Carceral Apartheid Brittany Friedman,2025-01-07 It is impossible to deny the impact of lies and white supremacy on the institutional conditions in US prisons There is a particular power dynamic of racist intent in the prison system that culminates in what Brittany Friedman terms carceral apartheid Prisons are a microcosm of how carceral apartheid operates as a larger governing strategy to decimate political targets and foster deceit disinformation and division in society Among many shocking discoveries Friedman shows that beginning in the 1950s California prison officials declared war on imprisoned Black people and sought to identify Black militants as a key problem creating a strategy for the management segregation and elimination of these individuals from the prison population that continues into the present day Carceral Apartheid delves into how the California Department of Corrections deployed various official clandestine and at times extralegal control techniques including officer alliances with imprisoned white supremacists to suppress Black political movements revealing the broader themes of deception empire corruption and white supremacy in American mass incarceration Drawing from original interviews with founders of Black political movements such as the Black Guerilla Family white supremacists and a swath of little known archival data Friedman uncovers how the US domestic war against imprisoned Black people models and perpetuates genocide imprisonment and torture abroad
