Smoke Signals , Features graphic photographs of diseased lungs provided by the Society of Thoracic Surgeons Includes electronic cards on smoking cessation and competitions Smoke Signals Sherman Alexie,1998 A bittersweet comedy about two young Native Americans Victor and Thomas who leave their small town for an adventure in self discovery Smoke Signals Perfection Learning Corporation,Sherman Alexie,2010 Set in Arizona Smoke Signals is the story of two Native American boys on a journey Victor is the stoic handsome son of an alcoholic father who has abandoned his family Thomas is a gregarious goofy young man who lost both his parents in a fire at a very young age Through storytelling Thomas makes every effort to connect with the people around him Victor in contrast uses his quiet countenance to gain strength and confidence When Victor s estranged father dies the two men embark on an adventure to Phoenix to collect the ashes Along the way Smoke Signals illustrates the ties that bind these two very different young men and embraces the lessons they learn from one another Smoke Signals ,2016 Consists chiefly of poetry alongside photocopied photographs of performing punk musicians and of carnivals at night Sherman Alexie Jeff Berglund,Jan Roush,2011-10-31 A collection of critical essays on the writing and films of American Indian author Sherman Alexie Sovereignty, Separatism, and Survivance Benjamin D. Carson,2009-01-14 This collection broad in its scope explores rich and multi faceted literary works by and about Native Americans from the long early American period to the present What links these essays is a concern for the ways in which Native Americans have navigated negotiated and resisted dominant white ideology since the founding of the Republic Importantly these essays are historically situated and consider not only the ways in which indigenous peoples are represented in American literature and history but pay much needed attention to the actual lived experiences of Native Americans inside and outside of native communities By addressing cross cultural protest resistance to dominant white ideology the importance to Natives of land and land redress sovereignty separatism and cultural healing Sovereignty Separatism and Survivance contributes to our understanding of the discrepancy between ideological representations of native peoples and the real life consequences those representations have for the ways in which indigenous peoples live out their daily lives Across the Great Divide Matthew Basso,Laura McCall,Dee Garceau,2013-10-18 In Across the Great Divide some of our leading historians look to both the history of masculinity in the West and to the ways that this experience has been represented in movies popular music dimestore novels and folklore Mastering the Craft of Diverse and Inclusive Screenwriting Karla Rae Fuller,2024-12-20 This accessible and informative textbook provides a guide to the craft of screenwriting with an emphasis on diverse perspectives underrepresented groups and their screen stories Readers will learn to master writing a feature length screenplay in a framework that focuses on diversity equity and inclusion With case studies to aid understanding the book explores the screenwriting process in stages explaining how to create a logline as well as character bios writing and choosing a genre differentiating between writing a treatment a synopsis composing an outline incorporating the formatting process and finally creating a scene and sequence The techniques specific to screenwriting will also be covered in the text such as writing dialogue and action establishing setting and time period and most importantly mastering the craft of visual storytelling At the same time the textbook introduces concepts of content choices that are diverse and inclusive such as stereotypes vs archetypes intersectional characters underrepresented groups and themes such as social justice systemic racism class conflict gender inequity and climate change Due to its subject matter and inclusive approach this textbook will be an essential guide for all aspiring and current screenwriters who want to successfully navigate and complement today s developing industry

The Philosophy of the Western Jennifer L. McMahon, B. Steve Csaki, 2010-05-28 Essays about how stories of the Old West reflect and affect our beliefs and values The solitude of the lone rider the loyalty of his horse and the unspoken code of the West for many Western movies embody America and its values though the view of the country s history they present isn t always accurate In recent years scholars had declared the genre dead but a steady resurgence of western themes in literature film and television has reestablished its importance and influence In The Philosophy of the Western editors Jennifer L McMahon and B Steve Csaki examine philosophical themes in the western genre Investigating subjects of nature ethics identity gender environmentalism and animal rights the essays in this volume draw from a wide range of westerns including the more recent popular and critical successes Unforgiven All the Pretty Horses 3 10 to Yuma and No Country for Old Men as well as literature and television serials such as Deadwood The Philosophy of the Western reveals the powerful role of the western in the American psyche

Adaptation Theory and Criticism Gordon E. Slethaug, 2014-06-19 Traditional critics of film adaptation generally assumed a that the written text is better than the film adaptation because the plot is more intricate and the language richer when pictorial images do not intrude b that films are better when particularly faithful to the original c that authors do not make good script writers and should not sully their imagination by writing film scripts d and often that American films lack the complexity of authored texts because they are sourced out of Hollywood The faithfulness view has by and large disappeared and intertextuality is now a generally received notion but the field still lacks studies with a postmodern methodology and lens Exploring Hollywood feature films as well as small studio productions Adaptation Theory and Criticism explores the intertextuality of a dozen films through a series of case studies introduced through discussions of postmodern methodology and practice Providing the reader with informative background on theories of film adaptation as well as carefully articulated postmodern methodology and issues Gordon Slethaug includes several case studies of major Hollywood productions and small studio films some of which have been discussed before Age of Innocence Gangs of New York and Do the Right Thing and some that have received lesser consideration Six Degrees of Separation Smoke Signals Broken Flowers and various Snow White narratives including Enchanted Mirror Mirror and Snow White and the Huntsman Useful for both film and literary studies students Adaptation Theory and Criticism cogently combines the existing scholarship and uses previous theories to engage readers to think about the current state of American literature and film

