Southeast Asians A New Beginning In Lowell:

Southeast Asian Refugees and Immigrants in the Mill City Tuyet-Lan Pho, Jeffrey N. Gerson, Sylvia R. Cowan, 2007 Original interdisciplinary essays highlight the pain struggles and victories of Southeast Asian refugees and immigrants in a mid sized New England city Handbook, 1979 Asian-american Education Meyer Weinberg, 2012-12-06 Asian American Education Historical Background and Current Realities fills a gap in the study of the social and historical experiences of Asians in U S schools It is the first historical work to provide American readers with information about highly individual ethnic groups rather than viewing distinctly different groups as one vague global entity such as Asians The people who populate each chapter are portrayed as active participants in their history rather than as passive victims of their culture Each of the twelve country specific chapters begins with a description of the kind of education received in the home country including how widely available it was how equal or unequal the society was and what were the circumstances under which the emigration of children from the country occurred The latter part of each of these chapters deals with the education these children have received in the United States Throughout the book instead of dwelling on a relatively narrow range of children who perform spectacularly well the author tries to discover the educational situation typical among average students The order of chapters is roughly chronological in terms of when the first sizable numbers of immigrants came from a specific country

Tonal Intelligence Sunny Xiang, 2020-12-15 Why were U S intelligence organizations so preoccupied with demystifying East and Southeast Asia during the mid twentieth century Sunny Xiang offers a new way of understanding the American cold war in Asia by tracing aesthetic manifestations of Oriental inscrutability across a wide range of texts She examines how cold war regimes of suspicious thinking produced an ambiguity between Oriental enemies and Asian allies contributing to the conflict s status as both a real war and a long peace Xiang puts interrogation reports policy memos and field notes into conversation with novels poems documentaries and mixed media work by artists such as Theresa Hak Kyung Cha Kazuo Ishiguro Ha Jin and Trinh T Minh ha She engages her archive through a reading practice centered on tone juxtaposing Asian diasporans who appear similar in profile yet who differ in tone Tonal Intelligence considers how the meaning of race war and empire came under pressure during two interlinked periods of geopolitical transition American nation building in East and Southeast Asia during the mid twentieth century and Asian economic modernization during the late twentieth century By reading both state records and aesthetic texts from these periods for their tone rather than their content Xiang shows how bygone threats of Asian communism and emergent regimes of Asian capitalism have elicited distinct yet related anxieties about racial intelligibility Featuring bold methods unlikely archives and acute close readings Tonal Intelligence rethinks the marking and making of race during the long cold war

Contemporary Asian America Min Zhou, James V. Gatewood, 2007-01-01 How does one capture the delightful irony of Edith Wharton s prose or the spare lyricism of Kate Chopin s Kathleen Wheeler challenges the reader to experiment with a more imaginative method of literary criticism in order to comprehend more fully writers of the Modernist and late Realist period In examining the creative works of seven women writers from the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Wheeler never lets the mystery and magic of literature be overcome by dry critical analysis Modernist Women Writers and Narrative Art begins by evaluating how Edith Wharton Kate Chopin and Willa Cather all engaged in an ironic critique of realism They explored the inadequacies of this form in expressing human experience and revealed its hidden often contradictory assumptions Building on the foundation that Wharton Chopin and Cather established Jean Rhys Katherine Mansfield Stevie Smith and Jane Bowles brought literature into the era we now consider modernism Drawing on insights from feminist theory deconstructionism and revisions of new historicism Kathleen Wheeler reveals a literary tradition rich in narrative strategy and stylistic sophistication
