COLLINS

CAPTAIN EVANS was second in command of the British Antarctic Expedition commanded by Captain Scott, and took over Captain Scott's position as leader after his death. It will be remembered that during the war Captain Evans was in command of H.M.S. Broke, which, together with H.M.S. Swift, engaged six German destroyers, sinking two and torpedoing a third. It is an interesting, intimate, racy, and absorbing account of the expedition compressed into comparatively small compass, and fully brings out the intense difficulties the expedition had to face, the heroism displayed by every member of the party, and the magnificent scientific results obtained.