American Indians and Popular Culture Elizabeth DeLaney Hoffman, 2012-02-22 Americans are still fascinated by the romantic notion of the noble savage yet know little about the real Native peoples of North America This two volume work seeks to remedy that by examining stereotypes and celebrating the true cultures of American Indians today The two volume American Indians and Popular Culture seeks to help readers understand American Indians by analyzing their relationships with the popular culture of the United States and Canada Volume 1 covers media sports and politics while Volume 2 covers literature arts and resistance Both volumes focus on stereotypes detailing how they were created and why they are still allowed to exist In defining popular culture broadly to include subjects such as print advertising politics and science as well as literature film and the arts this work offers a comprehensive guide to the important issues facing Native peoples today Analyses draw from many disciplines and include many voices ranging from surveys of movies and discussions of Native authors to first person accounts from Native perspectives Among the more intriguing subjects are the casinos that have changed the economic landscape for the tribes involved the controversy surrounding museum treatments of American Indians and the methods by which American Indians have fought back against pervasive ethnic stereotyping

Hollywood's Indian Peter C. Rollins, John E. O'Connor, 2011-01-23 Offering both in depth analyses of specific films and overviews of the industry's output Hollywood's Indian provides insightful characterizations of the depiction of the Native Americans in film This updated edition includes a new chapter on Smoke Signals the groundbreaking independent film written by Sherman Alexie and directed by Chris Eyre Taken as a whole the essays explore the many ways in which these portrayals have made an impact on our collective cultural life

Understanding Sherman Alexie Daniel Grassian, 2005 In this first book length examination of Native American poet novelist filmmaker and short story writer Sherman Alexie Daniel Grassian offers a comprehensive look at a writer immersed in traditional Native American as well as mainstream American culture Grassian explores Alexie's ability to counteract lingering stereotypes of Native Americans his challenges to the dominant American history and his suspicion of the New Age movement

Authorship in Film Adaptation Jack Boozer, 2009-06-03 Authoring a film adaptation of a literary source not only requires a media conversion but also a transformation as a result of the differing dramatic demands of cinema The most critical central step in this transformation of a literary source to the screen is the writing of the screenplay The screenplay usually serves to recruit producers director and actors to attract capital investment and to give focus to the conception and production of the film project Often undergoing multiple revisions prior to production the screenplay represents the crucial decisions of writer and director that will determine how and to what end the film will imitate or depart from its original source Authorship in Film Adaptation is an accessible provocative text that opens up new areas of discussion on the central process of adaptation surrounding the screenplay and screenwriter director collaboration In contrast to narrow binary comparisons of literary source text and film the twelve essays in this collection also give attention to the underappreciated role of the screenplay and film pre production that can signal the primary intention for a film Divided into four parts this collection looks first at the role of Hollywood s activist producers and major auteurs such as Hitchcock and Kubrick as they worked with screenwriters to formulate their audio visual goals The second part offers case studies of Devil in a Blue Dress and The Sweet Hereafter for which the directors wrote their own adapted screenplays Considering the variety of writer director working relationships that are possible Part III focuses on adaptations that alter genre time and place and Part IV investigates adaptations that alter stories of romance sexuality and ethnicity

Twenty-First Century Perspectives on Indigenous Studies Birgit Däwes, Karsten Fitz, Sabine N. Meyer, 2015-04-24 In recent years the interdisciplinary fields of Native North American and Indigenous Studies have reflected at times even foreshadowed and initiated many of the influential theoretical discussions in the humanities after the transnational turn Global trends of identity politics performativity cultural performance and ethics comparative and revisionist historiography ecological responsibility and education as well as issues of social justice have shaped and been shaped by discussions in Native American and Indigenous Studies This volume brings together distinguished perspectives on these topics by the Native scholars and writers Gerald Vizenor Anishinaabe Diane Glancy Cherokee and Tomson Highway Cree as well as non Native authorities such as Chadwick Allen Hartmut Lutz and Helmbrecht Breinig Contributions look at various moments in the cultural history of Native North America from earthmounds via the Catholic appropriation of a Mohawk saint to the debates about Makah whaling rights as well as at a diverse spectrum of literary performative and visual works of art by John Ross John Ridge Elias Boudinot Emily Pauline Johnson Leslie Marmon Silko Emma Lee Warrior Louise Erdrich N Scott Momaday Stephen Graham Jones and Gerald Vizenor among others In doing so the selected contributions identify new and recurrent methodological challenges outline future paths for scholarly inquiry and explore the intersections between Indigenous Studies and contemporary Literary and Cultural Studies at large

