The Modernization Of Iran 1921 1941:

The Modernization of Iran Amin Banani, 1969 A Social History of Modern Tehran Ashkan Rezvani Naraghi, 2023-01-05 Tehran the capital of Iran since the late eighteenth century is now one of the largest cities in the Middle East Exploring Tehran's development from the nineteenth to the mid twentieth century Ashkan Rezvani Naraghi paints a vibrant picture of a city undergoing rapid and dynamic social transformation Rezvani Naraghi demonstrates that this shift was the product of a developing discourse around spatial knowledge in which the West became the model for the social practices of the state and sections of Iranian society As traditional social spaces such as coffee houses bathhouses and mosques were replaced by European style cafes theatres and sports clubs Tehran and its people were irreversibly altered Using an array of archival sources Rezvani Naraghi stresses the agency of everyday inhabitants in shaping urban change This enlightening history not only allows us to better understand the contours of contemporary Tehran but to develop a new way of imagining talking about and building the city

Impact of the West on Iran Amin Banani, 1977 US Foreign Policy and the Modernization of Iran Ben Offiler, 2015-07-19 US Foreign Policy and the Modernization of Iran examines the evolution of US Iranian relations during the presidencies of John F Kennedy Lyndon B Johnson and Richard M Nixon It demonstrates how successive administrations struggled to exert influence over the Shah of Iran's regime domestic and foreign policy

Iranian Intellectuals in the Twentieth Century Ali Gheissari, 2010-01-01 Since the middle of the nineteenth century Iranian intellectuals have been preoccupied by issues of political and social reform Iran's relation with the modern West and autocracy or arbitrary rule Drawing from a close reading of a broad array of primary sources this book offers a thematic account of the Iranian intelligentsia from the Constitutional movement of 1905 to the post 1979 revolution Ali Gheissari shows how in Iran as in many other countries intellectuals have been the prime mediators between the forces of tradition and modernity and have contributed significantly to the formation of the modern Iranian self image His analysis of intellectuals response to a number of fundamental questions such as nationalism identity and the relation between Islam and modern politics sheds new light on the factors that led to the Iranian Revolution the twentieth century's first major departure from Western political ideals and helps explain the complexities surrounding the reception of Western ideologies in the Middle East

Imagining Iran Majid Sharifi, 2013-08-22 Thematically this book problematizes Iranian official nationalism It reviews how every modern Iranian regime since the constitutional revolution of the 1905-06 has failed to legitimize its official identity resulting in the fall of five different regimes The book details how the collapse of each regime resulted in the interruption of the official meaning of being Iranian as well as the meanings of its enemies What remained the same was how every Iranian regime represented itself as the agent of a particular national desire defined in terms of making Iran to become sovereign developed democratic and constitutional Nonetheless no regime was able to convince a great majority of the people that it achieved what it represented This book makes three specific contributions The first contribution is pedagogical

By focusing on the dynamics of regime changes it provides a heuristic model for identifying challenges that all Iranian regimes have faced Moreover the book is a comprehensive review of the disruptive oppressive and bloody nature of the rise and fall of different regimes The second contribution is theoretical Rather than examining the behavior of various Iranian regimes in isolation from their international context the book examines how each regime got to understand itself in relations to its imperial others By examining the governmental rationality of each regime the book offers a better theoretical framework for understanding political development not only in Iran but also in all other Middle Eastern and South Asian states Finally the third contribution of this book is its critical approach to the main body of the literature on Iran modernity development democracy and constitutionalism

The Globalization of Energy Mehdi Parvizi Amineh, Yang Guang, 2010-01-01 Energy security challenges are topping the policy agenda of the European Union and China Consequently policy makers of both energy import dependent polities continue to look for new responses But will these new policies put EU China relations in a cooperative or competitive setting

Revolution and Reform in Russia and Iran Ghoncheh Tazmini, 2012-03-30 The Russian Revolutions of 1917 and the Iranian Revolution of 1979 are two examples of dramatic sudden and extraordinary political upheaval that significantly altered the nature of the state and society in the modern age Here Ghoncheh Tazmini provides an unprecedented comparative study of these two major revolutions of the twentieth century which although removed from each other both spatially and temporally have striking similarities Examining the roots events and impact of these two defining upheavals Tazmini analyses how they resemble each other stressing the continuity of the dilemma of modernisation for the Romanov Pahlavi Communist and Islamist rulers alike This book is a significant contribution to both historical and contemporary debates concerning Russian and Iranian politics and to the discourse on the origins and consequences of modernisation and revolution themselves
