Sylvas, Sr., 2006-05-01 Evelyn expounds the infallible Word and shows you that God still speaks to His people and operates in their lives today She focuses on the importance of hearing and knowing God's Word She shows you how the Word of God can transform your life God's Word can teach you and give you guidance as you move in God's plan to reach and fulfill your destiny Evelyn wants to encourage and enlighten the Body of Christ by sharing some of her real life experiences She believes her testimonies will help others press forward and continue on their Christian journey Alpha and Omega still speaks Sometimes He speaks silently yet loudly Read for yourself and see how God Is Speaking, Are You Listening? LYNNIE LANG, 2013-11-19 It all began when I finally desired quiet time in God's presence He being my Lord and Savior gave me a need to hear encouragement and guidance from Him Knowing I belong to my God Jesus died for my sins and I am filled with His Spirit gave me peace and confidence but I felt there was more I needed I longed to hear from Him Was this really possible How would I know it was Him I would enter my prayer time as usual with quiet meditation praise and worship from my heart and lips I'd then pick up my prayer journal for personal prayers petitions and intercession for others In my spirit I would at times receive words of affirmation during my prayer time then when finished be guided to pick up my pen and begin to write I not only realized that God was giving me these words to write and encourage me with but each one was always one page long After almost a year I began to transfer them to my computer As I did I was also given a title and a Scripture to go with each one All I knew was this ability was definitely God given to me for His purpose Soon I was realizing it wasn't all for me I was prompted to share them on occasion with others This began a list of folks who wanted to receive them on a regular basis The list continued to grow and God continued to encourage me through others to write more as He led me What I thought was God speaking to me only in reality He is able to speak to others through a devotional simple folk like me put down on paper I pray they will bless and encourage all who read them as they have been for me May this book always be a reminder to us that God is speaking are you listening Speaking of God Jerry Camery-Hoggatt, 2006-01-01 Responding to the recent call for a closer interaction between biblical text and sermon Speaking of God bridges the gap by describing the rhetorical factors of language in terms that make sense to the beginning or experienced exegete The result is an instructive and compelling invitation to read and preach the biblical text in a fresh thought provoking way the book ought to be required reading in every seminary homiletics class Charles W Hedrick Southwest Missouri State University The God who Speaks Ben Campbell Johnson, 2004 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable As Christians we believe that God speaks that God has spoken to people down through the centuries and still speaks to us today But just how does God speak to us Has his speech changed over time And how do we hear the voice of God In this insightful book Ben Campbell Johnson explores the subject of divine speech highlighting its importance to faith and leading Christian believers into the practice of listening for God's voice in daily life Johnson first explores the biblical foundations of divine communication tracing the ways that God has spoken to humankind from the calling of Abraham to the appearance of Jesus to the continuing work of the Spirit in the early church He then gleans important lessons about God's language from a wide range of Christian figures throughout history Polycarp Julian of Norwich Teresa of Avila Henri Nouwen and others As this historical record shows God communicates with us in a variety of ways In exploring these different modes of God's Speech Johnson deftly guides readers into the practice of intensive listening a way of posing issues to God and discerning his response Numerous anecdotes illuminate Johnson's discussion and each chapter ends with questions for reflection and discussion as well as suggestions for journaling Johnson concludes the book by recounting a number of personal experiences that vividly illustrate the value of learning to listen to God's voice At a time when many Christians hunger for a more personal meaningful connection with God this book shows readers how to discern divine language and forge a closer richer relationship with the God who speaks

Speaking of God Robert D. Cornwall, 2023-01-30 Theology is a complex subject with many subdisciplines and is known for thick volumes with dense prose. This book bucks that trend but hitting the basics briefly but carefully. In this 50th volume of the Topical Line Drives series, theologian and church historian Dr Robert D Cornwall provides a clear introduction to the basics. His approach is not to give you a set of beliefs about God but rather to provide you with an introductory foundation to the way Christians talk about God. Key concepts such as omnipotence, impassibility, transcendence, immanence, and yes love along with many others. The content is brief but carefully designed as a launching pad for further study. Read this book in order to make all your other theological reading more profitable. It will keep you from missing out because some of the basics were passed over or were obscured by extensive discussion. Besides individual reading, this volume is useful as an introductory reading in theology courses or for small groups in churches who would like to better understand their other curricula and more profitably discuss their ideas about God.

Speaking With God's Voice Louis A. Miraglia, 2016-12-17 The world today groans under the weight of many crushing problems but it is not intellectuals, presidents, or political parties who have the solutions. The rescue agents are born-again believers who fall under the great commission and that is you. This command for you to go into the whole world is not given by One who would leave you an orphan. God will equip you but you must do it. His way. Once you are a believer, God appoints you to two roles immediately. One as the receiver of God's word, one as the deliverer of God's word. Many faithful men and women have little problem understanding the first role. They see themselves as student learners who must grow in God's word and get enlightenment by the Holy Spirit. Many faithfully fulfill the biblical prerequisites of prayer and preparation and they become quite good at understanding the scriptures. Over the years, the Holy Spirit guides them into deeper and deeper insights into God's word. It is as they move into the role of deliverer of God's word that they have problems. Many people will shut them out; the delivery has failed to adopt a biblically required role change. To be effective in this new role, God's messengers must speak with God's Voice. This means they must speak authoritatively and prophetically. These biblical prerequisites have been very much misunderstood and abandoned, leaving the message from God's word a mere man-made endeavor. God may bless this type of message but the only way to guarantee God's anointing is to deliver it His way with His voice. This book explains in detail how these scriptural requirements are put into effect. Remember, the power of the Holy Spirit is available to ALL believers but it is not automatic. A dear evangelical preacher of more than thirty years who pastors a church on the New York/Pennsylvania border read this book and made the following comment: I would highly recommend this book as required reading for every minister and ministerial student. It is one of the most practical cries for and description of anointed preaching that I have read. For too long the church has tried to dazzle people with new music, new technologies, and methods and missed the high calling of preaching the Word under the power of the Holy Spirit. Thanks Louie for your inspiring words.
