Soldiers Bride:

Entangling Alliances Susan Zeiger, 2010-03-01 Throughout the twentieth century American male soldiers returned home from wars with foreign born wives in tow often from allied but at times from enemy nations resulting in a new official category of immigrant the allied war bride These brides began to appear en masse after World War I peaked after World War II and persisted through the Korean and Vietnam Wars GIs also met and married former enemy women under conditions of postwar occupation although at times the US government banned such unions In this comprehensive complex history of war brides in 20th century American history Susan Zeiger uses relationships between American male soldiers and foreign women as a lens to view larger issues of sexuality race and gender in United States foreign relations Entangling Alliances draws on a rich array of sources to trace how war and postwar anxieties about power and national identity have long been projected onto war brides and how these anxieties translate into public policies particularly immigration

Black Soldiers in Jim Crow Texas, 1899-1917 Garna L. Christian, 1995 Chronicles the experiences of African American soldiers serving in the United States Army in racially segregated Texas from 1899 to 1914

Koreatowns Jinwon Kim, Soo Mee Kim, Stephen Cho Suh, 2020-06-30 This collection defines Koreatowns as spatial configurations that concentrate elements of Korea demographically economically politically and culturally The contributors provide exploratory accounts and critical evaluations of Koreatowns in different countries throughout the world Ranging from familiar settings such as Los Angeles and New York City to more unfamiliar locales such as Singapore Beijing Mexico U S Mexico borderlands and the American Midwest this collection not only examines the social characteristics and contours of these spaces but also the types of discourses and symbols that they exude

Asian American Studies Now Jean Yu-Wen Shen Wu, Thomas Chen, 2010-03-08 Asian American Studies Now truly represents the enormous changes occurring in Asian American communities and the world changes that require a reconsideration of how the interdisciplinary field of Asian American studies is defined and taught This comprehensive anthology arranged in four parts and featuring a stellar group of contributors summarizes and defines the current shape of this rapidly changing field addressing topics such as transnationalism U S imperialism multiracial identity racism immigration citizenship social justice and pedagogy Jean Yu wen Shen Wu and Thomas C Chen have selected essays for the significance of their contribution to the field and their clarity brevity and accessibility to readers with little to no prior knowledge of Asian American studies Featuring both reprints of seminal articles and groundbreaking texts as well as bold new scholarship Asian American Studies Now addresses the new circumstances new communities and new concerns that are reconstituting Asian America

Our Army, 1938

Women, Families and the British Army, 1700-1880 Vol 2 Jennine Hurl-Eamon, Lynn MacKay, 2020-03-10 This series concentrates on women and the soldiers in the ranks whose lives they shared assembling a wide body of evidence of their romantic entanglements and domestic concerns The new military history of recent decades has demanded a broadening of the source base beyond elite accounts or those that concentrate solely on battlefield experiences Armies did not operate in isolation and men's family ties influenced the course of events in a variety of ways Campfollowing women and children occupied a liminal space in campaign life Those who travelled on the strength of the army received rations in return for providing services such as laundry and nursing but they could also be grouped with prostitutes and condemned as a burden by officers Parents wives and offspring left behind at home remained in soldiers thoughts despite an army culture aimed at replacing kin with regimental ties Soldiers families suffering both on the march and back in Britain attracted public attention at key points in this period as well This series provides for the first time in one place a wide body of texts relating to common soldiers personal lives the women with whom they became involved their children and the families who cared for them It brings hitherto unpublished material into print for the first time and resurrects accounts that have not been in wide circulation since the nineteenth century The collection combines the observations of officers government officials and others with memoirs and letters from men in the ranks and from the women themselves It draws extensively on press accounts especially in the nineteenth century It also demonstrates the value of using literary depictions alongside the letters diaries memoirs and war office papers that form the traditional source base of military historians This second volume covers the period during the French Revolutionary and Napoleonic War era

Beyond the Shadow of Camptown Ji-Yeon Yuh, 2004-04 Through moving oral histories Ji Yeon Yuh tells an important at times heartbreaking story of Korean military brides She takes us beyond the stereotypes and reveals their roles within their families communities and Korean immigration to the U S

The Soldier's Bride Rachelle J. Christensen, 2016-03-15 As WWII ration cards and battle scars become commonplace across America it seems to Evelyn that even love is rationed out When she finds a message from her late husband tucked inside a music box Jim's words have the power to change her life Don't die with me Words written out of love long lost but never forgotten Grief stricken Evelyn is unsure of how to honor his request but she finds the courage to keep on living Jim's note urges her to give the music box away to unlock the secret within and although it breaks her heart again Evelyn trades the music box for a cradle to hold her infant son Thus begins the decades long journey of the music box mending broken hearts reuniting lost loves and giving people the courage to heal themselves along the way This romance crosses battlefields and time as the music box touches the lives of two soldiers a broken father a crippled child a struggling farmer and a woman once called the soldier's bride

