ideological analyses Jeremy Foster examines the role of landscape in forming the cultural iconographies and spatialities that shaped the imaginary geography of emerging nationhood Looking in particular at the years following the British victory in the second Boer War from 1902 to 1930 Foster discusses the influence of painting writing architecture and photography on the construction of a shared romanticized landscape subjectivity that was perceived as inseparable from being South African and thus helped forge the imagined community of white South Africa In its innovative approach to South Africa s history Washed with Sun breaks important new ground combining the persuasive theory of cultural geography with the material specificity of landscape history

Women and War Bernard A. Cook, 2006-05-19 In this unique encyclopedia 120 leading scholars from around the world provide comprehensive treatment of the role of women in war from the first written history to the present This authoritative encyclopedia presents the work of leading scholars from all over the world to give the first detailed coverage of the role of women in wars throughout history Histories of war are typically histories of men great leaders and heroic fighters Yet the roles of women often receive only limited coverage Except for such notables as Joan of Arc traditional histories give short shrift to women as leaders and fighters Similarly the direct victimization particularly sexual abuse as a weapon of terror and domination and cultural dislocations women suffer in war float as background without detailed coverage This work represents a first devoted in its entirety to thorough examination of all aspects of women in war For the first time readers have a single source for information on the scope of women s role in war and war s effects on them
