Sources of Chinese Tradition William Theodore De Bary, 1999 This text is a collection of primary readings on the social intellectual and religious traditions of China Many of the selections are new to this volume and more than half the texts from the first edition have been newly translated The book is organized in chronological order and arranged in four parts beginning at the dawn of literate Chinese civilization with the Oracle Bone inscriptions of the late Shang Dynasty 1571 045 BC and continuing through the end of the Ming Dynasty AD 1644

Salpuri-Chum, A Korean Dance for Expelling Evil Spirits Eun-Joo Lee, Yong-Shin Kim, 2017-03-07 This book is a study of Salpuri Chum a traditional Korean dance for expelling evil spirits The authors explore the origins and practice of Salpuri Chum The ancient Korean people viewed their misfortunes as coming from evil spirits therefore they wanted to expel the evil spirits to recover their happiness The music for Salpuri Chum is called Sinawi rhythm It has no sheet music and lacks the concept of metronomic technique In this rhythm the dancer becomes a conductor Salpuri Chum is an artistic performance that resolves the people's sorrow In many cases it is a form of sublimation It is also an effort to transform the pain of reality into beauty based on the Korean people's characteristic merriment It presents itself then as a form of immanence Moreover Salpuri Chum is unique in its use of a piece of white fabric The fabric as a symbol of the Korean people's ego ideal signifies Salpuri Chum's focus as a dance for resolving their misfortunes

China and the International System, 1840-1949 David Scott, 2008-11-07 As China continues its rapid ascent within the international system questions of where it came from have particular relevance Combining history with international relations theory David Scott considers China's first substantive modern period of encounter with the West from 1840 through 1949 a period characterized as the Century of Humiliation During this time China fell from Middle Kingdom preeminence to a position in the international system that remained an enigmatic and challenging one too strong to be taken over as a colony yet not strong enough to shape its own destiny At the heart of Scott's study is encounter and with it questions of power presence and perceptions He examines the images hopes and fears that were evoked during China's century long subservience to external powers including opposing views of China as a threat or China as the sick man of Asia and the West as evil or the West as savior China and the Chinese are explored in terms of their interaction with the international system with a particular focus on America and Australia

Sources of Chinese Tradition Yi-Pao Mei,1966 Inside the World of the Eunuch Melissa S. Dale,2018-11-01 The history of Qing palace eunuchs is defined by a tension between the role eunuchs were meant to play and the life they intended to live This study tells the story of how a complicated and much maligned group of people struggled to insert a degree of agency into their lives Rulers of the Qing dynasty were determined to ensure the eunuchs subservience and to limit their influence by imposing a management style based upon strict rules corporal punishment and collective responsibility Few eunuchs wielded significant political power or lived in a lavish style during the Qing dynasty Emasculation and employment in the palace placed eunuchs at the center of the empire yet also subjected them to servile status and marginalization by society Seeking more control over their lives eunuchs serving the Qing repeatedly tested the boundaries of subservience to the emperor and the imperial court This portrait of eunuch society reveals that Qing palace eunuchs operated within two parallel realms one revolving around the emperor and the court by day and another among the eunuchs themselves by night where they recreated the social bonds through drinking gambling and opium smoking denied them by their palace service Far from being the ideal servants eunuchs proved to be a constant source of anxiety and labor challenges for the Qing court For a long time eunuchs have simply been cast as villains in Chinese history Inside the World of the Eunuch goes beyond this misleadingly one dimensional depiction to show how eunuchs actually lived during the Qing dynasty This book is a thorough and responsible account of eunuch life during the Qing dynasty which takes us deep inside the Forbidden City and introduces the often underclass families who provided servants to the Qing monarchs R Kent Guy

The Perception of Maritime Space in Traditional Chinese Sources Angela Schottenhammer,Roderich Ptak,2006 The present collection of essays has originally been prepared for an international conference entitled Maritime Space in Traditional Chinese Sources which has been convened by the editors at Munich University in February 2005 The contributions included here introduce various aspects related to East Asian seas from the Japanese Sea to the South China Sea with the Yellow and East China Seas constituting the core regions of the entire area and some of its adjacent areas Although Braudelian categories are inherently present in the discussion and directly addressed in one or two papers the focus lies on a set of more basic variables which are intimately linked to the idea of contact zones or alternatively the parallel and apparently older notion that the sea should be seen as a protective belt around the mainland This volume is consequently primarily concerned with the perception of maritime space in traditional Chinese sources the division of this space into oceans and seas the existence usage and management of trade routes and above all of China s coastal waters or maritime periphery For this purpose in addition to textual sources maps will be examined as well As the perception division and management of maritime space cannot be completely disassociated from other themes such as trade and travel diplomacy and military controls or even daily life during a sea voyage these aspects were also touched upon in the discussion But they are of secondary importance and subordinated to the general issue of geography With this in mind following an introductory essay by Angela Schottenhammer the contributions are divided into three sections 1 Maritime Space Trade and Defence 2 Maritime Space Coasts Routes Oceans 3 Maritime Space and Maps The articles by Chang Pin tsun Jane Kate Leonard and Jung Byung chul fall into the first category Those by Chen Bo Liu Yingsheng Sally K Church Christine Moll Murata Li Tana and Mathieu Torck belong to the second group while the last section is comprised by the papers of Li Xiacong Claudine Salmon and Roderich Ptak There are many cross connections between these essays Geographically some of them pertain to the northern spheres especially the Liaodong Korea region others look at the South China Sea or even at areas far beyond these two Some are case studies others deal with general dimensions The military element usually in the form of coastal defence is not only present in the first section but also in the cartographic segment and in one or two contributions which appear in part two Furthermore readers will find that the idea of contact zones associated with a good degree of open mindedness towards the outer world is present in some texts just as they will discover that in other cases the sea still appears as a kind of barrier
