The Family Album Histories Subjectivities And Immigration In Contemporary Spanish Culture:

The Family Album Yeon-Soo Kim, 2005 This book is an examination of the use of the family album in contemporary Spanish culture Through the analysis of films narratives painting and a photographic exhibition produced from the end of Franco's dictatorship to the present Kim interrogates how the family album serves as a critical instrument to reflect on the treatment of the past in contemporary Spain the recuperation of repressed identities nostalgia for collective memory symptomatic of the cultural discontent with the erosion of a national boundary due to globalization and the increasing claim of diversity and ethical concerns for immigration This study explores a broad range of works by canonical as well as less studied writers and artists including Juan Goytisolo Carlos Saura and Marta Balletbo Coll Yeon Soo Kim is Assistant Professor of Spanish at Rutgers University

The Routledge Companion to Photography and Visual Culture Moritz Neumüller, 2018-09-21 The Routledge Companion to Photography and Visual Culture is a seminal reference source for the ever changing field of photography Comprising an impressive range of essays and interviews by experts and scholars from across the globe this book examines the medium's history its central issues and emerging trends and its much discussed future The collected essays and interviews explore the current debates surrounding the photograph as object art document propaganda truth selling tool and universal language the perception of photography archives as burdens rather than treasures the continual technological development reshaping the field photography as a tool of representation and control and more One of the most comprehensive volumes of its kind this companion is essential reading for photographers and historians alike

African Immigrants in Contemporary Spanish Texts Debra Faszter-McMahon, Victoria L. Ketz, 2016-03-09 Around the turn of 21st Century Spain welcomed more than six million foreigners many of them from various parts of the African continent How African immigrants represent themselves and are represented in contemporary Spanish texts is the subject of this interdisciplinary collection Analyzing blogs films translations and literary works by contemporary authors including Donato Ndongo Equatorial Guinea Abderrahman El Fathi Morocco Chus Gutiérrez Spain Juan Bonilla Spain and Bahia Mahmud Awah Western Sahara the contributors interrogate how Spanish cultural texts represent idealize or sympathize with the plight of immigrants as well as the ways in which immigrants themselves represent Spain and Spanish culture At the same time these works shed light on issues related to Spain's racial ethnic and sexual boundaries the appeal of images of Africa in the contemporary marketplace and the role of Spain's economic crisis in shaping attitudes towards immigration Taken together the essays are a convincing reminder that cultural texts provide a mirror into the perceptions of a society during times of change

Performing Parenthood Heather Jerónimo, 2024-07-05 Performing Parenthood reveals different enactments of motherhood and fatherhood in twentieth and twenty first century Spain showing how the family has adapted or at times failed to do so within the context of Spain's changing socioeconomic reality Through an examination of examples of non normative parenthood in contemporary Spanish literature and film including gay literary father figures subversive physical touch between mother and child fathers who cross dress lesbian maternal community building non biological parenting and disabled bodies the book argues that current conceptualizations of parenthood should be amplified to reflect the various existing identities and performances of motherhoods and fatherhoods Connecting canonical works to recent works the book establishes a unique dialogue that will expand the conversation about the Spanish family beyond the traditional view bringing visibility to alternative family models It argues that parental identities exist on a spectrum enabling many parental figures to disregard heteronormative standards imposed upon the role and allowing them to experience parenthood in meaningful ways Bringing visibility to literary and cinematic examples of alternative Spanish families

Performing Parenthood provides a glimpse into an evolving society influenced by national and global changes Emigrant Dreams, Immigrant Borders Raquel Vega-Durán, 2016-09-30 Emigrant Dreams Immigrant Borders Migrants Transnational Encounters and Identity in Spain offers a new approach to the cultural history of contemporary Spain examining the ways in which Spain's own self conceptions are changing and multiplying in response to migrants from Latin America and Africa In the last twenty five years Spain has gone from being a country of net emigration to one in which immigrants make up nearly 12 percent of the population This rapid growth has made migrants increasingly visible in both mass media and in Spanish visual and literary culture This book examines the origins of media discourses on immigration and takes the analysis of contemporary Spanish culture as its primary framework while also drawing insights from sociology and history Emigrant Dreams Immigrant Borders introduces readers to a wide range of recent films journals novels photography paintings and music to reconsider contemporary Spain through its varied encounters with migrants It follows the stages of the migrant's own journey beginning outside Spanish territory continuing across the border either at the barbed wire fences of Ceuta and Melilla or the waters of the Atlantic or the Strait of Gibraltar and then considers what happens to migrants after they arrive and settle in Spain Each chapter analyzes one of these stages in order to illustrate the complexity of contemporary Spanish identity This examination of Spanish culture shows how Spain is evolving into a new space of imagination one that can no longer be defined without the migrant a space in which there is no unified identity but rather a new self understanding is being born Vega Durán both places Spain in a larger European context and draws attention to some of the features that from a comparative perspective make the Spanish case interesting and often unique She argues that Spain cannot be understood today outside the Transatlantic and Mediterranean spaces both real and imaginary where Spaniards and migrants meet Emigrant Dreams Immigrant Borders offers a timely study of present day Spain and makes an original contribution to the vibrant debates about multiculturalism and nation formation that are taking Argentine Intimacies Joseph M. Pierce, 2019-11-01 Revisits a foundational moment in Argentine history to demonstrate how the crisis of modernity opened up new possibilities for imagining kinship otherwise As Argentina rose to political and economic prominence at the turn of the twentieth century debates about the family as an ideological structure and set of lived relationships took center stage in efforts to shape the modern nation In Argentine Intimacies Joseph M Pierce draws on queer studies Latin American studies and literary and cultural studies to consider the significance of one family in particular during this period of intense social change Carlos Julia Delfina and Alejandro Bunge One of Argentina's foremost intellectual and elite families the Bunges have had a profound impact on Argentina's national culture and on Latin American understandings of education race gender and sexual norms They also left behind a vast archive of fiction essays scientific treatises economic programs and pedagogical texts as well as diaries memoirs and photography Argentine Intimacies explores the breadth of their writing to reflect on the intersections of intimacy desire and nationalism and to expand our conception of queer kinship Approaching kinship as an interface of relational dispositions Pierce reveals the queerness at the heart of the modern family Queerness emerges not as an alternative to traditional values so much as a defining feature of the state project of modernization Argentine Intimacies provides a valuable intervention in the fields of cultural studies Latin American studies LGBT queer studies literary studies and photography studies Pierce conducted extensive archival research on the historically significant Bunge family in Argentina and offers lucid theoretically informed and original readings of their lives and cultural productions Lawrence La Fountain Stokes University of Michigan Indiscreet Fantasies Andrés Lema-Hincapié, Conxita Domènech, 2020-11-13

