South African Kingdom The Pursuit Of Security In Nineteenth Century Lesotho:

A South African Kingdom Elizabeth A. Eldredge, 2002-06-06 The Basotho kingdom emerged and consolidated in the dramatic and dangerous environment of nineteenth century South Africa In this 2003 book Elizabeth Eldredge provides a rich description of local agriculture iron working and craft industries bringing out the resourceful responses of the Basotho to the challenges of drought and famine and explaining the dynamics of the competition for land During the colonial period regional economic integration increasingly influenced local production land use and internal politics and drew the Basotho into the regional migrant labour system Throughout these turbulent years the overriding interest of the Basotho was the pursuit of security Dr Eldredge analyzes the epic struggle which bound together rich and poor chiefs and commoners and men and women in a largely successful effort to sustain this fragile and innovative society in the face of political threats and environmental challenges

Islam and Social Change in French West Africa Sean Hanretta, 2009-03-23 Exploring the history and religious community of a group of Muslim Sufi mystics in colonial French West Africa this study shows the relationship between religious social and economic change in the region It highlights the role that intellectuals played in shaping social and cultural change and illuminates the specific religious ideas and political contexts that gave their efforts meaning In contrast to depictions that emphasize the importance of international networks and anti modern reaction in twentieth century Islamic reform this book claims that in West Africa such movements were driven by local forces and constituted only the most recent round in a set of centuries old debates about the best way for pious people to confront social injustice It argues that traditional historical methods prevent an appreciation of Muslim intellectual history in Africa by misunderstanding the nature of information gathering during colonial rule and misconstruing the relationship between documents and oral history

Cultivating the Colonies Christina Folke Ax, Niels Brimnes, Niklas Thode Jensen, Karen Oslund, 2014-06-16 The essays collected in Cultivating the Colonies demonstrate how the relationship between colonial power and nature reveals the nature of power Each essay explores how colonial governments translated ideas about the management of exotic nature and foreign people into practice and how they literally got their hands dirty in the business of empire The eleven essays include studies of animal husbandry in the Philippines farming in Indochina and indigenous medicine in India They are global in scope ranging from the Russian North to Mozambique examining the consequences of colonialism on nature including its impact on animals fisheries farmlands medical practices and even the diets of indigenous people Cultivating the Colonies establishes beyond all possible doubt the importance of the environment as a locus for studying the power of the colonial state

A Military History of South Africa Timothy J. Stapleton, 2010-04-09 This work offers the first one volume comprehensive military history of modern South Africa A Military History of South Africa From the Dutch Khoi Wars to the End of Apartheid represents the first comprehensive military history of South Africa from the beginning of European colonization in the Cape during the 1650s to the current postapartheid republic With particular emphasis on the last 200 years this balanced analysis stresses the historical importance of warfare and military structures in the shaping of modern South African society Important themes include military adaptation during the process of colonial conquest and African resistance the growth of South Africa as a regional military power from the early 20th century and South African involvement in conflicts of the decolonization era Organized chronologically each chapter reviews the major conflicts policies and military issues of a specific period in South African history Coverage includes the wars of colonial conquest 1830-69 the diamond wars 1869-81 the gold wars 1886-1910 World Wars I and II 1910-45 and the apartheid wars 1948-94

Politics and Society in South Africa Darryl Glaser, 2000-12-22 Darryl Glaser supplies an illuminating overview of the scholarship since 1970 on South Africa's political history His emphasis is on the debates between liberals Marxists and to a lesser extent post structuralists about the origins and the course of South Africa's racial order Tom Lodge University of Witwatersrand A well researched well argued readable interesting informative and competent study Capital and Class Providing a wide ranging and critical introduction to contemporary South Africa this book uses an interdisciplinary lens to introduce the student to the main debates historical context and issues that have characterized the study of South Africa over the last three decades Key topics include the role of colonialism capitalism and modernity in the formation of the racial order changes in the South African state questions of class race and ethnicity black resistance and the transition to democracy A number of underlying debates are critically evaluated For example the contribution of materialist and class analytic approaches the application of post structuralism and theories of modernity and the prospects for democratic liberalism and socialism in post apartheid South Africa

