behavior have radically affected the experience of different generations and the relationships between them The Routledge Handbook of Methodologies in Human Geography Sarah A. Lovell, Stephanie E. Coen, Mark W.

Rosenberg, 2022-10-18 The Routledge Handbook of Methodologies in Human Geography is the defining reference for academics and postgraduate students seeking an advanced understanding of the debates methodological developments and methods transforming research in human geography Divided into three sections Part I reviews how the methods of contemporary human geography reflect the changing intellectual history of human geography and events both within human geography and society in general In Part II authors critically appraise key methodological and theoretical challenges and opportunities that are shaping contemporary research in various parts of human geography Contemporary directions within the discipline are elaborated on by established and emerging researchers who are leading ontological debates and the adoption of innovative methods in geographic research In Part III authors explore cross cutting methodological challenges and prompt questions about the values and goals underpinning geographical research work such as Who are we engaging in our research Who is our research for What are our relationships with communities Contributors emphasize examples from their research and the research of others to reflect the fluid emotional and pragmatic realities of research This handbook captures key methodological developments and disciplinary influences emerging from the various sub disciplines of human geography

The Social Impact of Sport Ramón Spaaij, 2019-07-09 This book critically examines the ways in which sports contribute to or inhibit social well being the directions these changes take and the conditions necessary for sport to have beneficial outcomes The themes addressed in the book demonstrate the diversity and versatility of the social impacts sport can potentially achieve as well as the variable benefits of sport in different social contexts The contributions are focused around four major themes Sport development and social change intended and unanticipated consequences Empowerment and personal change through sport Sport participation social inclusion and social change The impact of sport in society historical and comparative perspectives The volume constitutes the first scholarly attempt to locate compare and conceptualize the social impact of sport in different local national and international contexts Through international comparison and empirically grounded case studies the book provides an important new departure in the study of the social meanings of sport in society linking themes and areas that have previously been studied merely separately from one another This book was previously published as a special issue of Sport in Society

Interdisciplinary Unsettlings of Place and Space Sarah Pinto, Shelley Hannigan, Bernadette Walker-Gibbs, Emma Charlton, 2019-04-25 This book brings together researchers from different fields traditions and perspectives to examine the ways in which place and space might be unsettle d Researchers from across the humanities and social sciences have been drawn to the study of place and space since the 1970s and the term unsettled has been an occasional but recurring presence in this body of scholarship Though it has been used to invoke a range of meanings from the dangerous to the liberating the term itself has rarely been at the centre of sustained examination This collection highlights the idea of the unsettled in the scholarly investigation of place and space The respective chapters offer a dialogue between a diverse and eclectic group of researchers crossing significant disciplinary and interdisciplinary boundaries in the process The purpose of the collection is to juxtapose a range of different approaches to and perspectives on the unsettling of place and space In doing so Interdisciplinary Unsettling of Place and Space makes an important contribution and offers new insights into how scholarship and research into different fields and practices may help us re envision place and space

Methodological Challenges and New Approaches to Research in International Development L. Australian Sociology David Holmes, Kate Hughes, Roberta Julian, 2014-09-01 Australian Sociology 4e provides a concise and current introduction to the field of Sociology through an analysis of Australian society In doing so it draws on a diverse range of perspectives as well as a myriad of topics that go to issues at the core of Australian social life Our ever changing society presents continuing challenges to sociological analysis This new edition of Australian Sociology sets out to document these many changes while retaining an organised analysis required of an introductory overview of Australian society The New Public Health Alan R. Petersen (Ph. D.), Deborah Lupton, 1996 Petersen and Lupton focus critically on the new public health assessing its implications for the concepts of self embodiment and citizenship They argue that the new public health is used as a source of moral regulation and for distinguishing between self and other They also explore the implications of modernist belief in the power of science and the ability of experts to solve problems through rational administrative means that underpin the strategies and rhetoric of the new public health Sustainable Family Farming and Yeoman Ideals Rena R. Henderson, 2021-12-30 Within the frame of family farming this book offers a longitudinal study of the Castra district in North West Tasmania from first European settlement to the end of the twentieth century It draws upon historical sources for yeomanry characteristics from Britain Canada the USA New Zealand and Australian mainland colonies to show how these characteristics were persistently supportive of family farming Surveying farming communities over several generations this book explores a range of topics including colonial surveying practices settler families motivation attributes and demographics the role of Methodism the ways children were inculcated into yeoman farming enterprises the role of women as companionate wives and the political participation of farmers in the public sphere The book also offers a new perspective of three commonly held myths of settlement failure the settlement of retired Anglo Indian military and civil officers in the 1870s the settlement of soldiers on small farms after the Great War and the claims that the ideal of yeoman family farming was anachronistic to capitalist commodity production The book draws from a wide selection of previously underused primary source materials including oral histories from current and past residents to provide a comprehensive overview of an important aspect of rural Australian history The book is a valuable contribution to Australian historiography and will be a useful resource for students and scholars of rural history social history environmental history colonialism and sustainable agriculture Sport and Social Mobility Ramón Spaaij, 2011-05 Can sport serve as a vehicle for social mobility of disadvantaged social groups How and to what extent are different forms of social capital created through sport participation Sport and Social Mobility Crossing Boundaries takes up these questions through a critical examination of the ways in which sport facilitates or inhibits upward social mobility Drawing on four case studies the book provides a rich sociological analysis of people's lived experiences of sport in diverse social cultural and political contexts ranging from sport for development programs in Brazil and the Netherlands to rural communities and the Somali diaspora in Australia The first international comparison of and critical reflection on the relationship between social mobility and participation in non professional sport this book will be essential reading for anyone interested in sport's potential for social inclusion Policing the Rural Crisis Russell Hogg, Kerry Carrington, 2006 There is a growing sense of crisis in rural ways of life which manifests itself in economic decline depopulation depleted environments and a crisis of rural identities Crime is one potent marker of crisis the more so as it spoils the image of healthy cohesive community The social reaction it elicits the policing of this other rural is also a guide to the dimensions of crisis The social sciences have witnessed a renewed international interest in the study of other rurals the neglected invisible or excluded aspects of country life This book brings a fresh approach to the study of crime that challenges the urban centric assumptions of much western criminology and sociology It explores rural crime and social reactions to it in relation to processes and patterns of community formation and change in rural Australia including the social economic cultural and political forces shaping the history structure and everyday life of rural communities Policing the Rural Crisis is based on five years of extensive original empirical research in rural and regional Australia It draws on ideas and debates in contemporary social theory across several disciplines making the analysis relevant to the study of crime and social change elsewhere