Indiscreet Fantasies Iberian Queer Cinema is a collection of fifteen essays each focusing on a queer film by a prominent Iberian filmmaker The films studied here span nearly five decades beginning with Narciso Ibáñez Serrador's La residencia The House That Screamed 1970 and ending with João Pedro Rodrigues' Ornithology 2016 The first of its kind for English speaking readers this book examines the work of filmmakers Ventura Pons Cesc Gay Marta Balleb Coll Paulo Rocha Roberto Castán Ignacio Vilar and Pedro Almodóvar among others from various Iberian cultural and linguistic cultures including that of Portugal Catalonia Galicia and the Basque Country Rather than presenting a historical survey of Iberian queer films Indiscreet Fantasies encourages a deep reading of each film sends readers to other related films writings and fosters meditation on the ways these films cast light on particular moments and aspects of contemporary Iberian queer issues in history and society Spanish Erotic Cinema Santiago Fouz-Hernandez, 2017-04-13

The first comprehensive scholarly study of Spanish erotic cinema from the 1920s until the present day This book covers a significant part of the history of Spanish film from the 1920s until the present day Starting with a study of the kiss in silent films the volume explores homoerotic narratives in the crusade films of the 1940s the commodification of bodies in the late Franco period and the so called destape literally aundressing period that followed the abolition of censorship during the democratic transition Reclaiming the importance of Spanish erotic cinema as a genre in itself a range of international scholars demonstrate how the explicit depiction of sex can be a useful tool to illuminate current and historic social issues including ageism colonialism domestic violence immigration nationalisms or women and LGBT rights Covering a wide range of cinematic genres including comedy horror and melodrama this book provides an innovative and provocative overview of Spanish cinema history and society in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Contributors Brad Epps Cambridge University Sally Faulkner University of Exeter Santiago Fouz Hernández Durham University Antonio LA zaro Reboll University of Kent Annabel MartA n Dartmouth College Alejandro Melero Salvador Universidad Carlos III in Madrid Jorge PA c rez University of Texas Austin Carolina Sanabria University of Costa Rica Rob Stone University of Birmingham Tom Whittaker University of Liverpool Eva Woods PeirA Vassar College Sarah Wright Royal Holloway University of London Barbara Zecchi University of Massachusetts Amherst

Fashioning Spanish Cinema Jorge Pérez, 2021-07-30 Costume design is a crucial but frequently overlooked aspect of film that fosters an appreciation of the diverse ways in which film and fashion enrich each other These influential industries offer representations of ideas values and beliefs that shape and construct cultural identities In Fashioning Spanish Cinema Jorge P rez analyses the use of clothing and fashion as costumes within Spanish cinema paying particular attention to the significance of those costumes in relation to the visual styles and the narratives of the films The author examines the links between costume analysis and other fields and theoretical frameworks such as fashion studies the history of dress celebrity studies and gender and feminist studies Fashioning Spanish Cinema looks at instances in which costumes are essential to shaping the public image of stars such as Conchita Montenegro Sara Montiel Victoria Abril and Pen lope Cruz Focusing on examples in which costumes have discursive autonomy it explores how costumes engage with broader issues of identity and relatedly how costumes impact everyday practices and fashion trends beyond cinema Drawing on case studies from multiple periods films by contemporary directors and genres and red carpet events such as the Oscars and Goya Awards Fashioning Spanish Cinema contributes a pivotal Spanish perspective to expanding interdisciplinary work on the intersections between film and fashion

Featuring Post-national Spain Andrés Zamora, 2016 In the last quarter of the twentieth century a considerable number of Spanish films were involved in the task of essaying the nation that is of attempting to make it or make it over of trying to reshape a national identity inexorably dictated by General Francisco Franco up to his death The book explores four major issues in this regard 1 the filmic negotiations of the borders of the nation focusing particularly on the debated and controversial development of Basque cinema vis vis the films produced in the rest of Spain 2 the persistence of the old obsession with violence thought of as an inescapable native trait in a large amount of post dictatorial films 3 the newfound insatiable appetite for cinematic travelling for going out and coming in through all possible variations of the road and travel movie genres 4 and the vindication of the mother qua a benign emblem of the land and its people of the nation There is a narrative in Spanish cinema taken as a collective discourse which ties together these four cinematic topoi and proposes a nation whose specificity must be precisely its impurity difference within as essence a hybrid nation located in temporal and spatial rendezvous of past and present tradition and novelty centre and margin inside and outside on and beyond
