The Mirror Dance Identity In A Womens Community:

The Mirror Dance Susan Krieger, 1983 The Mirror Dance Susan Krieger, 1983 A day draws to a close Helen worries about when her children will get home Gloria considers her day at work and again thoughts cross her mind about telling them at church that she is a lesbian Gayle prepares for a meeting at the Women s Shelter Ellen gets ready for a class Chip and Jessica plan another party at their house Diana paces her kitchen troubled that Meg still intends to see Bronwyn These are some of the people who come to life in this unique book about a lesbian community It is an experiment both in women s language and in social science method and is composed of an interplay of voices that echo again and again themes of self and community sameness and difference merger and separation loss and change Although the method of presentation is unusual the book is based on solid research The author lived for a year with the community and then spent two intensive months interviewing 78 women who were either members of the community or importantly associated with it The author began by addressing several basic questions about privacy that quickly led her to explore dilemmas of identity In time an even more compelling problem emerged the loss of sense of self how it occurs and how it may be dealt with in a social setting The nature of the community itself raised this issue because it was a community of likeness intimacy and ideology It was also a stigmatized or deviant community and of women individuals with life experiences that tended to encourage the giving up of the self to others The book is organized around particular kinds of situations and relationships in the community where conflicts concerning control over identity are especially prominent It concludes with an essay on the author s method Fiction and Social Science Author note Susan Krieger is Visiting Scholar Department of Sociology Stanford University Lesbian Communities Esther D Rothblum, Penny Sablove, 2014-06-11 I had just witnessed women who shingled their own roofs drove eighteen wheeler trucks and built their own houses as well as kept them clean and cooked a damn good meal On women s land I am a first class citizen I m treated as an equal I now see the world with righteous anger and hope Living in womyn s community has provided that lens for me Elizabeth Sturru third wave feminist One of the driving forces in the lives of many lesbians is the search for community in a society that favors heterosexuality and often turns a cold shoulder toward women who love women Lesbian Communities Festivals RVs and the Internet takes you inside flourishing lesbian communities physical spiritual and virtual online that provide practical help emotional support and much needed outlets for creative expression Exploring communities functioning in harmony with general American society as well as separatist groups festival communities which form for short times annually and informal online groups offering meaningful communication to physically isolated lesbians this book offers a ray of light to those whose search is still ongoing It also provides much needed analysis of the current state of lesbian communities some decades old now for educators researchers and social scientists In Lesbian Communities Festivals RVs and the Internet Susan Krieger revisits the vibrant community she first explored in The Mirror Dance An African American member of Old Lesbians Organizing for Change shares the details of her search for a cooperative caring space for aging lesbians and what led to her eventual decision to create this space herself. And one of the founders of Hallomas, a back-to-the-land community that has survived in northern California since the late 1970s, reflects on that unique community's birth and life with 13 photographs and illustrations. The book also bears witness to a life-changing encounter and dialogue between second-wave feminists from the woman's land collective of Arcadia and third-wave feminists. You'll also learn about the birth joys and tribulations of an online community that becomes physical each year at the Michigan Womyn's Music Festival, the accidental birth of a lesbian community in isolated and fundamentalist-dominated West Texas, the international online lesbian parenting community called MOMS affectionately known as Dykes and Tykes, how it began, what belonging to this community provides for its members, and a look toward the future, the debate on inclusiveness versus exclusiveness of bisexual women, transgender people, and the male children of lesbians in lesbian communities, the current decline of availability and dilution of the purity of lesbian-only space, and the rise of segregation by social class and financial status and oppression within the lesbian community, the current plight of lesbian bookstores, which since the 1970s have served not only as gateways to a multitude of lesbian communities but as the centers of lesbian communities themselves, the online experience of lesbians searching for community in Japan, the issues facing Jewish lesbians, and the formation of Nice Jewish Girls, a Montreal group for anyone who identifies as a lesbian, bisexual, or queer woman and their non-Jewish partners and friends, the power of myth and mythmaking to help women regain lost strength and reclaim lost history. From the efforts of back-to-the-land groups creating wimmin's space to life in modern residential retirement settings, this book explores the places created by and for lesbians. Photos and illustrations bring these women and their communities to life. Lesbian Communities: Festivals, RVs, and the Internet with Identity Politics in the Women's Movement Barbara Ryan, 2001-08. An essential collection that constructs the arguments of similarity and difference, dividing and uniting women. In recent years, identity has come to be seen as a process rather than a fact or deterministic force. Yet recognizable identity traits continue to draw people together and provide them with a sense of empowering commonality. Although the plasticity afforded identity has freed up rigid definitions and guidelines for affiliation, some believe that nebulous demarcations of identity may deprive women of a solid position from which to effectively contest centers of power. Bringing together articles by well-known authors and theorists such as Audre Lorde, June Jordan, Daphne Patai, Barbara Smith, Marilyn Frye, Shane Phelan, Leila J. Rupp, Hazel Carby, and Adrienne Rich, with lesser-known writers and scholars, this broad-based anthology ranges widely from personal narratives to empirical research. The book unpacks issues of race, class, gender, ethnicity, sexuality, disability, and age, contributing a range of sharp, lively perspectives to current debate. In a postmodern era of feminism, how do women come to identify, organize, and mobilize themselves within a complex global network of relationships? Identity Politics in the Women's Movement offers critical examination of the inescapable role of identity in academic and activist feminism, and the opportunities, challenges, and conflicts identity politics pose. Feminism and Method Nancy A.

