Mongoose Anthony Haas, 2008-02 It was a conscious decision while reading Henry Miller's somewhat obscure book called The Time Of The Assassins and then getting into Rimbaud's Illuminations it was a decision to write from my unconscious and Hermitically as well It was a difficult time when I first started on these writings but I m glad I wrote it down because the past vanishes practically into the vast blue nowhere time is such a sneaky weasel Its been a heck of a ride Gradually though I become less introverted and the poems I think their content and form become more and more public almost a kind of journalism away from the freaky trapped scared and half nutshell crazed Also around the time I started writing these poems I was catching my first real and protracted study of philosophy in particular Nietzsche's The Birth of Tragedy And technically as well as the ideas astounded me really and it really felt great to be able to read and then write hoping to run parallel with philosophy and whatnot This then these precarious poems where walking the plank is for real is my attempt to climb out of my self the ole mind cage of lonesome fears the shadowland and enter in into the now of the implacable hub of no perspective but that of now If there is a message to these poems its probably just in the inherent fact that one exists lives delves under and to the very heart where mind and soul dance that eternity dance of one any how way The Dirty Realism Duo Michael Hemmingson, 2008-01-01 CHARLES The Publishers Weekly ,2005 and who BUKOWSKI RAYMOND CARVER Charles Bukowski and Raymond Carver were credited as the fathers of the Dirty Realism genre in the 1980s branching out from minimalism the stripping of fiction down to the least amount of words and a concentration on the subject s view of the object The characters are usually run of the mill every day people the lower and middle class worker the unemployed the alcoholic the beaten down by life In this experimental monograph in the vein of D H Lawrence's Studies in Contemporary American Fiction avante pop literary critic Michael Hemmingson examines these dirty works of Bukowski and Carver through the lens of late twentieth century American culture and the sociological observation of the self questioning the authority of the I in fiction and poetry and its relation to the eye s gaze of the words on a page Hemmingson offers close readings of selected texts deconstructing iconic works by Bukowski and Carver to point out the elements of dirty realism and mastery of the language of the common folk proving that these two writers are an institution in American literature MICHAEL HEMMINGSON has written over 25 books of literary western SF horror noir autobiography erotica narrative journalism gonzo journalism cultural anthropology critical theory critifiction and ethnography He lives and works in Southern California The Book Review Digest ,2005 American Book Publishing Record, 2003 (De)kata .2007 The Economist .2005 I Married the Icepick Killer Carol Muske-Dukes, 2014-06-10 A vibrant and insightful essay collection about life as a poet in Southern California Poetry and Hollywood may not seem compatible in anyone s book But acclaimed poet novelist and critic Carol Muske Dukes finds common ground for both in meditations on movie sets and metaphors on the big screen and the luminous focus of a haiku I Married the Icepick Killer offers the reader ways to
