Harper Harrison,2025-02-11 Michael Allen Harrison was my first true love The man I wanted to marry and did We had come from distinctly different backgrounds and had grown up in opposite parts of the country but against all odds we fell in love and got married Like any young couple we had dreams of a promising future and visualized growing old together happily ever after The road was rocky from the very beginning though and as a starry eyed young woman I was unprepared for Mike's detachment withdrawal and heightened need for solitude He offered no excuses for his aloofness nor did he offer any explanation Although I prayed hard that everything would work out it didn't I never stopped thinking about him though and never stopped loving him This is the story of a young man and a young woman who remained divided as they grew into an older man and an older woman yet ultimately it was that very division that motivated them to search for one another Fast forward forty two years my hands shook as I read his email Could this really be happening Never underestimate the power of love or walk away from a door that God has opened
