Corbin, 2018 Introduction to South Pacific Law Jennifer Corrin Care, 2007-08-27 Language Description, History and Development Jeff Siegel, John Lynch, Diana Eades, 2007-03-14 This volume in memory of Terry Crowley covers a wide range of languages Australian Oceanic Pidgins and Creoles and varieties of English Part I Linguistic Description and Typology includes chapters on topics such as complex predicates and verb serialization noun incorporation possessive classifiers diphthongs accent patterns modals in Australian English and directional terms in atoll based languages Part II Historical Linguistics and Linguistic History ranges from the reconstruction of Australian languages to reflexes of Proto Oceanic to the lexicon of early Melanesian Pidgin Part III Language Development and Linguistic Applications comprises studies of lexicography language in education and language endangerment and language revival spanning the Pacific from South Australia and New Zealand to Melanesia and on to Colombia The volume will whet the appetite of anyone interested in the latest linguistic research in this richly multilingual part of the globe Human Rights in the South Pacific Sue Farran, 2009-01-15 This book looks at the challenges and contemporary issues raised by human rights in the island countries of the South West Pacific which have come under the influence of the common law where the legal systems are complex and perceptions of rights varies widely Drawing on a wide range of resources to present a contemporary and evolving picture of human rights in the island states of the South Pacific region the book considers the human rights aspects of constitutions legal institutions and structures social organisation culture and custom tradition and change The materials provide legal historical political social and cultural insights into the lived experience of human rights in the region supported by illustrative material from case law media reports and policy documents The book also locates the human rights concerns of Pacific islanders firmly within the wider theoretical and international domain while at the same time maintaining focus on the importance of the unique identity of Pacific island nations and people Human Rights in the South Pacific will appeal to anyone interested in the region or in human rights including international rights advocates investors and developers policy makers representatives of government and civic society and those wishing to acquire a better understanding of what countries emerging from colonial rule face in developing but still retaining their identity

Psychopathology and World Politics Ralph Pettman, 2012 This unique work looks at the relationship between psychopathology and world politics What happens when the brain mind ceases to function properly How does this impinge on world affairs What is to be done for example when a leader ceases to act in a seemingly sane fashion and yet still commands the loyalty of those who maintain him or her in office What is to be done when a leader's advisers seem rational but are clearly not Indeed what is to be done when a whole society goes insane This is to raise more questions than a single work can adequately answer In lieu of a comprehensive account which would be beyond the scope of one study what this book does is first describe psychopathology in general terms and its relationship to world affairs It then looks at denial in particular and at OC speaking the truth OCO as a potentially therapeutic antidote especially in relation to nuclear weapons It follows this by looking at delusion in general and at what being OC in touch OCO with reality might entail with regard to a so called OC failed state OCO With topics ranging from Hitler's mental health to the continuing threat of nuclear Armageddon this book is a valuable contribution to the field of international politics and modern psychology and will hopefully lead to a better understanding of contemporary world affairs and the global issue of conflict resolution

Managing Wilderness Regions Ian Flintoff, Sally Cohen, 1998 This resource file offers extension and support tasks for Edexcel B geography Extended research ideas help with fieldwork and investigation and sample questions and mark schemes provide practice for exams There are planning tools for teachers and additional case study materials and map outlines

South Pacific Handbook David Stanley, 1985 The Oxford Handbook of International Cultural Heritage Law Francesco Francioni, Ana Filipa Vrdoljak, 2020-07-30 This Handbook provides a cutting edge study of the fast developing field of international law on the protection of cultural heritage by taking stock of the recent developments and of the core concepts and current challenges The legal protection of cultural heritage has come under renewed focus from the international community and states since the 1990s This is evidenced by the adoption of a range of international instruments Countries are also enacting cultural heritage legislation or overhauling existing laws within their own national territory Contributions address the protection of immovable and movable tangible and intangible cultural heritage in peacetime and in the event of armed conflict as well as the interaction between specific regimes of cultural heritage protection with other fields of international law including international criminal law human rights and humanitarian law environmental law international trade investments and intellectual property The last part of the Handbook covers diverse regional systems of heritage protection
