The Murchison Murders:

The Murchison Murders Arthur W. Upfield, 2018-09-01 Somewhere within Arthur Upfield's travelling dray were the clues to uncovering three acts of murder involving the grifter Snowy Rowles. Once Upfield had published his crime thriller The Sands of Windee, West Australian police gave chase starting with the esteemed author of Bony. Upfield, 2018-10-01 Arthur William Upfield is well known as the creator of Detective Inspector Napoleon Bonaparte Bony who features in 29 crime detection novels most set in the Australian outback. It is not well known that he also wrote about 250 short stories and articles drawing on his experiences in the bush between 1911 and 1931. Up and Down the Real Australia is the second published collection of Upfield's short works. Kees de Hoog has selected 45 autobiographical articles ranging from humorous outback anecdotes to personal experiences at Gallipoli and the Somme during the First World War. Kees has added The Murchison Murders, Upfield's account of how the perfect murder was developed for his second Bony novel The Sands of Windee, how Snowy Rowles used it to commit at least one probably three murders in 1929, how the crime was solved and what happened at Rowles' trial in 1932.

Murder Down Under Anthony Ferguson, 2021-02-17 Notorious, numerous and varied serial murderers from Australia have an eclectic record of crimes, methods and trademarks. Scrutinizing these murderers at length, this book aims to identify characteristics exclusive to Australian serial killers, connecting the crimes with the continent's geography, culture and social structure. Featured are murderers like the Granny Killer John Wayne Glover, William The Sydney Mutilator McDonald and Backpacker Killer Ivan Milat. Also covered are well-known events like the Snowtown Murders and killer couples like David and Catherine Birnie. Unique in the true crime genre, this book studies fictional Australian murderer Mick Taylor to examine how pop culture portrayals develop the distinct psychology of killers from down under. Clues: A Journal of Detection, Vol. 39, No. 2 (Fall 2021) Elizabeth Foxwell, 2021-11-05

For over two decades Clues has included the best scholarship on mystery and detective fiction. With a combination of academic essays and nonfiction book reviews, it covers all aspects of mystery and detective fiction material in print, television and movies. As the only American scholarly journal on mystery fiction, Clues is essential reading for literature and film students and researchers, popular culture aficionados, librarians and mystery authors, fans and critics around the globe.

The Fierce Country Stephen Orr, 2018-06-28 The Fierce Country holds no malice but neither pity It just sits and bakes and waits We do the rest We provoke it when we mine above its aquifers Weaken it and ourselves when we leave mountains of asbestos to blow away in the wind Misunderstand it when we see it as nothing more than a resource Resent it when it takes our children The open spaces and isolated places outside Australia's cities have unsettled us from first European settlement to today often with very good reason In this nail biting book combining the notorious and little known acclaimed author Stephen Orr has collected true stories that have shaped and continue to haunt the Australian psyche mysteries disappearances mistreatment and murder Fatal conflicts between an Aboriginal tracker and the police employers hunting his community An itinerant conman picking up tips for the perfect murder from a famous novelist around a campfire on the Rabbit Proof Fence And that fateful day when Peter Falconio pulled over beside a desert highway Together these tales chart an undercurrent of shifting cultural tensions as Australians find lose and question who we are

Bony and the Black Virgin Arthur W. Upfield, 2020-06-01 When Inspector Bonaparte is called to the drought stricken outback sheep station he finds that two men have been savagely beaten to death Clues are scarce in this sun baked sand blown country but Bony's understanding of the bush and the people who live there both black and white leads him inexorably towards the killer When Upfield gets down to the point of interracial sexual relations he in effect is writing on one of the topics closest to his heart Here his picture is unusually poignant Caught in the iron grip of separation from his kind of loneliness of sexual attraction Eric Downer is a victim of life from The Spirit of Australia by Ray Browne Gripped By Drought Arthur W. Upfield, 2018-09-01 A powerful story of Australia's great sheep farms Gripped By Drought is a powerful story of a man's battle not only with the elements of nature which threatened the ruin of his huge Australian sheep farm but also with a loveless and unhappy marriage For Frank Mayne master of well nigh a million acre sheep station life assumed its most dreary aspect No rain for his farm a wife who involved him in an orgy of spending and entertainment and with disaster just round the corner there seemed little prospect of happiness Yet in the darkest hour of all after the many unexpected and sometimes thrilling situations the darkest hour of the drought gave way to rain and Mayne's tribulations became of the past
