Solstice The Art Of Roy Henry Vickers:

Solstice Roy Henry Vickers, 1988 Solstice offers a comprehensive look at Vicker's art. It chronologically presents his work beginning with some of his more traditional Indian pieces and moving to his most recent Victoria Series. It is a celebration of the line and colour, his graphic style and writing talent. Jacket Excluded Ancestors, Inventible Traditions Richard Handler, 2000-11-16 History making can be used both to bolster and to contest the legitimacy of established institutions and canons. Excluded Ancestors, Inventible Traditions seeks to widen the anthropological past and in doing so to invigorate contemporary anthropological practice. In the past decade anthropologists have become increasingly aware of the ways in which participation in professional anthropology has depended and continues to depend on categorical boundaries of race, class, gender, citizenship, institutional and disciplinary affiliation and English language proficiency. Historians of anthropology play a crucial role interrogating such boundaries as they do; they make newly available the work of anthropologists who have been ignored. Excluded Ancestors, Inventible Traditions focuses on little known scholars who contributed to the anthropological work of their time, such as John William Jackson, the members of the Hampton Folk Lore Society, Charlotte Gower Chapman and Lucie Varga. In addition, essays on Marius Barbeau and Sol Tax present figures who were centrally located in the anthropologies of their day. A final essay analyzes notions of the canon and considers the place of a classic ethnographic area, highland New Guinea, in anthropological canon formation. Canadian Who's Who 2008 Elizabeth Lumley, 2008-01-05 Now in its ninety eighth year of publication, this standard Canadian reference source contains the most comprehensive and authoritative biographical information on notable living Canadians. Those listed are carefully selected because of the positions they hold in Canadian society or because of the contribution they have made to life in Canada. Included are outstanding Canadians from all walks of life: politics, media, academia, business, sports and the arts from every area of human activity. Each entry details birth date and place, education, family, career history, memberships, creative works, honours and awards, and full addresses. Indispensable to researchers, students, media, business, government and schools. Canadian Who's Who is an invaluable source of general knowledge.
