The Minor Arts Of Islam:

The Minor Arts of Islam Ernst Kühnel, 1971 Studies in the Islamic Decorative Arts Robert

Hillenbrand, 2019-12-31 Islamic artists channelled their energies not into easel painting and large scale sculpture but rather into what Western scholars obeying a very different hierarchy of art forms rather disparagingly term the decorative arts or even the minor arts In point of fact some of the greatest masterpieces of Islamic art are in the media of ceramics metalwork textiles ivory and glass Often the images they bear express a complex set of meanings for Islam inherited much material from the iconographic systems of earlier civilizations notably those of the ancient Near East and of the classical world Islam also developed its own distinctive vocabulary of signs and symbols Accordingly questions of iconography and meaning bulk large among the studies gathered together in the present volume These studies written over a period of almost thirty years and taken from a wide variety of published sources deal with aspects of the decorative arts from Spain to India and from the 7th to the 17th century They focus in turn upon ceramics and metalwork on coins carpets and calligraphy and on carving in wood and ivory They are arranged under three headings The first comprises general surveys of the field covering the content of these arts and confronting the challenges they present such as the Islamic approach to three dimensional sculpture The second deals with questions of iconography and meaning while the third comprises a series of studies devoted to specific media such as ivory woodwork and numismatics This volume therefore offers not only a general introduction to some of the problems posed by Islamic art but also readings of key objects in an attempt to explore their meaning and finally an in depth focus on individual objects representing specific genres and media The Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 2B, Islamic Society and Civilisation P. M. Holt, Ann K. S. Lambton, Bernard Lewis, 1977-04-21 This is a most comprehensive and ambitious collaborative survey of Islamic history and civilization Art of Islam, Language and Meaning Titus

Burckhardt, 2009-03-31 Known as an expert on Islam Sufism and Islamic arts crafts Burckhardt presents in depth analyses of seminal examples of Islamic architecture from Spain and Morocco to Persia and India He examines Koranic calligraphy and illumination arabesque carpets and rugs Persian miniatures and much more while making illuminating comparisons with Christian Hindu and Buddhist art Beautifully illustrated in color this masterpiece is presented in a revised commemorative edition containing 285 new illustrations and a new Introduction The Arts of Islamic Civilization Ismail Raji al-Faruqi, 2013-01-01 In dealing with any aspect of Islamic civilization its final raison d'être and creative base must be seen as resting on the Qur'an Islamic culture is in fact a Qur'anic culture for its definitions its structures its goals and its methods for execution of those goals are all derived from that series of revelations from God to the Prophet Muhammad Without that revelation the culture could not have been generated without that revelation there could have been neither an Islamic religion an Islamic state an Islamic philosophy an Islamic law an Islamic society nor an Islamic political or economic organization Just as surely as these aspects of Islamic culture may be rightly seen as Qur'anic in basis and motivation in implementation and goal the arts of Islamic civilization should also be viewed as aesthetic expressions of similar derivation and realization Yes the Islamic arts are indeed Qur'anic arts How then are the Islamic arts to be seen as Qur'anic expressions in color in line in movement in shape and in sound This is the subject of this work
