Themes and Conclusions Igor Stravinsky, 1982 This is the final volume in the legendary series of Stravinsky s conversations with Robert Craft In his foreword dated March 1971 shortly before his death Stravinsky wrote of his final work of words They are hardly the last words about myself or my music that I would like to have written and in fact they say almost nothing about the latter except tangentially in comments on Beethoven It is almost five years now since I have completed an original composition a time during which I have had to transform myself from a composer to a listener The vacuum which this left has not been filled but I have been able to live with it thanks in the largest measure to the music of Beethoven It is certain now that I will not be granted powers such as have recently enable Casals to publish a book at an age six years greater than mine But I am thankful that I can listen to and love the music of other men in a way I could not do when I was composing my own Although Stravinsky may have written nothing new about his music in his last years this book collects together a number of his programme notes about his own works among them the Symphonies of Wind Instruments and Jeu de Carte and there are waspish letters to the press wide ranging interviews prefaces and reviews and a whole section entitled Squibs Readers who enjoyed the earlier volumes of recollections will find this final volume equally enlightening diverting and enriching This unique series of memories is essential reading for all students and lovers of Stravinsky
