and success Arts Methods for the Self-Representation of Undergraduate Students Miranda Matthews,2023-04-07 This timely book explores the transitional experiences of undergraduates in minority groups studying at university and how arts methods and practices can play an important role in facilitating these transitions Based on research from UK universities this volume is the first to draw together the experiences of educators in the humanities and social sciences who integrate sensory methodologies in taught curriculum in relation to arts educators who add extra curricular arts practice It offers an original contextualised analysis of how to enable university structures to adapt to complexity difference and diversity taking the view that arts practice forms meeting points for confident interconnection and spaces of self representation It outlines the novel concept of sensory transition in how arts practices can be used to address issues of inclusion diversity and self representation for minority groups Each chapter offers an in depth analysis of significant issues such as dimensions of race gender and class and the specificities of social and cultural group experiences as they occur in arts practice The book reflects on the decolonisation of university structures and curriculum and demonstrates how universities can support students and build spaces for self representation in academic courses Accessible and investigative this book is essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students in the field of higher education inclusion and arts methods It will also be of great interest to higher education staff interested in decolonisation diversity and university futures Computer Science and

 Drajeti, Kristian Adi Putra, 2022-11-29 These proceedings present a selection of papers from the ICTTE 2021 conference While face to face classroom instruction is brought back there are a lot of lessons learned from the COVID 19 pandemic that schools teacher training and education institutions and government have to take into account There is a need to reconsider what additional knowledge and skills pre service teachers and in service teachers need to be prepared for to anticipate such a similar unexpected situation in the future Additionally there is also a need to listen to in service teacher experiences during the emergency remote teaching and integrate the positive lessons that they have gained such as the use of technology into the current post pandemic face to face classroom instruction This proceeding is designed for teacher educators researchers in service teachers and pre service teachers in the field of language education math and science education and social science education who are interested in these topics Video Source Book Gale Group, 1999-10-28 A guide to programs currently understanding Many English language learners simply do not understand what they are reading whether it s a picture book a literature selection or a science textbook Juli Kendall and Outey Khuon believe that small group comprehension lessons have a key role to play in advancing students understanding of texts Making Sense provides answers to many common questions asked by teachers of English language learners How do we organize small group comprehension instruction How do we select books to teach strategies How do we know our kids are getting it and what do we do when they don t get it It is an easy to use practical resource for ELD ESL and ESOL pull out teachers and for push in teachers working in class to support English language learners The book s five main sections are geared to the stages of language proficiency and lessons are divided into younger and older students spanning kindergarten through grade 8 The authors outline fifty two lessons that teach students how to make connections ask questions visualize make mental images infer determine importance and synthesize Each lesson follows a four part teaching framework Start Up Connection helping students build background and use prior knowledge to connect to the lesson Give Information explicitly telling students what they are going to learn and why they are learning it and then teaching them Active Involvement often occurs during the teaching as students practice what they are learning while the teacher checks for understanding and monitors and adjusts instruction Off You Go opportunities for students to practice what they learned with peers or independently Making Sense also explores the stages of language proficiency through descriptions of ten English language learners of different ages A chart of student characteristics for each stage shows how students demonstrate understanding and outlines the implications for planning instruction This book will appeal to experienced teachers seeking to expand their repertoire of lessons as well as new teachers just beginning the adventure of teaching comprehension to English language learners ECRM2008-Proceedings
