Soldiers Play:

A Soldier's Play Charles Fuller, 1981 In a Louisiana army camp in 1944 Capt Taylor the white C O has a problem He commands a Black company whose sergeant has been murdered He is worried the murderer may be a white officer or the local Klan A Black captain Richard Davenport is assigned to investigate Taylor tries to discourage him because he feels the assignment of a Black investigator means the case is to be swept under the rug Capt Davenport perseveres and as he probes deeper he finds the Black soldiers are as corrupted with hatred as the whites Each one had a motive for the killing Davenport solves the case and the truth is even more shocking than the murder itself A Soldier's Play Charles Fuller, 1982-09 A black sergeant cries out in the night They still hate you then is shot twice and falls dead Set in 1944 at Fort Neal a segregated army camp in Louisiana Charles Fuller's forceful drama which won the Pulitzer Prize in 1982 and has been regularly seen in both its original stage and its later screen version tracks the investigation of this murder The Soldier's Reward Jennifer Ngaire Heuer, 2024-12-03 A sweeping history of intimacy and family life in France during the age of revolution The French Revolution and Napoleonic Wars devastated Europe for nearly a quarter of a century The Soldier's Reward recovers the stories of soldiers and their relationships to family and domestic life during this period revealing how prolonged warfare transformed family and gender dynamics and gave rise to new kinds of citizenship In this groundbreaking work combining social cultural gender and military history Jennifer Ngaire Heuer vividly describes how men fought for years with only fleeting moments of peace Combatants were promised promotion financial gain and patriotic glory They were also rewarded for their service by being allowed to return home to waiting families and love interests and with marriages that were arranged and financially supported by the state Heuer explores competing ideas of masculinity in France as well as the experiences of the men and women who participated in such marriages She argues that we cannot fully understand the changing nature of war and peace in this period without considering the important roles played by family gender and romantic entanglements Casting new light on a turbulent era of mass mobilization and seemingly endless conflict The Soldier's Reward shows how from the Revolution through the Restoration war intimacy and citizenship intersected in France in new and unexpected ways Soldiers, 1986 Marlowe's Soldiers Alan Shepard, 2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2002 In the topsy turvy 1580s and 1590s as the episodic Anglo Spanish war became the greatest threat to English security since circa 1066 Marlowe rose up in the London theatres like some Phaeton of the entertainment industry taking war itself as a central subject of his art This book reads his plays especially Tamburlaine Edward II The Massacre at Paris and Doctor Faustus as part of a bright new conversation then taking place in London about the nature of state security and martial law the decorum of playing the soldier on stage the rhetoric of warfever and the necessity for draconian prescriptions about English manhood Those public conversations spilling out of Whitehall the church pulpits and the pubs took center stage during the few years the playwright worked in London The author argues that the Marlowe plays wrestle with the philosophical assumptions about the nature of war and the role and status of soldiers in English culture Professional Journal of the United States Army ,2007 Military Review ,2007 Child's Play Silken Laumann,2010-05-21 From one of Canada's most inspiring and gifted sports heroes an urgently needed guide to getting our kids active and healthy Like many of us Silken Laumann's fondest childhood memories are of play staying outside until that final call for dinner neighbourhood wide games of Capture the Flag and road hockey that went on for hours But as a parent Silken knows the world has changed We are afraid to let our children out of sight our streets don't feel safe neighbours don't know and rely on each other like they used to While we recognize the need for our kids to be active our fears along with our busy lives and the enormous societal pressure to simultaneously make athletes academics and artists out of our children have led us to schedule their every activity driving them to and from soccer practice piano lessons tutorials We have forgotten just how important unstructured play is for our children's development and well being It keeps kids healthy creative and active it teaches them valuable life skills and most importantly it lets our kids be kids worry free unfettered Child's Play is a call for action a guide to reconnecting with our kids and a blueprint for building safe supportive communities and healthy schools Above all it's a book of simple ideas for parents desperate for change Ebony ,1984-11 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Cracking Gilles Deleuze's Crystal Barry Nevin,2018-08-01 Reassessing the unique qualities of Renoir's influential visual style by interpreting his films through Gilles Deleuze's film philosophy and through previously unpublished production files Barry Nevin provides a fresh and accessible interdisciplinary perspective that illuminates both the consistency and diversity of Renoir's oeuvre The Capra Touch Matthew C. Gunter,2011-12-01 During World War II Academy Award winning director Frank Capra 1897-1991 made propaganda films for the U.S. Government such as Prelude to War The Nazis Strike The Battle of Britain War Comes to America and The Negro Soldier These entries in the Why We Fight documentary series have been largely neglected by Capra scholars This work analyzes the cinematic and thematic techniques Capra employed in these films linking them to the techniques and ideology of the director's popular mainstream narrative films including It Happened One Night Mr Deeds Goes to Town and Mr Smith Goes to Washington Also analyzed are the manners in which Frank Capra's war service affected his later films notably his 1946 masterpiece It's a Wonderful Life and how Capra's belief in individual liberty shaped both his films and his career under the oppressive Hollywood studio system

The Soldier's Legacy: Honor, Duty, and Sacrifice Pasquale De Marco,2025-04-28 In The Soldier's Legacy Honor Duty and Sacrifice we embark on a poignant journey to explore the profound impact of soldiers' service both on the battlefield and beyond Through a series of thought provoking chapters we delve into the experiences of soldiers from diverse backgrounds and eras uncovering the unwavering commitment resilience and sacrifice that define their legacy This book is a tribute to the men and women who have served their nations with unwavering dedication highlighting their extraordinary courage in the

