The Multinational Enterprise In Transition Strategies For Global Competitiveness:

The Multinational Enterprise in Transition Phillip Donald Grub, Dara Khambata, 1993 New edition of a text reference containing both original and reprint essays on the whole range of issues confronting international business executives globalization balance of trade protectionism regional trade grouping and strategic alliances as well as the challenges of effective management Particularly useful in upper level undergraduate or graduate level international business courses and executive programs although practitioners will also benefit from the collection Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Comparative Capitalism and the Transitional Periphery Mehmet Demirbag, Geoffrey Wood, 2018-10-26 An original and insightful book this work focuses on domestic and overseas firms operating in those Central Asian and Eastern European countries considered to be the transitional economic periphery Chapters shed light on their distinct forms of capitalism and how it influences and adapts the firms located there The eminent authors show how in a post state socialist world there are several implications for both domestic and overseas firms functioning successfully in the transitional periphery With the complex mix of political and market mediation and informal personal ties chapters explore the delicate balance of liberalisation in transitional economies Detailed examples from specific countries in Eurasia and Central Asia such as Belarus Turkey Azerbaijan Mongolia Uzbekistan Armenia and Georgia are discussed alongside broader thematic issues of economic and social change labour relations and human resource management Most importantly it is shown that liberalisation has little connection to short term business growth To succeed in such contexts international firms need to be both pragmatic and creative in coping with malleable yet durable forms of institutional mediation Providing a unique perspective on the transitional economic periphery and much needed insights from international business this book is essential reading for researchers and graduate students studying transitional economies non traditional business models institutional persistence and change political and economic development and management in economically transitioning countries

Internationalization of Firms from Economies in Transition Mai Thi Thanh Thai, Ekaterina Turkina, 2014-05-30 This book is an essential resource for academics and students of strategic management international business and business studies It also has significant value for practitioners and policy makers in that it will highlight important factors in a firm

Global Competitive Strategies in the New World Economy Hafiz Mirza, 1998 This important book provides an exhaustive analysis of the strategic responses of transnational firms to current trends in the world economy specifically the trends towards globalization and regionalization The primary focus of this book is on the strategy of transnational firms particularly those from East Asia in the geographical regions of Europe North America and Asia including the European Union the North American Free Trade Agreement and the ASEAN Free Trade Area The contributors discuss protectionism and trade agreements strategic alliances competitiveness and investment strategy towards Eastern European states and compare business strategies in the triad region The distinguished contributors are from industry academia and international organizations and have first rate detailed knowledge of the issues raised Their approach is policy oriented and they use case studies of Toshiba Toyota Samsung and the Notebook PC Consortium to illustrate the investment strategies of East Asian firms This book will offer insights to scholars and students seeking to understand East Asian and European firms the topics of globalisation and regionalisation It will also appeal to policymakers wishing to influence and understand the strategies of transnational firms Competitive Global Management - Principles and Strategies Abbass Alkhafaji,1994-11-01 Each chapter in Competitive Global Management Principles and Strategies lists important objectives to be learned The latest management research explains strategies of multinational corporations A real life case study helps the reader comprehend the importance of the issues discussed The book features a current literature review drawn from recent studies and research in the major international publications further exemplifying major points

Multinational Enterprises and Emerging Economies Klaus E.Meyer,2020-03-28 Guided by the overarching question how and why does the emerging economy context matter for business this collection brings together key contributions of Klaus Meyer on multinational enterprises MNEs competing in and originating from emerging economies The book also explores how outward investment strategies contribute to building internationally competitive MNEs Multinationals, Local Capacity Building and Development Xiaolan Fu,George Owusu Essegbey,Godfred Kwasi Frempong,2019 Drawing on original research Multinationals Local Capacity Building and Development presents an extensive analysis of MNEs in Africa taking Ghana as a case study and broaching subject matter previously unaddressed in the field Looking at MNEs impacts both positive and negative this book examines skill transfer from foreign management to local workers the impact of MNEs on the improvement of local production capabilities as well as their contributions to sustainable development goals

An Economic History of the United States Ronald Seavoy,2013-10-18 An Economic History of the United States is an accessible and informative survey designed for undergraduate courses on American economic history The book spans from 1607 to the modern age and presents a documented history of how the American economy has propelled the nation into a position of world leadership Noted economic historian Ronald E Seavoy covers nearly 400 years of economic history beginning with the commercialization of agriculture in the pre colonial era through the development of banks and industrialization in the nineteenth century up to the globalization of the business economy in the present day The Multinational Enterprise, EU Enlargement and Central Europe Y. Akbar,2003-02-04 As the role of the multinational enterprise MNE in the economic development of countries grows a focus on how MNEs influence the process of regulatory and legislative structures has developed among scholars of international political economy Yusaf H Akbar draws a conceptual link between the market strategies of MNEs and the convergence of regulatory systems internationally Focusing on empirical evidence from Central Europe and industry specific case studies Akbar uses the example of the successful implementation of EU laws in Hungary as it bids to join the European Union to demonstrate the profound impact of MNE strategies The
