economic meltdown the television industry faced growing pressure stemming from new program distribution and viewing methods increasingly fragmented audiences shifts in methods of advertising and regulatory changes To cut through the clutter of television content to appeal to elusive viewers television programming reimagined some of the traditional representations of the American Dream and continued to bolster others Exploring shows on different platforms from legacy networks to Netflix Selznick takes a deep dive into representations of the American Dream on television Each chapter of this book focuses on a particular strategy mobilized in the second decade of the new century to speak to audiences about their expectations for and concerns about the Dream Bringing together research on industrial practices with an examination of sociocultural context TV's American Dream demonstrates how interconnected forces give rise to the television programs that reinforce and redefine audiences ideas about the world in which they live Complete Poems Edgar Allan Poe, 2000

Containing more than three hundred poems including nearly a hundred previously unpublished works this unique collection showcases the intellectual range of Claude McKay 1889-1948 the Jamaican born poet and novelist whose life and work were marked by restless travel and steadfast social protest McKay's first poems were composed in rural Jamaican creole and launched his lifelong commitment to representing everyday black culture from the bottom up Migrating to New York he reinvigorated the English sonnet and helped spark the Harlem Renaissance with poems such as If We Must Die After coming under scrutiny for his communism he traveled throughout Europe and North Africa for twelve years and returned to Harlem in 1934 having denounced Stalin's Soviet Union By then McKay's pristine violent sonnets were giving way to confessional lyrics informed by his newfound Catholicism McKay's verse eludes easy definition yet this complete anthology vividly introduced and carefully annotated by William J Maxwell acquaints readers with the full transnational evolution of a major voice in twentieth century poetry American Poland-China Record American Poland-China Record Association, 1905
