Sovereignty Of Taste:

The Sovereignty of Taste James S. Hans, 2002      The Sovereignty of Art Charles Sharp, 1888      The Architecture of Percier and Fontaine and the Struggle for Sovereignty in Revolutionary France Iris Moon, 2016-11-25 As the official architects of Napoleon Charles Percier 1764 1838 and Pierre Fran ois L onard Fontaine 1762 1853 designed interiors that responded to the radical ideologies and collective forms of destruction that took place during the French Revolution The architects visualized new forms of imperial sovereignty by inverting the symbols of monarchy and revolution constructing meeting rooms resembling military encampments and gilded thrones that replaced the Bourbon lily with Napoleonic bees Yet in the wake of political struggle each foundation stone that the architects laid for the new imperial regime was accompanied by an awareness of the contingent nature of sovereign power Contributing fresh perspectives on the architecture decorative arts and visual culture of revolutionary France this book explores how Percier and Fontaine s desire to build structures of permanence and their inadvertent reliance upon temporary architectural forms shaped a new awareness of time memory and modern political identity in France      Measuring the Global Burden of Disease Nir Eyal, Samia A. Hurst, Christopher J.L. Murray, S. Andrew Schroeder, Daniel Wikler, 2020-05-19 The Global Burden of Disease Study GBD is one of the largest scale research collaborations in global health producing critical data for researchers policy makers and health workers about more than 350 diseases injuries and risk factors Such an undertaking is of course extremely complex from an empirical perspective But it also raises complex ethical and philosophical questions In this volume a group of leading philosophers economists epidemiologists and policy scholars identify and discuss these philosophical questions Better appreciating the philosophical dimensions of a study like the GBD can make possible a more sophisticated interpretation of its results and it can improve epidemiological studies in the future so that they are better suited to produce results that help us to improve global health

Justice and food security in a changing climate Hanna Schübel, Ivo Wallimann-Helmer, 2023-08-14 The UN s Sustainable Development Goals saw the global community agree to end hunger and malnutrition in all its forms by 2030 However the number of chronically undernourished people is increasing continuously Ongoing climate change and the action needed to adapt to it are very likely to aggravate this situation by limiting agricultural land and water resources and changing environmental conditions for food production Climate change and the actions it requires raise questions of justice especially regarding food security These key concerns of ethics and justice for food security due to climate change challenges are the focus of this book which brings together work by scholars from a wide range of disciplines and a multitude of perspectives These experts discuss the challenges to food security posed by mitigation geoengineering and adaptation measures that tackle the impacts of climate change Others address the consequences of a changing climate for agriculture and food production and how the Covid 19 pandemic has affected food security and animal welfare      Brown Romantics Manu Samriti Chander, 2017-06-23 Brown Romantics Poetry and Nationalism in the Global Nineteenth Century proceeds from the conviction that it is high time for the academy in general and scholars of European Romanticism to acknowledge the extensive international impact of Romantic poetry Chander demonstrates the importance of Romantic notions of authorship to such poets as Henry Derozio India Egbert Martin Guyana and Henry Lawson Australia using the work of these poets each prominent in the national cultural of his own country to explain the crucial role that the Romantic myth of the poet qua legislator plays in the development of nationalist movements across the globe The first study of its kind Brown Romantics examines how each of these authors develop poetic means of negotiating such key issues as colonialism immigration race and ethnicity
