ensembles that have perpetuated the growth of the spiritual arrangements from Fisk Jubilee Singers of the 1870s through those currently active are chronicled as well Musicians choral directors and scholars will welcome this first complete text on the African American spiritual genre Annotated listings of titles provide information choral directors need to make ensemble appropriate performance choices Arrangements indexed by title arranger and subject complement the accompanying biographies and repertoire information Well organized and thoroughly researched this text is a valuable addition to music choral multicultural and African American libraries
