The Motherinlaw Daughterinlaw Conflict The Exploration And Improvement Of The Motherinlaw Daughterinlaw Relationship:

The Mother-in-law Daughter-in-law Conflict Joseph Morris, 2003-12 The book is called an intellectual diary It represents a partly lyrical and mostly philosophical rendition of the author's unorthodox thinking as it developed since his adolescence gradually maturing over a number of decades Already at an early age he evolved his own philosophical opinions working them into a system of looking at the Universe He wrote poetry during that same period and combined those lyrical efforts with other areas of his activities His thoughts are derived in part from a pantheistic and buddhistic view of the world of reality He combines the perception of his Human nature with the conviction that he also reflects the Fallen God Creator of this world banned from the primordial essence He awakens to the realization that along with all other images he has of his World he carries in his Being the proscribed soul that errs eternally from entity to entity in analogy to Ahasver and the Flying Dutchman to Faust and other legendary destinies

Conjugal Relationships in Chinese Culture Chi Sum Garfield Lau, Kelly Kar Yue Chan, 2023-04-16 This book reviews the presentation of conjugal relationships in Chinese culture and their perception in the West It explores the ways in which the act of marriage is represented misrepresented in different literary genres as well as in cultural adaptations It looks at the gendered characteristics at play that affect conjugal relationships in Chinese societal practices more widely It also distinguishes between the essential features that give rise to nuptial arrangements from the Chinese perspective looking at what in which Sino and or Western mentalities differ in terms of notions of autonomy in marriage It excavates the extent to which marriage is constituted in forms of transaction between female and male bodies and asks under what circumstances wedding ceremonies constitute archetypal or counter archetypal notions in pre modern and modern society Authors cover a range of fascinating cultural topics such as posthumous marriage necrogamy as an ancient and popular folk culture from the perspective of Confucian ideology as well as looking at marriage from ancient to present times duty and rights in conjugal relations inter racial and inter cultural marriage widowhood in Confucian ideology issues of legitimacy in marriage and concubinage the taboos surrounding divorce and re marriage and conjugal violence The book serves to revisit the cultural connections between marriage and various art forms including literature film theatre and other adaptations It is a rich intellectual resource for scholars and students researching the historical roots cultural interpretations and evolving aspects of marriage as shown in literature art and culture

Mothers-in-Law and Daughters-in-Law Deborah M. Merrill,2007-09-30 We all know have perhaps told a few stories about mothers in law and daughters in law It seems the stories are nearly always about relationships filled with conflict and abrasive words or actions But why is this relationship so difficult And is it always as bad as popular belief would have us think Deborah Merrill a woman s advocate and Sociology professor at one of our nation s top universities has been studying the relationship for nearly a decade and in this book explains where the difficulty is rooted how friendly pairs have made it past problems that surface between a man s mother and his wife and how they became friends Dozens of interviews with pairs of women made in laws by marriage illustrate Merrill s points from harmful ideas and actions to helpful approaches At its core this book holds that marriage requires the creation of a new and separate family which requires changes in roles as well as a redefinition of relationships Hence family boundaries need to be made permeable to allow for integration of the daughter in law and to allow the son to create his own separate and autonomous family Family members need to be aware of and prepare for this says Merrill That of course may be easier said than done But dozens of women who have become friends with their in laws some so much so that they drop the in law and just call each other mother and daughter explain how they got past the old popular notions and social structure to create goodwill and grow stronger families
