A Faith of Our Own Jonathan Merritt, 2012-05-08 Every day major headlines tell the story of how Christianity is attempting to influence American culture and politics But statistics show that young Americans are disenchanted with a faith that has become culturally antagonistic and too closely aligned with partisan politics In this personal yet practical work Jonathan Merritt uncovers the changing face of American Christianity by uniquely examining the coming of age of a new generation of Christians Jonathan Merritt illuminates the spiritual ethos of this new generation of believers who engage the world with Christ centered faith but an un polarized political perspective Through personal stories and biblically rooted commentary this scion of a leading evangelical family takes a close thoughtful look at the changing religious and political environment addressing such divisive issues as abortion gay marriage environmental use and care race war poverty and the imbalance of world wealth Through Scripture the examples of Jesus and personal defining faith experiences he distills the essential truths at the core of a Christian faith that is now just coming of age

Seinology Tim Delaney, 2010-06-03 Sociologist and avid Seinfeld fan Tim Delaney explores what sociologists and all interested readers can learn about themselves and their society from this tremendously popular sitcom His work represents a fascinating blend of popular and contemporary culture with the keen observations of a scholar trained to assess social behavior Delaney uses excerpts from many of the now classic episodes to illustrate key facets of social interaction In fifteen chapters amusingly titled after some of the show s famous incidents he reviews what its characters teach us about ourselves and the complex society in which we live Fans of Seinfeld will enjoy reliving their fondest memories associated with each episode Students and laypersons alike will learn basic sociological concepts and theories in this jargonfree work Seinology provides Seinfeld fans an opportunity to view this brilliant television show through the sociologist s well trained eye Native America in the 21st Century Jerry Hollingsworth,2017-05-11 After many years of forced assimilation policies numerous broken treaties and failed government policies Native Americans are still fighting for respect and equal rights in the United States American Indian reservations in the United States resemble third world countries with high poverty rates increasing unemployment environmental disasters and major health problems such as diabetes and alcoholism In addition racism is still prevalent for Native Americans today Reservation lands are often isolated and present little or no opportunities and they have poor infrastructure inadequate housing and the schools have lower than average educational standards Therefore Native Americans often must leave the reservation in search of education and better vocational opportunities if they are to succeed in mainstream society However in doing so they may lose touch with their culture their language and their traditional way of life The poor conditions on the reservations may actually stand in stark contrast for those who live off the reservations or live in larger metropolitan areas Native Americans living off the reservation may have a better than average chance at education and job opportunities However almost all Native Americans still find that they are victims of ridicule as schools and professional sports teams continue to utilise Native American images logos and racist team mascots as their symbols This book investigates the social problems and the status of Native Americans in the United States in the twenty first century It identifies and describes the social problems faced by Native Americans today and brings up a valuable argument have the Native Americans really assimilated The SAGE Handbook of Intercultural Competence Darla K. Deardorff,2009-08-31 Containing chapters by some of the world s leading experts and scholars on the subject this book provides a broad context for intercultural competence Including the latest research on intercultural models and theories it presents guidance on assessing intercultural competence through the exploration of key assessment principles Urban Socio-Economic Segregation and Income Inequality Maarten van Ham,Tiit Tammara,Rūta Ubarevičienė,Heleen Janssen,2021-03-29 This open access book investigates the link between income inequality and socio economic residential segregation in 24 large urban regions in Africa Asia Australia Europe North America and South America It offers a unique global overview of segregation trends based on case studies by local author teams The book shows important global trends in segregation and proposes a Global Segregation Thesis Rising inequalities lead to rising levels of socio economic segregation almost everywhere in the world Levels of inequality and segregation are higher in cities in lower income countries but the growth in inequality and segregation is faster in cities in high income countries This is causing convergence of segregation trends Professionalisation of the workforce is leading to changing residential patterns High income workers are moving to city centres or to attractive coastal areas and gated communities while poverty is increasingly suburbanising As a result the urban geography of inequality changes faster and is more pronounced than changes in segregation levels Rising levels of inequality and segregation pose huge challenges for the future social sustainability of cities as cities are no longer places of opportunities for all

Pioneers of Genocide Studies (Clt) Samuel Totten, Steven Leonard Jacobs, 2002 New areas of research are not the result of a snap of the finger They are carved out of the marrow of human existence The study of genocide well illustrates this raw fact From the early efforts that emerged in the struggle against Nazism and over the past half century the field has now reached a point where there at least five genocide centers across the globe and well over one hundred Holocaust centers This work emerged out of an earlier effort at an oral history project one that would enable a new generation of scholars researchers and policy makers to assess the major foci of the field efforts to develop ways and means to intervene and prevent future genocides and review the successes and failures of the field The editors of Pioneers of Genocide Studies emphasize that contributors should approach the questions of greatest relevance in a personal way crafting a statement that reveals ones individual voice persuasions literary style scholarly perspectives and relevant details of ones life The book succeeds admirably in the above aims and in so doing epitomizes scholarly autobiographical writing at its best The book also includes the most important works by each author on the issue of genocide As a result the collective portrait enhances the usefulness of the volume for those new to the field Among the contributors are experts in the Armenian Bosnian Cambodian genocides as well as the Holocaust against the Jewish people The contributors are Rouben Adalian M Cherif Bassiouni Israel W Charney Vahakn Dadrian Helen Fein Barbara Harff David Hawk Herbert Hirsch Irving Louis Horowitz Richard Hovannisian Henry Huttenbach Leo Kuper Raphael Lemkin James E Mace Eric Markusen Robert Melson R J Rummel Roger W Smith Gregory H Stanton Ervin Staub Colin Tatz Yves Ternan and the co editors The work has been five years in the making and represents a high watermark in the reflections and self reflections on the comparative study of genocide Samuel Totten is professor of curriculum and instruction in the College of Education and Health Professions at the University of Arkansas Fayetteville He is the editor of First Person Accounts of Genocidal Acts and Century of Genocide Eyewitness Accounts and Critical Views and book review editor for the Journal of Genocide Research Steven Leonard Jacobs is associate professor and Aaron Aronov Chair of Judaic Studies in the department of religious studies at the University of Alabama Tuscaloosa He is the author of Shirot Bialik A New and Annotated Translation of Chaim Nachman Bialiks Epic Poems Raphael Lemkins Thoughts on Nazi Genocide Not Guilty and Contemporary Christian and Contemporary Jewish Religious Responses to the Shoah

Magazine Movements Laurel Forster, 2015-02-26 All women s magazines are not the same content outlook and format combine to shape publications quite distinctively While magazines in general have long been understood as a significant force in women's lives many critiques have limited themselves to discussions of mainstream printed publications that engage with narrowly stereotypical representations of femininity Looking at a range of women's magazines Cooperative Correspondence Club and Housewife and magazine programmes Woman's Hour and Houseparty Magazine Movements not only extends our definition of a magazine but most importantly unearths the connections between women's cultures specific magazines and the implied reader The author first outlines the existing field of magazine studies and analyzes the methodologies employed in accessing and assessing the cultural competence of magazines Each chapter then provides a case study of a different kind of magazine different in media form or style of presentation or audience connection or all three Forster not only extends our definition of a magazine but most importantly unearths the connections between women's cultures specific magazines and the implied reader In this way fresh insights are provided into the long standing importance of the magazine to the variety of feminisms on offer in Britain from the mid twentieth century to the present day
