Southie Won't Go Ione Malloy,1986 Southie Won't Go Ione Malloy,1986 Boston Against Busing Ronald P. Formisano,2012-01-01 Perhaps the most spectacular reaction to court ordered busing in the 1970s occurred in Boston where there was intense and protracted protest Ron Formisano explores the sources of white opposition to school desegregation Racism was a key factor Formisano argues but racial prejudice alone cannot explain the movement Class resentment ethnic rivalries and the defense of neighborhood turf all played powerful roles in the protest In a new epilogue Formisano brings the story up to the present day describing the end of desegregation orders in Boston and other cities He also examines the nationwide trend toward the resegregation of schools which he explains is the result of Supreme Court decisions attacks on affirmative action white flight and other factors He closes with a brief look at the few school districts that have attempted to base school assignment policies on class or economic status Reforming Boston Schools, 1930-2006 J. Cronin,2008-02-14 Boston s schools in 2006 won the Eli Broad Prize for the Most Improved Urban School System in America But from the 1930s into the 1970s the city schools succumbed to scandals including the sale of jobs and racial segregation This book describes the black voices before and after court decisions and the struggles of Boston teachers before and after collective bargaining The contributions of universities corporations and political leaders to restore academic achievement are evaluated by one who observed Boston schools for forty years Boston Riots Jack Tager,2001 The fascinating story of Boston s violent past is told for the first time in this history of the city s riots from the food shortage uprisings in the 18th century to the anti busing riots of the 20th century The Soiling of Old Glory Louis P. Masur,2010-08-01 Boston April 5 1976 As the city simmered with racial tension over forced school busing newsman Stanley Forman photographed a white protester outside City Hall assaulting an African American attorney with the American flag The photo shocked Boston made front pages across the U S and won a Pulitzer Prize Acclaimed historian Louis P Masur has done extensive research including personal interviews with those involved to reveal the unknown story of what really happened that day and afterward This evocative biography of a photograph unpacks this arresting image to trace the lives of the men who intersected at that moment to examine the power of photography and the meaning of the flag and to reveal how a single picture helped change race relations in Boston and America The Soiling of Old Glory like the photograph itself offers a dramatic window onto the turbulence of the 1970s and race relations in America South Boston, My Home Town Thomas H. O'Connor,1994 An engaging yet objective look at the 350 year old history of Southie a neighborhood that has survived largely unchanged since the early days of immigrant Irish families and old time political bosses Boston Against Busing Ronald P. Formisano,2004 Perhaps the most spectacular reaction to court ordered busing in the 1970s occurred in Boston where there was intense and protracted protest Ron Formisano explores the sources of white opposition to school desegregation Racism was a key factor Formisa How We Got Here David Frum,2008-08-04 For many the 1970s evoke the Brady Bunch and the birth of disco In this first thematic popular history of the decade David Frum argues that it was the 1970s not the 1960s that created modern America and altered the American personality forever A society that had valued faith self reliance self sacrifice and family loyalty evolved in little more than a decade into one characterized by superstition self interest narcissism and guilt Frum examines this metamorphosis through the rise to cultural dominance of faddish psychology astrology drugs religious cults and consumer debt and profiles such prominent players of the decade as Werner Erhard Alex Comfort and Jerry Brown How We Got Here is lively and provocative reading

Burning Dislike Martin Sanchez-Jankowski, 2016-05-17 Violence in schools has more potential to involve large numbers of students produce injuries disrupt instructional time and cause property damage than any other form of youth violence Burning Dislike is the first book to use direct observation of everyday violent interactions to explore ethnic conflict in high schools Why do young people engage in violence while in school What is it about ethnicity that leads to fights Through the use of two direct observational studies conducted twenty six years apart Martin Sanchez-Jankowski documents the process of ethnic school violence from start to finish In addition to shedding light on what causes this type of violence and how it progresses over time Burning Dislike provides strategic policy suggestions to address this troubling phenomenon

Mad as Hell Dominic Sandbrook, 2012-02-14 I'm mad as hell and I'm not going to take it anymore The words of Howard Beale the fictional anchorman in 1976's hit film Network struck a chord with a generation of Americans In this colourful new history Dominic Sandbrook ranges seamlessly over the political economic and cultural high and low points of American life in the 1970s exploring the roots of the fears resentments cravings and disappointments we know so well today From Richard Nixon and Ronald Reagan to Anita Bryant and Jerry Falwell he shows
