Getting it Right in Reception Neil Farmer, 2016-07-14 Reception it is a funny old term rather like a waiting room a foyer or a gathering place before the main event The main event here being the start of Key Stage One and school life Reception has in many ways been seen as a holding pen a preparation for school readiness rather than a stage and age in its own right Neil Farmer draws upon his experience of working with and supporting schools and leaders up and down the country and abroad in many instances going right back to the basics and putting forward suggestions and strategies that will assist teachers in gaining an ownership of their classroom and a true understanding of their vital role as a facilitator mediator and coach It is not a one cap fits all solution but rather some practical tips that Reception teachers may decide to employ alter and make their own

Body Image in the Primary School Nicky Hutchinson, Chris Calland, 2019-10-23 80% of primary aged children have been on a diet 75% of 10 to 11 year olds would like to change their appearance Children as young as 6 are worrying about their shape and size Body image is an important aspect of children's self esteem and confidence Unfortunately many young children are suffering from anxieties about their appearance which has a harmful effect on their overall mental health and wellbeing This updated second edition of the award winning Body Image in the Primary School recognises these anxieties as a concern for younger children that needs to be addressed at an early age and examines some of the pressures that young people face Presenting a clear easy to use scheme of work to support emotional literacy and Personal Social Health and Economic Education PSHE throughout the primary school and into the first years of secondary school this new edition offers A practical evidence based curriculum for children aged 4-13 More than 60 lively varied and detailed lesson plans Additional lessons on gender social media and the selfie culture An overview of research on the links between body image academic achievement and emotional wellbeing The evidence based lessons in Body Image in the Primary School have been awarded the quality kitemark by the PSHE Association and highlighted by Ofsted as an example of excellent practice This book will be of significant interest to all teachers teaching assistants and practitioners working with primary aged children

100 Ideas for Early Years Practitioners: Supporting EAL Learners Marianne Sargent, 2016-05-19 There are more than one million children in UK schools who speak English as an additional language EAL and this number is continually rising Many early years practitioners are unsure about how best to support these children and need guidance to do this with confidence This book offers advice on how to welcome and provide for children with EAL and how to support their families taking into consideration their unique identities and culture and ensuring that these are preserved and appreciated in the setting With links to all areas of the curriculum and specific focus on language acquisition each idea is straightforward and can be easily adapted and developed to suit children s individual needs It is an essential guide for all practitioners in early years settings to raise your competence and confidence in providing for EAL learners Re-Imagining Writing: Interdisciplinary

Perspectives Phil Fitzsimmons,Johanna Pentikäinen,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 Across the globe the nature of writing in the twentifirst century is coming under increasing scrutiny as technology becomes an ever increasing component of everyday life and as measuring human output also takes hold in many disciplines This book offers an alternative to these twin developments providing instead many alternatives Coming from an international set of authors with different world views paradigms and praxes the common theme of writing is explored with deep enthusiasm interest in productivity and human capacity and that leads to a polyphonic and progressive inquiry to the subject matter Each author s initial contribution suggest that writing as an object of study needs reimagining be it connected to learning knowledge creation or artistic expression Writing is a deeply person centred process and its open transformative and multidimensional nature escaped definitions but can be understood through the metaphor of the gift 50 Fantastic

Ideas for Co-Regulation Kerry Murphy,2024-04-25 _____ The 50 Fantastic Ideas series is packed full of fun original skills based activities for Early Years practitioners to use with children aged 0 5 Each activity features step by step guidance a list of resources and a detailed explanation of the skills children will learn Creative simple and highly effective this series is a must have for every Early Years setting _____ Co regulation is the process when children develop the ability to manage emotions responses and impulses both in mind and body self regulation through connection with nurturing and reliable caregivers Children need to understand their own feelings and those of others and learn to regulate their behaviour accordingly One of the key ways children learn to self regulate is through co regulation With modelling support and nurture practitioners can learn to co regulate alongside the children so that they can develop those important skills This dip in and out guide will help practitioners provide the strongest foundations for children and to give them the best emotional start in life It provides meaningful and inclusive ideas for co regulation that can be embedded into everyday practice and be used for a broad range of emotional needs without being tokenistic These practical and easy to resource ideas are expertly formulated to support and develop children s self regulation skills
