The American Journal of Sociology Albion W. Small, Ellsworth Faris, Ernest Watson Burgess, Herbert Blumer, 1906 Established in 1895 as the first U.S. scholarly journal in its field AJS remains a leading voice for analysis and research in the social sciences presenting work on the theory, methods, practice and history of sociology AJS also seeks the application of perspectives from other social sciences and publishes papers by psychologists, anthropologists, statisticians, economists, educators, historians and political scientists The SAGE Encyclopedia of Contemporary Early Childhood Education Donna Couchenour, J. Kent Chrisman, 2016-08-16 The general public often views early childhood education as either simply babysitting or as preparation for later learning Of course both viewpoints are simplistic Deep understanding of child development, best educational practices based on development, emergent curriculum, cultural competence and applications of family systems are necessary for high quality early education Highly effective early childhood education is rare in that it requires collaboration and transitions among a variety of systems for children from birth through eight years of age The SAGE Encyclopedia of Contemporary Early Childhood Education presents in three comprehensive volumes advanced research, accurate practical applications of research, historical foundations and key facts from the field of contemporary early childhood education Through approximately 425 entries this work includes all areas of child development: physical, cognitive, language, social, emotional, aesthetic as well as comprehensive review of best educational practices with young children, effective preparation for early childhood professionals and policy making practices and addresses such questions as: How is the field of early childhood education defined? What are the roots of this field of study? How is the history of early childhood education similar to yet different from the study of public education? What are the major influences on understandings of best practices in early childhood education

Autoethnography as Method Heewon Chang, 2016-07-01 This methods book will guide the reader through the process of conducting and producing an autoethnographic study through the understanding of self, other and culture Readers will be encouraged to follow hands on though not prescriptive steps in data collection, analysis and interpretation with self-reflective prewriting exercises and self-narrative writing exercises to produce their own autoethnographic work Chang offers a variety of techniques for gathering data on the self from diaries to culture grams to interviews with others and shows how to transform this information into a study that looks for the connection with others present in a diverse world She shows how the autoethnographic process promotes self-reflection, understanding of multicultural others, qualitative inquiry and narrative writing Samples of published autoethnographies provide exemplars for the novice researcher to follow

Developing a Model for Culturally Responsive Experiential Education Elizabeth Laura Yomantas, 2023-12-01 This book provides a new empirically informed framework designed to equip higher education faculty with the tools to help students engage in humanizing, mutually beneficial and anti-colonial experiential education alongside other students and communities around the world The author maps the conceptual development of culturally responsive experiential education CREE as a novel framework situated at the nexus of culturally responsive research methodologies the Indigenous research paradigm critical service learning and critical pedagogy in experiential education The chapters detail qualitative research findings from an undergraduate CREE program in rural Fiji to illustrate the implementation of the novel CREE framework and discuss post program possibilities based on the research study findings Situated in narrative inquiry the book also includes interspersed participant vignettes in order to center student voices and illuminate the research study findings With attention to themes including emergent critical consciousness critical allyship and personal journeys of decolonization as experienced through the CREE framework it will be of benefit to both education scholars and higher education faculty interested in experiential education and culturally responsive pedagogies

Progress and Its Impact on the Nagas Tezenlo Thong, 2016-03-23 The term progress is a modern Western notion that life is always improving and advancing toward an ideal state It is a vital modern concept which underlies geographic explorations and scientific and technological inventions as well as the desire to harness nature in order to increase human beings ease and comfort With the advent of Western colonization and to the great detriment of the colonized the notion of progress began to perniciously and pervasively permeate across cultures This book details the impact of the notion of progress on the Nagas and their culture The interaction between the Nagas and the West beginning with British military conquest and followed by American missionary intrusion has resulted in the gradual demise of Naga culture It is almost a cliché to assert that since the colonial contact the long evolved Naga traditional values are being replaced by Western values Consequences are still being felt in the lack of sense of direction and confusion among the Nagas today Just like other Indigenous Peoples whose history is characterized by traumatic cultural turmoil because of colonial interference the Nagas have long been engaged in self shame self negation and self sabotage

