Swimming Lessons And Other Stories From Firozsha Baag King Penguin:

From Ink Lake, 1995 This highly acclaimed anthology is an unexpected and discerning mix of traditional short stories and untraditional tales as selected by one of Canada's most beloved writers Michael Ondaatje. He has chosen 49 stories by a wide array of writers including Alistair MacLeod, Margaret Laurence, Carol Shields, Dionne Brand, Mavis Gallant, Stephen Leacock, Glenn Gould, Alice Munro, Rohinton Mistry, David Adams Richards and many more. Full of diversity and surprise, these writings reveal the geographical, emotional, and literary range of the country. Above all, Michael Ondaatje's personal selection offers good reading and great entertainment.

An Interethnic Companion to Asian American Literature King-Kok Cheung, 1997 A survey of Asian American literature.

The Wascana Anthology of Short Fiction University of Regina, Canadian Plains Research Center, 1999 This anthology of short stories has been designed specifically as an instructional text for first-year university students. To explore the many dimensions of short narrative fiction, the collection includes traditional classics from European culture from Chaucer to Gogol and Chekhov and extends to popular and celebrated stories from contemporary writers. There is a decided emphasis on new stories from the Plains region of Canada and the United States. Guy Vanderhaeghe, Richard Ford, Margaret Laurence, Thomas King, Bonnie Burnard, Louise Erdrich, all of them present masterly tales with specific appeal to students at post-secondary institutions.

Shakespeare and Indian Cinemas Poonam Trivedi, Paromita Chakravarti, 2018-08-06 This book is the first to explore the rich archive of Shakespeare in Indian cinemas, including less familiar Indian language cinemas, to contribute to the assessment of the expanding repertoire of Shakespeare films worldwide. Essays cover mainstream and regional Indian cinemas such as the better-known Tamil and Kannada as well as the less familiar regions of the North Eastern states. The volume visits diverse filmic genres starting from the earliest silent cinema to diasporic films made for global audiences, television films, independent films, and documentaries, thus expanding the very notion of Indian cinema while also looking at the different modalities of deploying Shakespeare specific to these genres. Shakespeareans and film scholars provide an alternative history of the development of Indian cinemas through its negotiations with Shakespeare, focusing on the intertextualities between Shakespearean theatre, regional cinema, performative traditions, and literary histories in India. The purpose is not to catalog examples of Shakespearean influence but to analyze the interplay of the aesthetic, historical, socio-political, and theoretical contexts in which Indian language films have turned to Shakespeare and to what purpose. The discussion extends from the content of the plays to the modes of their cinematic and intermedial translations. It thus tracks the intra-Indian flows and cross-currents between the various film industries and intervenes in the politics of multiculturalism and inter-intraculturalism built up around Shakespearean appropriations. Contributing to current studies in global Shakespeare, this book marks a discursive shift in the way Shakespeare on screen is predominantly theorized, as well as how Indian cinema, particularly Shakespeare in Indian cinema, is understood.
