Sword And The Flame:

The Sword and the Flame Stephen R. Lawhead, 1996-12 Amidst ancient halls of stone an age old evil stirs With a cunning more potent than sorcery Nimrood the Necromancer has returned bent on a monstrous vendetta that would strip Quentin of everything he holds dear His loved ones his faith Zhaligkeer the sword of his kingship and ultimately the kingdom itself sway in the balance as Quentin unguarded and alone races toward a confrontation with his cruelest foe Sword and the Flame Steve Lawhead, 1995 The Sword and the Flame Stephen Lawhead, 1987 Yahweh among the Gods Michael Hundley, 2022-01-13 In this study Michael Hundley explores the diverse deities of ancient Near Eastern and biblical literature from deified doors and diseases to the masters of the universe Using data from Mesopotamia Hittite Anatolia Egypt the Levant and non priestly Genesis and Exodus Hundley explains their context specific approach to deity which produces complex and seemingly contradictory portraits He suggests that ancient deities gained prominence primarily by co opting the attributes of other deities rather than by denying their existence or inventing new powers He demonstrates that the primary difference between biblical and ancient Near Eastern presentations lies in their rhetorical goals not their conceptions of gods While others promote divine supremacy Genesis and Exodus promote exclusive worship Hundley argues that this monolatry redefined the biblical divine sphere and paved the way for the later development of monotheism and monotheistic explanations of evil Fox Elvensword and the Sword of Bhaal George Allen Butler II, 2014-08-18 Bhaal sat on his most prized possession a golden and ivory throne bought with the money he had earned during the adventures of his youth It rose up from the floor like the stump of a once magnificent tree Two huge armrests flanked each side of the seat fanning out at the top to end in a smooth flat surface Gold etched with runes spiraled and swirled through the structure everywhere The sides were as the bark of a tree rippled and pitted as if worn by time and water damage The back reached up high enough to support his slender shoulders and bent back into a curl like the edge of aged parchment Bhaal however was in stark contrast to the throne His once statuesque body had wasted away He was nothing more than skin and bones The stench of his breath was that of a carcass The dark black orbs that were his eyes stared straight ahead from his skull into the hallway before him He had the look of someone seeing into eternity A tarnished bronze crown sat on filthy dusty black hair His tunic had rotted away to nothing more than tatters A rusted shirt of chain mail rested upon it torn away at the waist His leather breeches had dry rotted away from the knees down A rusted chain skirt covered his thighs Its links were broken and jagged at the seams High top plate boots rusted from years of neglect covered his feet The heavy coating of dust upon him told those who looked at him that he had not moved in years It was hard to tell that Bhaal was still alive but alive he was He had somehow managed to live far beyond his own time existing without eating or moving The physicians had given up long ago on trying to figure out what it was that kept him so Theologians had inspected him Philosophers debated his refusal to die in his present state In truth he had not spoken in twenty years even though the wilderness and upstart usurpers carved away at his vast empire until all he still owned was the small town of Nineveh that rested at the base of his small keep And then there was the sword An elegant bronze and Damascus steel broadsword reaching up from the base of the throne to the palm of Bhaals hand Its point made a gouge in the floor Red rubies adorned the hilt and pommel and even through years of non use the whole sword was immaculately polished and clean It was the sword that had carved out Bhaals once mighty empire and thousands of legends were attributed to the revered artifact Forged from pure dark iron found only on the plains of the Abyss it was rumored to have dispatched more than one daemon from existence     The Chautauquan ,1901     Vandermine: the Sword's Errand Murray R. follows her And as she and her beloved soulmate Anvar quest northward toward the ravaged city of Nexis they are pursued to the very gates of death by betrayal madness and forbidden spellcraft Only by invoking the highest magic can they hope to find the Sword of Flame last of the four great weapons fashioned eons ago Only by awakening its might can they save a world newly threatened by a dark Mage as powerful as Miathan and even more vicious     The Englishman's Hebrew and Chaldee Concordance of the Old Testament George V.
