The Legacy of Slavery in Coastal Kenya Herman Ogoti Kiriama,2022-10-26 To either achieve or resist domination some postcolonial and post slavery societies appropriate and contest the current memories on slavery This occurs more often where the sites of slavery are tourist attractions that positively empower the communities through economic benefits resulting in an emergence of new memories of the past and a constant construction and reconstruction of identity In The Legacy of Slavery in Coastal Kenya Memory Identity and Heritage Herman Ogoti Kiriama examines how two communities in coastal Kenya one whose identity is contested by the community members and another one who are seeking recognition have tried to remember their past and the role that tourism has played in the process of remembering and or forgetting Kiriama argues that heritage memory and identity are fluid and individuals can claim several identities depending on their socio politico economic contexts

Britain and Slavery in East Africa Moses D. E. Nwulia,1975 This text reviews documents to evaluate Britain's claim that it had a prominent role in the extinction of slavery and the slave trade in East Africa It demonstrates that the moral imperative for an abolitionist policy was often subordinated in favour of material wealth and imperial strength Modern Slavery

Siddharth Kara,2017-10-10 Siddharth Kara is a tireless chronicler of the human cost of slavery around the world He has documented the dark realities of modern slavery in order to reveal the degrading and dehumanizing systems that strip people of their dignity for the sake of profit and to link the suffering of the enslaved to the day to day lives of consumers in the West In Modern Slavery Kara draws on his many years of expertise to demonstrate the astonishing scope of slavery and offer a concrete path toward its abolition From labor trafficking in the U S agricultural sector to sex trafficking in Nigeria to debt bondage in the Southeast Asian construction sector to forced labor in the Thai seafood industry Kara depicts the myriad faces and forms of slavery providing a comprehensive grounding in the realities of modern day servitude Drawing on sixteen years of field research in more than fifty countries around the globe including revelatory interviews with both the enslaved and their oppressors Kara sets out the key manifestations of modern slavery and how it is embedded in global supply chains Slavery offers immense profits at minimal risk through the exploitation of vulnerable subclasses whose brutalization is tacitly accepted by the current global economic order Kara has developed a business and economic analysis of slavery based on metrics and data that attest to the enormous scale and functioning of these systems of exploitation Beyond this data driven approach Modern Slavery unflinchingly portrays the torments endured by the powerless This searing expos documents one of humanity's greatest wrongs and lays out the framework for a comprehensive plan to eradicate it The African Heritage of

Latinx and Caribbean Literature Sarah M. Quesada,2022-08-04 The African Heritage of Latinx and Caribbean Literature unearths a buried African archive within widely read Latinx writers of the last fifty years It challenges dominant narratives in World Literature and transatlantic studies that ignore Africa's impact in broader Latin American culture Sarah Quesada argues that these canonical works evoke textual memorials of African memory She shows how the African Atlantic haunts modern Latinx and Caribbean writing and examines the disavowal or distortion of the African subject in the constructions of national racial sexual and spiritual Latinx identity Quesada shows how themes such as the 19th century scramble for Africa the decolonizing wars Black internationalism and the neoliberal turn are embedded in key narratives Drawing from multilingual archives about West and Central Africa she examines how the legacies of colonial French Iberian British and U S Imperialisms have impacted on the relationships between African and Latinx identities This is the first book length project to address the African colonial and imperial inheritance of Latinx literature Accounts and Papers of the House of
