

A blurry, artistic photograph of rain falling on a dark surface. The rain is captured as numerous white streaks and droplets against a dark, textured background. In the upper right, a bright, out-of-focus light source, possibly a window or a lamp, creates a strong glow and lens flare. The overall mood is serene and atmospheric.

Smell Of The Rain:

Your Nose Knows James Knox Millen,2000-10 WE HOLD That the real division and conflict in man s mind is between his primitive still paramount animal brain now as ab initio under smell dominance and his lately acquired super imposed consciousness under eye and ear control That there are no physical signs of degeneracy in the nose nosebrain apparatus It can and unceasingly does receive incredibly faint intero and exteroceptive smell messages for the most part subconsciously That the mystery of why a specific odor affects different persons differently and the same person differently at different times can be explained by the realization that man s animal brain is concerned solely with the organism s own condition welfare needs that it is continually advised thereof by exhaled air and blood borne messages and that no external odor stimulus is ever received except in fusion with and hence altered by these varying inward messages AND OUR HYPOTHESIS IS 1 Sleeping or awake man has a functioning sense of smell acted upon by combinations always of objective and subjective odors 2 Smell messages consciously tabooed are subconsciously accepted 3 The total of these acceptances past and present is the Subconscious And principally 4 The automatic actions of the body are smell responses Oneota Flow David S. designed such a species So says Seamus Butler of his famous fall goats the genetic strain his father inadvertently bred on this Settler family s farm They have an inborn fault when startled they keel over instantly in a dead faint But it is precisely this which makes them worth their weight in gold as a single fall goat placed in a flock of sheep becomes the only prey when an enemy strikes leaving the flock unharmed These pathetic goats with their mocking yellow eyes have given the Butlers wealth and influence in the Eastern Cape important factors in a time of political upheaval but even they are unprepared for the moment when oil is discovered right in the middle of Port Cecil the local harbour town The implications of this discovery bring the local black civic organisation s demand for a unified city council sharply into focus At the forefront of these aspirations is MaNdlovu Thandani larger than life and seemingly indestructible In opposition Seamus Butler himself a man whose dark moods and recurring depressions surge relentlessly through him And while history dictates that these two separate worlds will inevitably converge the families on both sides cannot remain unaffected threatening to fall apart beneath the weight of their place in history This is the backdrop to the story of the stud master of the farm known as Fata Morgana It is a story which carves a path through the lives of the people of this Eastern Cape district all of them inextricably involved inescapably trapped in their heritage during a time when beauty and cruelty violence and hope all become entangled
