Ledger Grammy Award winning songwriter and producer Tena Clark recounts her chaotic childhood in a time fraught with racial and social tension Tena was born in 1953 in a tiny Mississippi town close to the Alabama border where the legacy of slavery and racial injustice still permeated every aspect of life On the outside Tena s childhood looked like a fairytale Her father was one of the richest men in the state her mother was a regal beauty The family lived on a sprawling farm and had the only swimming pool in town Tena was given her first car a royal blue Camaro at twelve But behind closed doors Tena s family life was deeply lonely and dysfunctional By the time she was three her parents marriage had dissolved into a swamp of alcohol rampant infidelity and guns Adding to the turmoil Tena understood from a very young age that she was different from her three older sisters all of whom had been beauty queens and majorettes Tena knew she didn t want to be a majorette she wanted to marry one On Tena s tenth birthday her mother emboldened by alcoholism and enraged by her husband s incessant cheating walked out for good instantly becoming an outcast in their society Tena was left in the care of her nanny Virgie even though she was raising nine of her own children and was not allowed to eat from the family s plates or use their bathroom It was Virgie s acceptance and unconditional love that gave Tena the courage to stand up to her domineering father the faith to believe in her mother s love and the strength to be her true self Combining the spirit of brave coming of age memoirs such as The Glass Castle and vivid evocative Southern fiction like To Kill a Mockingbird Southern Discomfort is an unforgettable southern story that sings brightly to the incredible strength of family ties and the great power of love The Atlanta Journal Constitution and is destined to become a new classic
