African American Culture Omari L. Dyson, Judson L. Jeffries Ph.D., Kevin L. Brooks, 2020-07-23 Covering everything from sports to art religion music and entrepreneurship this book documents the vast array of African American cultural expressions and discusses their impact on the culture of the United States According to the latest census data less than 13 percent of the U S population identifies as African American African Americans are still very much a minority group Yet African American cultural expression and strong influences from African American culture are common across mainstream American culture in music the arts and entertainment in education and religion in sports and in politics and business African American Culture An Encyclopedia of People Traditions and Customs covers virtually every aspect of African American cultural expression addressing subject matter that ranges from how African culture was preserved during slavery hundreds of years ago to the richness and complexity of African American culture in the post Obama era The most comprehensive reference work on African American culture to date the multivolume set covers such topics as black contributions to literature and the arts music and entertainment religion and professional sports It also provides coverage of less commonly addressed subjects such as African American fashion practices and beauty culture the development of jazz music across different eras and African American business Race-ing Art History Kymberly N. Pinder,2013-04-15 Race ing Art History is the first comprehensive anthology to place issues of racial representation squarely on the canvas Art produced by non Europeans has naturally been compared to Western art and its study which refers to a binary way of viewing both Each essay in this collection is a response to this vision to the distant mirror of looking at the other The Rise of the Australian Wool Kings James Mouat,1892

Seeing Beauty, Sensing Race in Transnational Indonesia L. Ayu Saraswati,2013-03-31 In Indonesia light skin color has been desirable throughout recorded history Seeing Beauty Sensing Race explores Indonesia s changing beauty ideals and traces them to a number of influences first to ninth century India and some of the oldest surviving Indonesian literary works then a thousand years later to the impact of Dutch colonialism and the wartime occupation of Japan and finally in the post colonial period to the popularity of American culture The book shows how the transnational circulation of people images and ideas have shaped and shifted discourses and hierarchies of race gender skin color and beauty in Indonesia The author employs affect theories and feminist cultural studies as a lens through which to analyze a vast range of materials including the Old Javanese epic poem Ramayana archival materials magazine advertisements commercial products and numerous interviews with Indonesian women The book offers a rich repertoire of analytical and theoretical tools that allow readers to rethink issues of race and gender in a global context and understand how feelings and emotions Western constructs as well as Indian Javanese and Indonesian notions such as rasa and malu contribute to and are constitutive of transnational and gendered processes of racialization Saraswati argues that it is how emotions come to be attached to certain objects and how they circulate that shape the emotionscape of white beauty in Indonesia Her ground breaking work is a nuanced theoretical exploration of the ways in which representations of beauty and the emotions they embody travel geographically and help shape attitudes and beliefs toward race and gender in a transnational world What Black Women Really Think Nneka

Filipinos in Canada Roland Sintos Coloma, Bonnie McElhinny, Ethel Tungohan, John Paul Catungal, Lisa M. Davidson, 2012-09-11 The Philippines became Canada's largest source of short and long term migrants in 2010 surpassing China and India both of which are more than ten times larger The fourth largest racialized minority group in the country the Filipino community is frequently understood by such figures as the victimized nanny the selfless nurse and the gangster youth On one hand these narratives concentrate attention in narrow and stereotypical ways on critical issues On the other they render other problems facing Filipino communities invisible This landmark book the first wide ranging edited collection on Filipinos in Canada explores gender migration and labour youth spaces and subjectivities representation and community resistance to certain representations Looking at these from the vantage points of anthropology cultural studies education geography history information science literature political science sociology and women and gender studies Filipinos in Canada provides a strong foundation for future work in this area

Shedding Light on Indoor Tanning Carolyn J. Heckman, Sharon L. Manne, 2011-09-15 Since the industrialization and urbanization of the Western workforce tanned skin has been perceived increasingly as attractive and fashionable for naturally light skinned individuals However in addition to causing tanning photo aging and other health effects ultraviolet radiation UV is a well known carcinogen Despite wide spread awareness of UV risks tanning has become increasingly popular in several Western countries including the USA While millions of individuals tan indoors each day relatively little is known about this phenomenon This book fills that gap by providing an overview of indoor tanning reasons for its popularity its risks including skin cancers and the public health context surrounding the behavior We have invited some of the preeminent experts in the field to summarize the existing scientific literature for each of the chapters Shedding Light on Indoor Tanning is an up to date and comprehensive book that provides a unique and essential overview of the most significant current issues related to indoor tanning for scientists educators students clinicians and the general public interested in dermatology aesthetic trends skin care and skin cancer
