Spectral America:

Spectral America Jeffrey Andrew Weinstock, 2004 From essays about the Salem witch trials to literary uses of ghosts by Twain Wharton and Bierce to the cinematic blockbuster The Sixth Sense this book is the first to survey the importance of ghosts and hauntings in American culture across time From the Puritans conviction that a thousand preternatural beings appear every day before our eyes to today's resurgence of spirits in fiction and film the culture of the United States has been obsessed with ghosts In each generation these phantoms in popular culture reflect human anxieties about religion science politics and social issues Spectral America asserts that ghosts whether in oral tradition literature or such modern forms as cinema have always been constructions embedded in specific historical contexts and invoked for explicit purposes often political in nature The essays address the role of spectral evidence during the Salem witch trials the Puritan belief in good spirits the convergence of American Spiritualism and technological development in the nineteenth century the use of the supernatural as a tool of political critique in twentieth century magic realism and the ghosting of persons living with AIDS They also discuss ghostly themes in the work of Ambrose Bierce Edith Wharton Gloria Naylor and Stephen King The Spectralities Reader Maria del Pilar Blanco, Esther Peeren, 2013-08-29 Ghosts spirits and specters have played important roles in narratives throughout history and across nations and cultures A watershed moment for this area of study was the publication of Derrida's Specters of Marx in 1993 marking the inauguration of a spectral turn in cultural criticism Gathering together the most compelling texts of the past twenty years the editors transform the field of spectral studies with this first ever reader employing the ghost as an analytical and methodological tool The Spectralities Reader takes ghosts and haunting on their own terms as wide ranging phenomena that are not conscripted to a single aesthetic genre or style Divided into six thematically discreet sections the reader covers issues of philosophy politics media spatiality subject formation gender race and sexuality and historiography It anthologizes the previously published work of theoretical heavyweights from different disciplinary and cultural backgrounds such as Jacques Derrida Gayatri Spivak and Giorgio Agamben alongside work by literary and cultural historians such as Jeffrey Sconce and Roger Luckhurst Antipodean America Paul Giles, 2013-12-11 Although North America and Australasia occupy opposite ends of the earth they have never been that far from each other conceptually The United States and Australia both began as British colonies and mutual entanglements continue today when contemporary cultures of globalization have brought them more closely into juxtaposition Taking this transpacific kinship as his focus Paul Giles presents a sweeping study that spans two continents and over three hundred years of literary history to consider the impact of Australia and New Zealand on the formation of U S literature Early American writers such as Benjamin Franklin Thomas Jefferson Joel Barlow and Charles Brockden Brown found the idea of antipodes to be a creative resource but also an alarming reminder of Great Britain's increasing sway in the Pacific The southern seas served as inspiration for narratives by Washington Irving Edgar Allan Poe and Herman Melville For African Americans such as Harriet

Jacobs Australia represented a haven from slavery during the gold rush era while for E D E N Southworth its convict legacy offered an alternative perspective on the British class system In the 1890s Henry Adams and Mark Twain both came to Australasia to address questions of imperial rivalry and aesthetic topsy turvyness The second half of this study considers how Australia s political unification through Federation in 1901 significantly altered its relationship to the United States New modes of transport and communication drew American visitors including novelist Jack London At the same time Americans associated Australia and New Zealand with various kinds of utopian social reform particularly in relation to gender politics a theme Giles explores in William Dean Howells Charlotte Perkins Gilman and Miles Franklin He also considers how American modernism in New York was inflected by the Australasian perspectives of Lola Ridge and Christina Stead and how Australian modernism was in turn shaped by American styles of iconoclasm After World War II Giles examines how the poetry of Karl Shapiro Louis Simpson Yusef Komunyakaa and others was influenced by their direct experience of Australia He then shifts to post 1945 fiction where the focus extends from Irish American cultural politics Raymond Chandler Thomas Keneally to the paradoxes of exile Shirley Hazzard Peter Carey and the structural inversions of postmodernism and posthumanism Salman Rushdie Donna Haraway Ranging from figures like John Ledyard to John Ashbery from Emily Dickinson to Patricia Piccinini and J M Coetzee Antipodean America is a truly epic work of transnational literary history

The Theological and the Political Mark Lewis Taylor, 2011-01-15 Mark Lewis Taylor has always worked at the intersection of the political and theological Now in this intense and exciting work he explores in a systematic way how those two dimensions of human reality can be conceived anew and together

Ghost Stories Peter J. Baldwin, 2024-07-15 It is not without irony that in an age characterised by the dissolution of certainty a consequence of digital dematerialisation and the catastrophic destabilisation of our social institutions and natural world architecture for so long the repository for our myths and the vessel for our intangible narratives and rituals has been stripped bare Increasingly preoccupied with the physical material and measurable architecture has forfeited its original purpose as a mediating link between the tacit and the tangible Drawing on the current resurgence and our enduring cultural fascination with the ethereal and uncanny this AD frames the spectral as a deconstructive gesture that undermines the fixedness and certainties of binary logics a means to develop new practices and positions from which to address our contemporary uncertainties Gathering a body of work that explores and speculates on architecture's long romance with the incorporeal the issue is intended as a catalyst through which latency contingency and indeterminacy inherent characteristics of the architectural condition can once more be valued cultivated and nurtured Contributors Kirsty Badenoch Michael Chapman Nat Chard Oliver G Goche and Peter P Goch Perry Kulper Ifigeneia Liangi and Daniel Dream Eva Menuhin Mark Morris Mike Phillips Ian Ritchie Chris Speed and Cameron Stebbing Featured architects and designers Captivate Spatial Modelling Research Group Daniel Libeskind Night Kitchen Studio Michael Sandle and Ritchie Studio
