Bureau of Naval Personnel,1977 Building Capitalism (Routledge Revivals) Linda Clarke,2012-12-06 First published in 1992 this Routledge Revival sees the reissue of a truly original exploration of the nature of urbanization and capitalism Linda Clarke s vital work argues that Urbanization is a product of the social human labour engaged in building as well as a concentration of the labour force The quality of the labour process determines the development of production Changes to the built environment reflect changes in the production process and in particular the development of wage labour To support these arguments the author identifies a qualitatively new historical stage of capitalist building production involving a significant expansion of wage labour and hence capital and the transition from artisan to industrial production Linda Clarke draws from a wide range of original material relating to the development of London from the mid eighteenth to the early nineteenth century to provide a complete description of the development process materials extraction roadbuilding housebuilding paving cleansing etc profiles of builders and contractors involved and a picture of the new working class communities as in Somers Town their living conditions population working environment and politics Policy Issues in Employment Testing Linda C. Wing,Bernard R. Gifford,2012-12-06 Linda C Wing and Bernard R Gifford How should a society committed to the ideas of individual merit equal opportunity and the free marketplace allocate scarce educational and employment opportunities How can that society draw distinctions fairly and justifiably among people competing against each other for the same opportunity These are among the central questions of a democracy How a society answers them reveals a great deal about its values and its priorities and determines a great deal about its future course In recent decades we have placed the standardized pencil and paper test at the center of these fundamental questions about the nature of opportunity allocation in American life In more and more areas of our lives schools employment the military we rely upon the standardized test to rank or classify people and to assure ourselves that we have done so fairly The papers gathered here were prepared at the invitation of the National Commission on Testing and Public Policy The editors of this volume were involved in the commission from its inception in 1987 until shortly after the publication of its major public report in 1990 Bernard Gifford as Chair and Linda Wing as Associate Director 1 Each chapter focuses on an aspect of employment testing a topic that could hardly 1 POLICY ISSUES IN EMPLOYMENT TESTING 2 be more in need of calm deliberation and reasoned discussion than it is today The London Stage 1900-1909 J. P. Wearing, 2013-12-05 For centuries London theatre has celebrated a rich and influential history and in 1976 the first volume of J P Wearing s reference series provided scholars and other researchers with an indispensable resource of these productions In the decades since the original calendars were produced several research aids have become available notably various reference works and the digitization of important newspapers and relevant periodicals The London Stage 1900 1909 A Calendar of Productions Performers and Personnel Second Edition provides a chronological calendar of London shows from January 1900 through December 1909 The volume chronicles more than 3 000 productions at 35 selected major central London theatres during this period For each entry the following information is provided Title Author Theatre Performers Personnel Opening and Closing Dates Number of Performances Other details include genre of the production number of acts and references to reviews A comment section includes other interesting information such as a plot description the first night reception by the audience noteworthy performances staging elements and details of performances in New York either prior to or after the London production Among the plays staged in London during this decade were Candida His House in Order The Only Way The Playboy of the Western World Raffles The Amateur Cracksman and The Scarlet Pimpernel as well as numerous musical comedies British and American foreign works operas and revivals of English classics A definitive resource this edition revises corrects and expands the original well received calendar In addition approximately 20 percent of the material in particular information of adaptations and translations plot sources and comment information is new Arranged chronologically the shows are indexed fully by title genre and theatre A general index also includes numerous subject entries on such topics as acting audiences censorship costumes managers performers prompters staging ticket prices or other relevant subjects An authoritative reference providing essential details this work will be of value to scholars theatrical personnel librarians writers journalists and historians An American Health Dilemma W. Michael Byrd, Linda A. Clayton, 2001-12-21 First published in 2002 An American Health Dilemma is the story of medicine in the United States from the perspective of people who were consistently officially mistreated abused or neglected by the Western medical tradition and the US health care system It is also the compelling story of African Americans fighting to participate fully in the health care professions in the face of racism and the increased power of health corporations and HMOs This tour de force of research on the relationship between race medicine and health care in the United States is an extraordinary achievement by two of the leading lights in the field of public health Ten years out it is finally updated with a new third volume taking the story up to the present and beyond remaining the premiere and only reference on black public health and the history of African American medicine on the market today No one who is concerned with American race relations with access to and quality of health care or with justice and equality for humankind can afford to miss this powerful resource Publishers' Circular ,1879 Earned Degrees Conferred by Higher Educational Institutions, 1949-50 Robert Crawson Story,1950 U.S. Geological Survey Circular ,1984 Strong-Motion Program Report, January-December 1985 ,1989 An American Health Dilemma: Race, medicine, and health care in the United States 1900-2000 W. Michael Byrd,Linda A. Clayton,2000 This volume is a comprehensive collection of critical essays on The Taming of the Shrew and includes extensive discussions of the play s various printed versions and its theatrical productions Aspinall has included only those essays that offer the most influential and controversial arguments surrounding the play The issues discussed include gender authority female autonomy and unruliness courtship and marriage language and speech and performance and theatricality IEEE Membership Directory Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers,1989 Past Trauma in Late Life Linda Hunt,Mary Marshall,Cherry Rowlings,1997 In the professional and practice literature on working with older people little attention has been given to the potential impact of trauma experienced in childhood and early adult life This book looks at the effect of trauma on behaviour which is often mistakenly viewed as part of the pathology of old age The contributors pay particular attention to the impact of the Holocaust and of the war experience of civilians and combatants as well as individual trauma The authors call for sensitivity on the part of professionals and carers to the possibility of early trauma as a causal factor in distress in older people The book encourages all those providing services to prepare themselves and their clients for a journey through what is often painful territory the material contained in this volume will help both specialist and non specialist practitioners to map a more certain course towards a coherent approach to therapeutic intervention and the care and support of many people still suffering from the consequences of earlier traumatic experiences

What Wild Ecstasy John Heidenry,2002-03-22 From the former editor of Penthouse Forum comes a detailed and deep exploration of the sexual revolution and its issues including controversy over freedom of expression and the rights of gays and lesbians In this extensive history of three decades of sexual culture John Heidenry details the rise of the science of sexology the burgeoning of pornographic works that fanned controversies over freedom of expression and the lobbying of homosexuals With discussion of Bob Guccione Hugh Hefner Larry Flynt and other prominent figures Heiderny gives readers a peak at the rise and fall of the sexual revolution and its effect on society as a whole
