Gammack,2016-02-24 Comparing the major Pacific Rim cities of Sydney Hong Kong and Shanghai this book examines world city branding Whilst all three cities compete on the world's stage for events tourists and investment they are also at the centre of distinct film traditions and their identities are thus strongly connected with a cinematic impression Using an interdisciplinary approach this book not only analyses the city branding of these cities from the more widely researched perspectives of tourism marketing and regional development but also draws in cultural studies and psychology approaches which offer fresh and useful insights to place branding and marketing in general The authors compare and contrast qualitative and quantitative original data as well as critically analyzing current texts and debates on city branding In conclusion they argue that city branding should contribute not only to regional development and identity but also to sustainable economic well being and public happiness Ken Woolley Ken Woolley, The Architectural Review ,2001 Australian Architecture Now Davina Jackson,Chris Johnson,2000 Having just completed the most significant five year construction phase in the nation's history Australian architecture has moved into the world spotlight During the 1994-99 boom creative vigor was palpable confidence surged and the entire continent became endowed with a new sense of architectural independence Because it scans a diverse and momentary scene instead of recording a longer continuum of major achievements Australian Architecture Now is an unusual history book It presents two essays 21 case studies of outstanding public and domestic projects and in several brief chapters compares selected buildings according to similarities of either genre or style Close examination reveals surprising evidence that Australian architecture more often reflects the personal styles and attitudes of its creators than the poetic ideal of a unique sense of place Architects featured include Denton Corker Marshall Harry Seidler Gabriel Poole Rex Addison Peter Stutchbury Cox Sanderson Ness Nonda Katsalidis Sean Godsell Alexander Tzannes and more