Naples, 2013-10-16 Naples draws on different research topics such as welfare poverty sexual identity and sexual abuse to illustrate some of the most salient dilemmas of feminist research the debate over objectivity the paradox of discourse the dilemma of standpoint and the challenges of activist research By linking important feminist theoretical debates with case studies Naples illustrates the strategies she developed for resolving the challenges posed by postmodern Third World postcolonial and queer studies

Whistling Women J Dianne Garner, Cheryl Claassen, 2013-04-03 Gain first hand knowledge of how today's lesbians aged 60 and over survived the 20th century I didn't know we were lesbians We lived together 13 years Whistling Women is a unique candid collection of the life experiences of 44 lesbians between 62 and 82 years of age This book explores new ground with interviews about their memories feelings and thoughts on a diversity of perspectives from growing up during the Depression and World War II to retirement and old age at the height of the gay liberation movement This unprecedented resource captures a first person view of lesbian history and documents the struggles and achievements of the women who lived it All my schooling was women oriented so I was able to see what women and girls could give to each other In Whistling Women these older women share their views on childhood and young adulthood family social factors religion schooling marriage husbands children divorce lesbian relationships coming out closet relationships role playing butch and fem practices conventional politics party affiliation activities concerns degree of feminism work and money financial arrangements home ownership investment properties life after 60 retirement health activities communities and much more I dated I went along I did it because basically it was the thing to do But I had crushes on girls Whistling Women offers you unprecedented statistics on these women and comparisons with statistics gathered in other analyses on lesbian and heterosexual women This research includes studies of socioeconomic class in childhood mid life and at retirement level of education of participants number and duration of long term relationships both heterosexual marriages and lesbian lover relationships age of first lesbian relationship retirement statistics year retired age at retirement economic resources after retirement compared to general US population If we had these things in the 1950s gay bookstores and publications how different life would be for a lot of people But we had to pave the way This book is significant for sociologists gay and lesbian researchers and gerontologists as well as anyone interested in women's history It also presents recollections of lesbian mixed bars some famous starting in the 1930s memories of the notorious Greenwich Village the early development of lesbian social groups and lesbian friendships with gay men Whistling Girls identifies many of the organizations that cater specifically to older lesbians such as OLOC Old Lesbians Organizing for Change and SOL Slightly Older Lesbians

The Family Silver Susan Krieger, 1996-10-21 A magnificent read a profoundly personal narrative The Family Silver is on the cutting edge of feminist scholarship Verta Taylor coeditor of Feminist Frontiers Just as Krieger's The Mirror Dance was the first to describe the lesbian community The Family Silver is the first book to blend the personal familial relational professional and political roles of lesbians in today's society I loved reading it Esther Rothblum editor of Journal of Lesbian

Studies Modern Homosexualities Ken Plummer,2002-09-11 This book of nineteen original essays by activists and academics documents and analyses the dramatic changes in lesbian and gay experience over the last twenty years It charts the growth of lesbian and gay studies and examines key issues around communities identities relationships sexualities and politics These essays edited by a leading author in the field herald a new confidence and maturity for the growing field of lesbian and gay studies

Boots of Leather, Slippers of Gold Elizabeth Lapovsky Kennedy, Madeline D. Davis,2013-10-08 When most lesbians had to hide how did they find one another Were the bars of the 1940s and 1950s more fun than the bars today Did Black and white lesbians socialize together Boots of Leather Slippers of Gold is a ground breaking account of the growth of the lesbian community in Buffalo New York from the mid 1930s to the early 1960s Drawing on oral histories collected from 45 women it is the first comprehensive history of a working class lesbian community These poignant and complex stories provide a new look at Black and white working class lesbians as powerful agents of historical change Their creativity and resilience under oppressive circumstances constructed a better life for all lesbians and expanded possibilities for all women Based on 13 years of research Boots of Leather Slippers of Gold ranges over topics including sex relationships coming out butch fem roles motherhood aging racism work oppression and pride Kennedy and Davis provide a unique insider s perspective on butch fem culture and trace the roots of gay and lesbian liberation to the determined resistance of working class lesbians The book begins by focusing on the growth and development of community culture and consciousness in the bars and open house parties of the 1930s 40s and 50s It goes on to explore the code of personal behavior and social imperative in butch fem culture centering on dress mannerisms and gendered sexuality Finally the book examines serial monogamy the social forces which shaped love and break ups and the changing nature and content of lesbian identity Capturing the full complexity of lesbian culture this outstanding book includes extensive quotes from narrators that make every topic a living document a composite picture of the lives of real people fighting for respect and for a place that would be safe for their love

Women Preaching Revolution Elaine J. Lawless,2015-08-10 Do women preach differently than men In Women Preaching Revolution Elaine J Lawless contends that they do Drawing on her study of more than 150 sermons and extensive interviews with the clergywomen who preached them Lawless argues that women have changed traditional preaching in ways that reflect their socialization as women and their experiences of being female in America Many of the women in her study were expected to take courses on the art of preaching as part of their seminary training Most of them rejected the sermon structure and strategies they were taught in seminary viewing them as part of a male homiletic tradition and developed styles that celebrate their commitment to connection relationship and dialogue
