TO THE MOUNTAIN TOPS Harold Mason Young,2013-08-26 This is a report about the Lahu people more precisely the Lahu Na divisions of the several ethnic Lahuspeaking tribal groups During the period of this report written by Harold Mason Young most of the Lahu Na lived in northeastern Burma in the Kengtung Shan State of Burma and the bordering province of Yunnan China Harold s focus on the Lahu Na arose from the unusual experience of having been born of missionary parents 1901 Kengtung Burma and not only growing up among the Lahu but working with them as a missionary during his young adult years in Banna China Naturally Harold would learn to speak Shan and Lahu and more important to become united with this unique culture Harold accumulated knowledge and appreciation for their ways as few other foreigners from the outside world would accomplish during this time of history Harold considered the Lahu Na as unique and while similar to other Lahu hill people they were distinct in their own ways In this book he carefully details the people their history as passed down from generation to generation their customs beliefs and rituals and most notable their wonderful knowledge of nature Harold s report of the Lahu Na during this period of history is extraordinary as the Lahu people did not write or document any of these cultural points of interest and the fact that he made the effort to write this book makes available to all a piece of history that is almost now lost to the modern world This book is not intended to be a formal work on the cultural anthropology of the Lahu people yet considerable information has been offered here to students of disappearing cultures It is intended that this collection will expand information that students of social sciences might seek and if that is realized then the efforts of publishing Harold s writing with its detailed and sincere reporting will have been sufficiently rewarded The Gordon Young Family

The Mountain Chant, A

Navajo Ceremony Washington Matthews, The ceremony of dsily dje qa l or mountain chant literally chant towards a place within the mountains is one of a large number practiced by the shamans or medicine men of the Navajo tribe I have selected it as the first of those to be described because I have witnessed it the most frequently because it is the most interesting to the Caucasian spectator and because it is the best known to the whites who visit and reside in and around the Navajo country Its chief interest to the stranger lies in the various public performances of the last night Like other great rites of the shamans it has its secret ceremonies of many days duration in the medicine lodge but unlike the others it ends with a varied show in the open air which all are invited to witness Another ceremony which I have attended and which the whites usually call the Ya bichy Dance Y bitcai has a final public exhibition which occupies the whole night but it is unvaried Few Europeans can be found who have remained awake later than midnight to watch it Such is not the case with the rite now to be described Here the white man is rarely the first to leave at dawn
