The Squatters' Movement in Europe Squatting Europe Collective, 2014-05-20 The Squatters Movement in Europe is the first definitive guide to squatting as an alternative to capitalism. It offers a unique insider's view on the movement, its ideals, actions, and ways of life. At a time of growing crisis in Europe with high unemployment, dwindling social housing, and declining living standards, squatting has become an increasingly popular option. The book is written by an activist scholar collective whose members have direct experience of squatting; many are still squatters today. There are contributions from the Netherlands, Spain, the USA, France, Italy, Germany, Switzerland, and the UK. In an age of austerity and precarity, this book shows what has been achieved by this resilient social movement, which holds lessons for policy makers, activists, and academics alike.

In Modern Bondage: Sex Trafficking in the Americas David Guinn, Elissa Steglich, 2021-10-25 In Modern Bondage: Sex Trafficking in the Americas presents the result of The International Human Rights Law Institute's recent trailblazing study. Based upon individual country reports from Belize, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, and Panama, the book also includes a regional overview highlighting the interplay and interrelationships between trafficking within an individual country and the larger Central American region. It identifies both existing problems in current efforts to confront trafficking and highlights the most successful efforts or best practices adopted by some of the countries. The report also includes recommendations on how to address the problem of sex trafficking. Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint.

Changing Women, Changing Nation Yajaira M. Padilla, 2012-06-14 Changing Women, Changing Nation explores the literary representations of women in Salvadoran and US Salvadoran narratives during the span of the last thirty years. This exploration covers Salvadoran texts produced during El Salvador's civil war (1980-1992) and the current postwar period, as well as US Salvadoran works of the last two decades that engage the topic of migration and second-generation ethnic incorporation into the United States. Rather than think of these two sets of texts as constituting separate literatures, Yajaira M. Padilla conceives of them as part of the same corpus, what she calls trans-Salvadoran narratives, works that dialogue with each other and draw attention to El Salvador's burgeoning transnational reality. Through depictions of women in trans-Salvadoran narratives, Padilla elucidates a story of female agency and nationhood that extends beyond El Salvador's national borders and imaginings.

Emilia Pardo Bazán: La Tribuna Graham Whittaker, 2017-07-31 A facing page translation of Emilia Pardo Bazán's classic novel.

La Tribuna: Translated with Commentary Emilia Pardo Bazán (condesa de), 2017 Emilia Pardo Bazán was born in the Galician town of A Coruña into a noble family who nurtured her lifelong thirst for knowledge. She is undoubtedly the most controversial, influential, and prolific Spanish female writer of the nineteenth century, publishing a vast number of essays, social commentaries, articles, reviews, poems, plays, novels, novellas, and short stories. Her third novel, La Tribuna, heralds a new age in Spanish literature, a naturalist work of fiction that examines the situation of contemporary women workers. The author's preparation for the novel involved reading and consulting contemporary pamphlets and newspapers as well as spending two months in a Galician tobacco factory observing and listening to conversations This method common in English writers like Dickens and frequently adopted in France by the masters of Realism was almost unprecedented in Spain Set against a background of turmoil and civil unrest La Tribuna reflects the author's interest in the position of women in Spanish society The working class heroine Amparo develops from a shapeless apolitical street urchin into a masterpiece of femininity a charismatic orator who becomes a tribune of the people At the same time however she allows herself to be seduced by a prosperous middle class youth whose promises prove to be just as empty as the revolutionary slogans in which she believes so fervently El Rodeo \(The Rodeo\) Lynn Stone,2013-03-01 Explains the history of the rodeo important rodeo people and different kinds of rodeos Lonely Planet Spanish Phrasebook & Dictionary Lonely Planet,2018-09-01 Lonely Planet Spanish Phrasebook all with your trusted travel companion With language tools in your back pocket you can truly get to the heart of wherever you go so begin your journey now Get More From Your Trip with Easy to Find Phrases for Every Travel Situation Feel at ease with essential tips on culture manners idioms and multiple meanings Order with confidence explain food allergies and try new foods with the menu decoder Save time and hassles with vital phrases at your fingertips Never get stuck for words with the 3500 word two way quick reference dictionary Be prepared for both common and emergency travel situations with practical phrases and terminology Meet friends with conversation starter phrases Get your message across with easy to use pronunciation guides Inside Lonely Planet Spanish Phrasebook great for language students and travellers looking to interact with locals and immerse themselves in local culture About Lonely Planet Since 1973 Lonely Planet has become the world's leading travel media company with guidebooks to every destination an award winning website mobile and digital travel products and a dedicated traveller community Lonely Planet covers must see spots but also enables curious travellers to get off beaten paths to understand more of the culture of the places in which they find themselves Bulletin ,1904 The Avowal of Difference Ben. Women Political Prisoners after the Spanish Civil War Ruth Fisher, 2020-11-24 At the end of the Spanish Civil War the Nationalist government instigated mass repression against anyone suspected of loyalty to the defeated Republican side Around 200 000 people were imprisoned for political crimes in the weeks and months following 1st April 1939 including thousands of women who were charged with offences ranging from directing the home front to supporting their loved ones engaged in combat Many women wrote and published texts about their experiences seeking to make their voices heard and to counteract the dehumanising master narrative of the right wing victors that had criminalised their existence The memoirs of Communist women such as Tomasa Cuevas and Juana Do a have heavily influenced our understanding of life in prison for women under franquismo while texts by non Communist women have largely been ignored This monograph offers a comparative study of the life writing of female political prisoners in Spain focusing on six texts in particular the two volumes of C rcel de mujeres by Tomasa Cuevas Desde la noche y la niebla by Juana Do a R quien por la libertad by ngeles Garc a Madrid Abajo las dictaduras by Josefa Garcia Segret and Aquello sucedi as by ngeles Malonda All the texts share common themes such as describing the hunger and repression that all political prisoners suffered However the ideologically driven narratives of Communist women often foreground representations of resistance at the expense of exploring the emotional and intellectual struggle for survival that many women political prisoners faced in the aftermath of the Spanish Civil War This study nuances our understanding of imprisoned women as individuals and as a collective analysing how women political prisoners sought recognition and justice in the face of a vindictive dictatorship It also explores the women s response to the spirit of convivencia during the transition to democracy which once again threatened to silence them

The Revaluation of Women's Work Sheila

Lewenhak,2013-11-05 This book provides a survey and analysis of the different ways in which women's work is valued throughout the world. It challenges the narrow definition of work as paid work as that excludes so many of women's activities. It looks at ways in which women's worth has been consistently undervalued in industrial as well as non industrial countries in socialist as well as free enterprise economies. These practices distort the national product of countries heavily dependent on women's labour but above all they are among the most obvious marks of the exploitation of women. Technological changes are already altering established female male divisions of labour. Transnational enterprises often located in Special Economic Zones are reducing differences between industrial and nonindustrial countries. Valuing women's work correctly whether unpaid in the home or underpaid outside it is part of the battle against discrimination and poverty. Men who do similar work also benefit. It is the crucial step towards the achievement of male female equality. The book will be particularly valuable for those concerned with the issues in trade unions women's groups international agencies and NGOs and for course in economics and social studies.