Christianity and Genocide in Rwanda Timothy Longman, 2010 This book studies the role of Christian churches in the 1994 Rwandan genocide Timothy Longman's research shows that Rwandan churches have consistently allied themselves with the state and engaged in ethnic politics making them a center of struggle over power and resources He argues that the genocide in Rwanda was a conservative response to progressive forces that were attempting to democratize Christian churches

Slavery In South Africa Elizabeth Eldredge, Fred Morton, 2019-05-28 South African slavery differs from slavery practiced in other frontier zones of European settlement in that the settlers enslaved indigenes as a supplement to and eventually as a replacement for imported slave labor On the expanding frontier Dutch speaking farmers increasingly met their labor needs by conducting slave raids arming African slave

Money in a Human Economy Keith Hart's, 2017-06-01 A human economy puts people first in emergent world society Money is a human universal and now takes the divisive form of capitalism This book addresses how to think about money from Aristotle to the daily news and the sexual economy of luxury goods its contemporary evolution banking the unbanked and remittances in the South cross border investment in China the payments industry and the politics of bitcoin and cases from 19th century India and Southern Africa to contemporary Haiti and Argentina Money is one idea with diverse forms As national monopoly currencies give way to regional and global federalism money is a key to achieving economic democracy Kingship and State Christopher Wrigley, 2002-05-16 The precolonial kingdom of Buganda nucleus of the present Uganda state has long attracted scholarly interest Since written records are lacking entirely until 1862 historians have had to rely on oral traditions that were recorded from the end of the nineteenth century These sources provide rich materials on Buganda in the late eighteenth and nineteenth centuries but in this 1996 book Christopher Wrigley endeavours to show that the stories which appear to relate to earlier periods are largely mythology He argues that this does not reduce their value since they are of interest in their own mythical right revealing ancient traces of sacred kingship and also throwing oblique light on the development of the recent state He has written an elegant and wide ranging study of one of Africa s most famous kingdoms Boundaries, Communities and State-Making in West Africa Paul Nugent, 2019-06-06 By examining three centuries of history this book shows how vital border regions have been in shaping states and social contracts Decolonization and African Society Frederick Cooper, 1996-08-28 This detailed and authoritative volume changes our conceptions of imperial and African history Frederick Cooper gathers a vast range of archival sources in French and English to achieve a truly comparative study of colonial policy toward the recruitment control and institutionalization of African labor forces from the mid 1930s when the labor question was first posed to the late 1950s when decolonization was well under way Professor Cooper explores colonial conceptions of the African worker and shows how African trade union and political leaders used the new language of social change to claim equality and a share of power This helped to persuade European officials that the modern Africa they imagined was unaffordable Britain and France could not reshape African society As they left the continent the question was how they had affected the ways in which Africans could reorganize society themselves Politics and Violence in Burundi Aidan Russell, 2019-10-17 Reveals the neglected history of decolonisation and violence in Burundi through the political language of truth citizenship and violence Witchcraft and Colonial Rule in Kenya, 1900-1955 Katherine Luongo, 2011-09-26 Focusing on colonial Kenya this book shows how conflicts between state authorities and Africans over witchcraft related crimes provided an important space in which the meanings of justice law and order in the empire were debated Katherine Luongo discusses the emergence of imperial networks of knowledge about witchcraft She then demonstrates how colonial concerns about witchcraft produced an elaborate body of jurisprudence about capital crimes The book analyzes the legal wrangling that produced the Witchcraft Ordinances in the 1910s the birth of an anthro administrative complex surrounding witchcraft in the 1920s the hotly contested Wakamba Witch Trials of the 1930s the explosive growth of legal opinion on witch murder in the 1940s and the unprecedented state sponsored cleansings of witches and Mau Mau adherents during the 1950s A work of anthropological history this book develops an ethnography of Kamba witchcraft or uoi

The Lion's Historian Sandra Swart, 2025-05-06 Until the lion has a historian of his own the tale of the hunt will always glorify the hunter Sandra Swart takes up the challenge of that African proverb and with this book becomes the lion s historian As a species humans are not alone but our history has been written as though we were Swart insists on a multispecies retelling of our more than human past as she reconstructs a shifting series of significant interspecies relationships from quirky idiosyncratic connections to others that triggered major changes Embracing a radical interdisciplinarity informed by a background in history and environmental studies Swart combines the natural sciences with the social sciences oral history indigenous knowledge and archival research She blends current thinking about animal sentience agency cognition and emotion to offer a new way to understand animals roles in our shared history The animals in this book baboons cows elephants hippos horses jackals lions Nazi cattle okapi police dogs quagga sheep and white ants exemplify different facets of our shared past With this animal centric lens decades of research come together in a collection that takes animals seriously It is a book with claws and fangs tearing through conventional narratives to ask Are we prepared to move beyond the convention that history is the story of only our own species