Nouveau-riche Nationalism and Multiculturalism in Korea Gil-Soo Han,2015-09-07 The unprecedented economic success of South Korea since the 1990s has led in turn to a large increase in the number of immigrants and foreign workers in Korean industries This book describes and explains the experiences of discrimination and racism that foreigners and new Koreans have faced in a multicultural South Korea It looks at how society has treated the foreigners and what their experiences have been given that common discourse about race in Korea surrounds issues of Korean heterogeneity and pure blood nationalism Starting with critiques of Korean scholarship and policy framework on multiculturalism this book argues for the need to revisit the most fundamental aspect of multiculturalism the host population s ability to respect new comers rather than discriminate against them The author employs a critical realist understanding of racism and attempts to identify long lasting institutional factors which make Korean society less than welcoming new or temporary Koreans A large number of new reportages are identified and systematically analysed based on the principles of grounded theory method The findings show that nouveau riche nationalism and pure blood nationalism are widely practised when Koreans deal with foreigners As a newly industrialised and highly successful nation Korean society is still in transition and treats foreigners according to economic standard of their countries of origin As one of the very first books in English about foreigners experiences of Korean nationalism multiculturalism and discrimination it will be of great interest to students and scholars of Sociology Ethnic studies Asian studies Korean studies Media studies and Cultural studies Presbyterian Banner ,1907 20/21 20-YEARS OF WAR FROM MY EYES Victoria Gomez,2022-01-14 Victoria Gomez is a Filipina American military brat born in Fayetteville North Carolina She s the proud wife of a soldier and mother of three bright and amazing young men Victoria has a multi faceted resume U S Army veteran Pentagon policy writer fitness instructor substitute teacher mental health therapist Department of the Army equipment distribution analyst NCAA recruiting compliance specialist unit volunteer team mom coach and university enrollment counselor She s an avid journal keeper lover of languages and cultures car karaoke singer selfie taker work outaholic and traveler She enjoys writing whenever she can mostly in the early hours when the world is asleep or in the carpool line since time is typically constrained by work life balance She s often seen watching and listening writing in her journal taking notes in her car at a football game or in a restaurant She loves deeper and laughs louder than most and seeks every opportunity to make the ordinary extraordinary She loves the beach good food football and her family She calls the world home but now parks her gypsy van in Leawood Finding Liberty Michelle D. King,2024-10-22 In 2018 Michelle King encountered a profound spiritual event that transformed her life revealing to her the real world of spiritual warfare Seeking help she turned to her childhood pastor family friends and neighbors but no one truly understood what she had experienced Instead she faced further torment from misguided ministers whose actions were to expose her and broadcast videos of her agonized deliverance to millions which added more suffering Having walked her road to Damascus Michelle discovered a powerful truth the strength to overcome darkness was within her all along the anointing of the Holy Spirit Once she embraced the Divine power and authority over the enemy that Jesus Christ had already given her she experienced true deliverance Now Michelle has dedicated her life to freeing others from oppression Through her prayers the laying on of hands and the use of anointed oil she has ministered healing and deliverance to hundreds of thousands from spiritual bondage This book is her remarkable story of faith and resilience paired with a collection of her powerful deliverance prayers offering hope and healing to those in need The Romance of Alexander and Roxana Marshall Monroe Kirkman,1909 Journal of the Royal United Service Institution ,1904 Members of the Regiment Michele Nancy,2000-04-30 Many extraordinary women traveled west with their Army officer husbands between 1865 and 1890 and discovered a world that was completely controlled by the United States Army The Army as a public institution colored virtually every aspect of their domestic lives Army directives customs and traditions imposed social obligations on these women and the world of the frontier Army garrison continually challenged their sense of what it meant to be true women Remarkably they flourished and established a defined role for themselves that went beyond the conventional definition of true womanhood The shared values loyalties and patriotism within the institutional environment of the frontier garrison transcended gender As distinctly masculine as the Army garrison was perceived to be the officers wives shared with their comrades in arms an unequivocal commitment to the Regiment Because of their presence the frontier garrison became a much different place to live as they subtly and slowly changed the very nature of the institution through their efforts to bring some notion of proper society to these rugged circumstances Unlike most studies which focus only on farm and frontier women this volume details the experiences of the women who viewed the world from within garrison walls

Sources of Irish Traditional Music c. 1600-1855 Aloys Fleischman, 2016-12-05 First Published in 1998 Irish traditional music is one of the richest treasuries of folk music in the world Being an oral tradition much of it has already been lost and what has been recorded is only partially available in isolated collections Until now no composite picture has yet been presented showing its remarkable range and diversity over four centuries This volume covers Irish materials in general collections up to 1800 and in Irish collections up to and including Petrie s Ancient Music of Ireland 1855 The purposes of the project are to identify Irish dance tunes and songs to present the scholar with a mass of material showing the evolution of the Irish vocal and instrumental folk style period by period from the earliest recorded tune up to the middle of the last century to put into circulation many of the splendid airs which were lost but have now been located Some 6 000 songs and dance tunes are presented also including Scottish and English tunes Included are Scottish tunes that were used by 18th century Irish poets for their verses and both English and Scottish tunes that are still current among Irish traditional musicians Tunes of present day currency which do not seem to be included may still be located by comparing their first 12 notes in the thematic index at the end of the volume To make the vast array of material readily available an index allows readers to locate a tune by its melodic incipit by any of its titles or by the first line of its text Unfortunately the vast majority of Irish songs noted up to the end of the last century lack texts since the collectors were ignorant of the Irish language But almost every other facet is covered provenance tonality structure and variants
