Guitar in America Jeffrey J. Noonan, 2009-10-08 The Guitar in America offers a history of the instrument from America's late Victorian period to the Jazz Age. The narrative traces America's BMG banjo, mandolin, and guitar community, a late nineteenth-century musical and commercial movement dedicated to introducing these instruments into America's elite musical establishments. Using surviving BMG magazines, the author details an almost unknown history of the guitar during the movement's heyday, tracing the guitar's transformation from a refined parlor instrument to a mainstay in jazz and popular music. In the process, he not only introduces musicians, including numerous women guitarists who led the movement, but also examines new techniques and instruments. Chapters consider the BMG movement's impact on jazz and popular music, the use of the guitar to promote attitudes towards women and minorities, and the challenges foreign guitarists such as Miguel Llobet and Andres Segovia presented to America's musicians. This volume opens a new chapter on the guitar in America, considering its cultivated past and documenting how banjoists and mandolinists aligned their instruments to it in an effort to raise social and cultural standing. At the same time, the book considers the BMG community within America's larger musical scene, examining its efforts as manifestations of this country's uneasy coupling of musical art and commerce. Music in America Frédéric Louis Ritter, 1900 Many of the earliest books, particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before, are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive. We are republishing these classic works in affordable, high-quality modern editions using the original text and artwork. America, 1911 Indian Dances of North America Reginald Laubin, Gladys Laubin, 1989 Descriptions of the dances, costumes, body decorations, and musical accompaniment supplement information on the cultural background of Indian dancing. Grassroots of America Phillip W. McMullin, 1972 An index to the American State Papers listing land grants and claims of early America between the years 1789-1837, listed by the individuals' names. The Musical Times and Singing-class Circular, 1890