Outlaws, Anxiety, and Disorder in Southern Africa Rachel King, 2019-06-18 This book explores how objects landscapes and architecture were at the heart of how people imagined outlaws and disorder in colonial southern Africa Drawing on evidence from several disciplines it chronicles how cattle raiders were created pursued and controlled and how modern scholarship strives to reconstruct pasts of disruption and deviance Through a series of vignettes Rachel King uses excavated material rock art archival texts and object collections to explore different facets of how disorderly figures were shaped through impressions of places and material culture as much as actual transgression Addressing themes from mobility to wilderness historiography to violence resistance to development King details the world that raiders made over the last two centuries in southern Africa while also critiquing scholars tools for describing this world Offering inter disciplinary perspectives on the past in Africa s southernmost mountains this book grapples with concepts relevant to those interested in rule breakers and rule makers both in Africa and the wider world

Standardisation and the Wealth of Place Names: Aspects of a Delicate Relationship Chrismi-Rinda Loth, Standardisation and the Wealth of Place Names Aspects of a Delicate Relationship is a selection of double blind peer reviewed papers from the 6th International Symposium on Place Names that took place virtually 29 September 1 October 2021 The symposium explored the issues of multiple place names vis vis processes of standardisation These studies collectively show that there is not a simplistic dichotomy between standardisation and the protection of cultural heritage Some papers grapple with the implications and execution of standardisation processes while others explore the emergence of alternative or unofficial names in response to top down initiatives The matter of signed place names also receives some attention A number of papers excavate the layers of multiple place names thereby contributing to our wealth of toponymic knowledge These proceedings are the product of collaboration between Southern African and international researchers As such it is a valuable resource to local as well as international scholars who are interested in the interdisciplinary field of toponymy

Encyclopedia of African Colonial Conflicts Timothy J. Stapleton, 2016-11-07 Two volumes introduce the history of colonial wars in Africa and illustrate why African countries like the Democratic Republic of Congo Nigeria Somalia and Sudan continue to experience ethnic political and religious violence in the early 21st century This sweeping study examines the wars of colonial conquest fought in Africa during the 19th and early 20th centuries From Britain s efforts to wrest control of the Sudan from military leader Muhammad Ahmad al Mahdi to Italy s decisive defeat at the Battle of Adowa in Ethiopia to Leopold II s brutal reign over the Belgian Congo the work surveys the devastation reaped upon the continent by colonization and illustrates how its combative influence continues to resonate in Africa today Written by scholars in the fields of history and politics this complete reference includes entries on wars campaigns rebellions battles leaders and organizations The work delves into key historical periods including the Scramble for Africa ca 1880 to 1910 early European colonial wars in Africa such as the Dutch in the Cape and the Portuguese in Angola and Mozambique and African rebellions against the early colonial state in the 1890s and early 1900s Entries feature prominent events and personalities as well as lesser known occurrences and players

Shaping the African Savannah Michael Bollig,2020-07-02 The southern African savannah landscape has been framed as an Arid Eden in recent literature as one of Africa s most sought after exotic tourism destinations by twenty first century travellers as a last frontier by early twentieth century travellers and as an ancient ancestral land by Namibia s Herero communities In this 150 year history of the region Michael Bollig looks at how this Arid Eden came into being how this last frontier was construed and how local pastoralists relate to the landscape Putting the intricate and changing relations between humans arid savannah grasslands and its co evolving animal inhabitants at the centre of his analysis this history of material relations of power struggles between commercial hunters and wildlife between wealthy cattle patrons and foraging clients between established homesteads and recent migrants conservationists and pastoralists Finally Bollig highlights how futures are being aspired to and planned for between the increasing challenges of climate change global demands for cheap ores and quests for biodiversity conservation

Party Politics and Economic Reform in Africa's Democracies M. Anne Pitcher,2012-05-07 Argues that the interaction of formal institutions and the quality of democracy explain patterns of private sector development across Africa