Decolonizing the Lens of Power Kerstin Knopf, 2008-01-01 This is the first book that comprehensively examines Indigenous filmmaking in North America as it analyzes in detail a variety of representative films by Canadian and US American Indigenous filmmakers two films that contextualize the oral tradition three short films and four dramatic films The book explores how members of colonized groups use the medium of film as a means for cultural and political expression and thus enter the dominant colonial film discourse and create an answering discourse The theoretical framework is developed as an interdisciplinary approach combining postcolonialism Indigenous studies and film studies As Indigenous people are gradually taking control over the imagemaking process in the area of film and video they cease being studied and described objects and become subjects who create self controlled images of Indigenous cultures The book explores the translatability of Indigenous oral tradition into film touching upon the changes the cultural knowledge is subject to in this process including statements of Indigenous filmmakers on this issue It also asks whether or not there is a definite Indigenous film practice and whether filmmakers tend to dissociate their work from dominant classical filmmaking adapt to it or create new film forms and styles through converging classical film conventions and their conscious violation This approach presupposes that Indigenous filmmakers are constantly in some state of reaction to Western ethnographic filmmaking and to classical narrative filmmaking and its epitome the Hollywood narrative cinema The films analyzed are The Road Allowance People by Maria Campbell Itam Hakim Hopiit by Victor Masayesva Talker by Lloyd Martell Tenacity and Smoke Signals by Chris Eyre Overweight With Crooked Teeth and Honey Moccasin by Shelley Niro Big Bear by Gil Cardinal and Atanarjuat The Fast Runner by Zacharias Kunuk Crafty

Screenwriting Alex Epstein, 2002-10-08 The most innovative and creative screenwriting book yet from an author who knows first hand what it takes to get a movie made Based on an award winning website hailed as smart enough for professional screenwriters and accessible enough for aspiring screenwriters Crafty Screenwriting is the first book not only to offer a successful screenwriter's tricks of the trade but to explain what development executives really mean when they complain that the dialogue is flat or the hero isn't likeable Fresh provocative and funny Alex Epstein diagnoses problem that other screenwriting books barely address and answers questions they rarely ask like Why is it sometimes dangerous to know your characters too well before you start writing or Why does your script have to be so much better than the awful pictures that get made every day As a development executive who has accepted and rejected countless screenplays and a produced screenwriter himself Epstein can take you into the heart of the most important question of all Is this a movie A crucial book for anyone who has ever wondered what it takes to get their movie made American Indian Culture Bruce E.

Johansen, 2015-09-22 This invaluable resource provides a comprehensive historical and demographic overview of American Indians along with more than 100 cross referenced entries on American Indian culture exploring everything from arts literature music and dance to food family housing and spirituality American Indian Culture From Counting Coup to Wampum is organized by cultural form Arts Family Education and Community Food Language and Literature Media and Popular Culture Music and Dance Spirituality and Transportation and Housing Examples of topics covered include icons of Native culture such as pow wows Indian dancing and tipi dwellings Native art forms such as pottery rock art sandpainting silverwork tattooing and totem poles foods such as corn frybread and wild rice and Native Americans in popular culture The extensive introductory section breadth of topics accessibly written text and range of perspectives from the many contributors make this work a must have resource for high school and undergraduate audiences Media & Minorities Stephanie Greco Larson, 2006 Media Minorities looks at the media's racial tendencies with an eye to identifying the system supportive messages conveyed and offering challenges to them The book covers all major media including television film newspapers radio magazines and the Internet and systematically analyzes their representation of the four largest minority groups in the U S African Americans Native Americans Latinos and Asian Americans Entertainment media are compared and contrasted with news media and special attention is devoted to coverage of social movements for racial justice and politicians of color

Global Fragments Anke Bartels, Dirk Wiemann, 2007 While the world seems to be getting ever smaller and globalization has become the ubiquitous buzz word regionalism and fragmentation also abound This might be due to the fact that far from being the alleged production of cultural homogeneity the global is constantly re defined and altered through the local This tension pervading much of contemporary culture has an obvious special relevance for the new varieties of English and the literature published in English world wide Postcolonial literatures exist at the interface of English as a hegemonic medium and its many national regional and local competitors that transform it in the new English literatures Thus any exploration of a globalization of cultures has to take into account the fact that culture is a complex field characterized by hybridization plurality and difference But while global or transnational cultures may allow for a new cosmopolitanism that produces ever changing fluid identities they do not give rise to an egalitarian global village an asymmetry between centre and periphery remains largely intact albeit along new parameters The essays collected in this volume offer readings of literary theoretical and filmic texts from the postcolonial world These texts are read as attempts to articulate the global with the local from a perspective of immersion in the actual diversity of life worlds focusing on such issues as consumption identity politics and modes of affiliation In this sense they are global fragments locally refracted figurations of an experience of world wide interconnectedness