The New Order of War, 2010-01-01 Far from heralding a time of unprecedented peace the end of actually existing communism served to usher in new conflicts new wars and new reasons for war That much goes without saying What is controversial however is how we might understand and respond to these new wars This book offers a new approach Its distinctive and multidisciplinary range of perspectives offering quite different views is based on the conviction that if we are to begin to get to grips with this central feature of our 21st Century lives we have to go beyond an unhelpful moralism on the one hand and a defeatist appeal to human nature on the other

themselves in relation to the majority society and how Jewish and national values are reconciled when the fate of a nation is at stake They also reveal a great deal about how rabbis guide their communities through the challenges of their times The sermons reproduced here were delivered by rabbis from across the Jewish spectrum and each is accompanied by a comprehensive introduction and detailed notes

Gender, Power, and Military Occupations Christine De Matos, Rowena Ward, 2012 Military occupations and interventions have a gendered impact on both those engaged in occupying and those whose lands have been occupied yet little has been published about this effect either historically or in contemporary times This collection redresses this neglect by examining and analyzing the impact of occupation on men and women both occupied and occupier in a variety of geographical spaces from Japan to the Philippines to Iraq The gendered perspectives offered are also intimately tied to analyses of power how power is enacted by the occupier how powerlessness is experienced by the occupied how power is negotiated shared compromised subverted reclaimed institutional power and contested power in post conflict societies This collection covers a variety of geographical and period contexts in the Asia Pacific and Middle East since 1945 offering the reader a comparative view across time and space of post WWII military occupations and interventions The term military occupation is interpreted broadly to include military interventions the presence of military bases and peacekeeping post conflict operations allowing space to demonstrate that the lines between each definition are blurred Including perspectives from established and emerging scholars aid workers and activists from around the world this volume incorporates voices from those conducting research on and those with direct experience of military occupations and interventions

Genocide in Gaza Ahmet Davutoglu, Richard Falk, 2025-05-01 The December 2023 issuance of a Declaration of Conscience and Concern of Global Intellectuals to Stop Gaza Genocide to leading civil society activists and former governmental and UN officials throughout the world recorded 127 invited signatories and over 1500 endorsers On this basis the Declaration's originators Ahmet Davutoglu and Richard Falk invited a select number of signatories to an emergency conference in London to lend their authority to a further expression of the international community's deepest concerns in light of the continuation of the genocidal assault on the peoples of Gaza This book brings together the most valuable of the presentations delivered by conference participants It provides a coherent perspective on the extreme human catastrophe that was exposed as it unfolded in real time arousing intense responses of outrage from the peoples of the world which failed to alter the shameless and shocking levels of active complicity on the part of several leading Western liberal democracies The latter constituted a cynical embrace of moral hypocrisy and double standards paralyzing the UN and ignoring the most flagrant violations of international law on Israel's part The book assesses the Israeli response to the Hamas attack of October 7 from the perspective of international law and morality as well as providing informed accounts of the inability of the UN to implement the demands of a permanent and unconditional ceasefire in Gaza It also provides accounts of the implementation of forced evacuation induced starvation and disease efforts calculated to destroy the civilian population in whole or in part Israel's defiance of the UN the ICJ Interim Order and international humanitarian law in the course of transparent violations of the Genocide Convention At a time when neither governments nor international institutions are demonstrating either the will or the capability to act in accord with the rule of law or the popular will of the majority of the peoples of the world who have demonstrated against the genocide in their millions these substantial essays give an overview of the extraordinary damage wrought and what can and should be done to protect Palestinian rights and construct a future that empowers Palestinians to give content to their right of self determination rather than victimized by yet another effort to impose a solution from without or enable Israel to control the day after developments when the violence stops African Security John Siko, Jonah Victor, 2020-03-19 The world's fastest growing continent demographically Africa displays nearly all the features of today's global security challenges armed conflict terrorism irregular migration organized crime great power competition public discontent and economic turbulence John Siko and Jonah Victor present their lessons from professional practice and pedagogical approach from the classroom in a concise guidebook that leads students and professionals through the most important issues dynamics challenges and considerations for analysing and planning responses to security developments in Africa This book provides issue by issue primers on the causes and consequences of Africa's security challenges that include how to anticipate security problems across current political and economic events how to analyse African security institutions and military capabilities how to understand historical trends across the African continent and appreciate unique variations among countries how to identify key drivers of future trends how to connect security analysis to policy planning Learning is supported through the following features Thematic chapters which are optimized to help the reader quickly connect to the key concepts and analytic frameworks within the field The most relevant historical case studies enabling students to engage in sophisticated analysis and discussion Connections and contrasts between the situations in North Africa and sub Saharan Africa which are traditionally studied separately Special sections on understanding race and ethnicity and advice on traveling in Africa Chapter end checklists of key questions to enable practical engagement with the topics covered Technology and the Logic of American Racism Sarah E. Chinn, 2000-09-13 In this book Sarah E Chinn pulls together what seems to be opposite discourses the information driven languages of law and medicine and the subjective logics of racism to examine how racial identity has been constructed in the United States over the past century She examines a range of primary social case studies such as the American Red Cross lamentable decision to segregate the blood of black and white donors during World War II and its ramifications for American culture and more recent examples that reveal the racist nature of criminology such as the recent trial of O J Simpson Among several key American literary texts she looks at Mark Twain's Pudd'nhead Wilson a novel whose plot turns on issues of racial identity and which was written at a time when scientific and popular interest in evidence of the body such as fingerprinting was at a peak Torkildsen's Sport and Leisure Management George Torkildsen,
