The Mountain:

The Mountain Embodied Matthew C. Velasco, 2025-07-15 A study of the ancient practice of Andean head shaping and its cultural connotations In the late sixteenth century Spanish conquerors in Peru's Colca Valley encountered the Collaguas and Cavanos Indigenous people who undertook a striking form of body modification Collaguas bound the heads of infants and children so that their skulls grew narrow and elongated and Cavanos so that their skulls became wide and squat Head shaping resulted in craniums that resembled two specific mountains associated with the groups For Europeans shaped skulls immediately and durably became a marker of territorialized ethnic difference The Mountain Embodied offers a more nuanced story Having studied hundreds of samples of human remains bioarchaeologist Matthew Velasco argues that reducing head shape to a mere ethnic marker is a colonial invention Instead the social significance of head shaping was protean and intersected with other structures of difference such as gender kinship and status influencing experience within the community Head shaping then was one factor in the construction of a locally embedded kind of subjectivity An outsider could deduce group identity from head shape but for practitioners head shaping reflected something else nothing less than personhood itself Surficial Geology and Geomorphology of the Mountain Lake Area, Giles County, Virginia, Including Sedimentological Studies of Colluvium and Boulder Streams Hugh H. Mills, Geological Survey (U.S.), 1988 See journals under US Geological survey Prof paper 1469 Beyond The Mountain Bob Stacy, 2024-07-23 The mountains had a dual meaning in my life First of all the mountains impacted my life as a young boy growing up Entertainment for me was running through the hills and valleys hunting My friends and I roamed around over the hills looking for whatever walnuts grapes chestnuts acorns Exploring rivers and creeks fishing swimming and playing wherever we could find a pool of water big enough to accommodate us Then there are the mountains from within mountains created by broken homes leaving children with worry anxiety and thoughts of are they to blame Then there are the mountains from within which create storms that affect older ones Is my boss going to fire me because I did not meet his expectations Or is my marriage going to fall apart because I don't or can't spend enough time with my family Or are the debts larger than the income leaving doubt Will the house be repossessed Can there be enough food Will the family car make it another year Mountains come in many different sizes from the Ozark Mountains in Arkansas at 2 561 feet to Mount Everest at 29 032 feet with many in between So also are the mountains in our life But God tells us he is bigger than the mountains that overcome us When I gave my life to him at age fourteen he told me then not audibly but in a small still voice I will never leave you nor forsake you He has kept his word He has lifted me over the mountains He has carried me through the storms and as I look back over my life a friend he has been and a Savior he will always be May God bless you Many of the storms I have experienced are recorded in this book 2 Lost on the Mountain Elisabeth Williams, 2011-12-02 In Lost on the Mountain Laya Whisten sat and watched the life fade from her husband Cal as he was dying with scarlet fever She was left to run a 2000 acre spread called the Swinging W Ranch Shed made a solemn promise to herself when Cal died that she would never get married again and she had kept that promise for 8 years Until she met sheriff Cole Walters of Butte Montana She had risen on a cold December morning made a circle on the window pane to see out finding a menagerie of snow and ice cycles everywhere She was headed to her cabin in the mountain and knew she had to get there before nightfall She spent every winter there gather stray cattle holding them in the barn until she could bring them back down the mountain during the spring She saddled Nick her favorite horse and headed into the timber line When she was about three miles from home the snow became heavier making it difficult to see where she was going She had heard a whimper coming from a bush near the trail She slid off her hoarse to investigate and found it to be a baby wolf The little wolf refused to let her pick him up until she had fed him several biscuits from her saddle bag They formed a bond of love which would last on through the years He protected her and found her when she was lost in a blinding snow storm in the mountains Her and the wolf pup encountered a grizzly bear on the way back to the cabin as they were coming from sheltering Nick in the barn when they first arrived During the night as she dozed in her rocking chair in front of the fireplace she awoke to a noise outside the cabin Thinking the grizzly had returned she grabbed the gun from over the fireplace and silently eased to the window She saw a silhouette of a man over the saddle of his horse Laya found a bullet lodged in his right shoulder and knew that she had to get it out She later finds out he is sheriff Cole Walters of Beattie Montana and he had been chasing the outlaw who had burned his home three years earlier with his wife and child trapped inside Both died in the fire Cole fell in love with Laya the minute he opened his eyes and saw her sitting by his bed waiting for him to regain consciousness Even stressed from her administration of taking the bullet from his shoulder she was the most beautiful person Cole had ever laid eyes on It took a long time to win Laya over and return his love but Cole refused to give up He had to have her