Bassey,1999-10-30 The contribution of Western education to the creation of an African educated elite is well documented What is not equally well documented is the fact that African educated elites have used their education and the schools to perpetuate their dominance by denying the poor the knowledge necessary to protect their political and economic rights and to advance in society On the other hand educated elites in Africa make opportunities available to their own members through selective ordering legitimization of certain language forms and learning processes in schools and legitimization of elite codes and experiences to the exclusion of the histories experiences and worldviews of the poor This book highlights the processes by which the poor in Africa have been disenfranchised and marginalized through schools ascriptive mechanisms and explains why African economic development is very slow

Hispanics in the U.S Criminal Justice System Martin Guevara Urbina, Sofía Espinoza Álvarez, 2018-05-07 This updated and expanded new edition resumes the theme of the first edition and the findings reveal that race ethnicity gender class and several other variables continue to play a significant and consequential role in the legal decision making process The book is structured into three sections each of which corresponds to a different body of work on Latinos Section One explores the historical dynamics and influence of ethnicity in law enforcement and focuses on how ethnicity impacts policing field practices such as traffic stops use of force and the subsequent actions that police departments have employed to alleviate these problems A detailed examination of critical issues facing Latino defendants seeks to better understand the law enforcement process The history of immigration laws as it pertains to Mexicans and Latinos explains how Mexicans have been excluded from the United States through anti immigrant legislation Latino officers must cope with structural and political issues the community and media as these practices and experiences within the American police system are explored Section Two focuses on the repressive practices against Mexicans that resulted in executions vigilantism and mass expulsions The topic of Latinos and the Fourth Amendment reveals that the constitutional right of people to be protected against unreasonable searches and seizures has been eviscerated for Latinos and particularly for Mexicans Possible remedies to existing shortcomings of the court system when processing indigent defendants are presented Section Three studies the issue of Hispanics and the penal system The ethnic realities of life behind bars probation and parole the legacy of capital punishment and life after prison are discussed Section Four addresses the globalization of Latinos social control and the future of Latinos in the U S Criminal justice system Lastly the race and ethnic experience through the lens of science law and the American imagination are explored concluding with policy recommendations for social and criminal justice reform and ultimately humanizing differences Written for professionals and students of law enforcement this book will promote the understanding of the historical legacy of brutality manipulation oppression marginalization prejudice discrimination power and control and white America s continued fear about racial and ethnic minorities

Culture, Music Education, and the Chinese Dream in Mainland China Wai-Chung Ho, 2018-01-04 This book focuses on the rapidly changing sociology of music as manifested in Chinese society and Chinese education It examines how social changes and cultural politics affect how music is currently being used in connection with the Chinese dream While there is a growing trend toward incorporating the Chinese dream into school education and higher education there has been no scholarly discussion to date The combination of cultural politics transformed authority relations and officially approved songs can provide us with an understanding of the official content on the Chinese dream that is conveyed in today s Chinese society and how these factors have influenced the renewal of values based education and practices in school music education in China Narrative Soundings: An Anthology of Narrative Inquiry in Music Education Margaret S. Barrett, Sandra L. Stauffer, 2012-02-29 This volume focuses specifically on narrative inquiry as a means to interrogate research questions in music education offering music education researchers indispensable information on the use of qualitative research methods particularly narrative as appropriate and acceptable means of conducting and reporting research This anthology of narrative research work in the fields of music and education builds on and supports the work presented in the editors first volume in Narrative Inquiry in Music Education Troubling Certainty Barrett Stauffer 2009 Springer The first volume provides a context for undertaking narrative inquiry in music education as well as exemplars of narrative inquiry in music education and commentary from key international voices in the fields of narrative inquiry and music education respectively The Black Panther Party and Transformative Pedagogy Omari L. Dyson, 2013-11-14 The Black Panther Party and Transformative Pedagogy Place Based Education in Philadelphia by Omari L Dyson is the first scholarly text to detail the social relief efforts of the Philadelphia Pennsylvania Branch of the Black Panther Party Through a postcolonial lens this story captures the lived resistances highlights the socio historical context and examines the discourse of former members of the Black Panther Party and local residents of Philadelphia from 1968 1974 Overall this book provides insight from a multiplicity of sources to better capture the identities and complexity of the organization Not only does this text resolve a dearth in the literature that highlights the multiple facets of the Black Panther Party especially at the local level but it serves as a template on effective strategies for researchers educators and policymakers to implement on their quest for social and educational transformation
