The Routledge Handbook of Public Speaking Research and Theory Stevie M. Munz, Tim McKenna-Buchanan, Anna M. Wright, 2024-04-18 Providing a comprehensive survey of the empirical research theory and history of public speaking this handbook fills a crucial gap in public speaking pedagogy resources and provides a foundation for future research and pedagogical development Bringing together contributions from both up and coming and senior scholars in the field this book offers a thorough examination of public speaking guided by research across six key themes the history of public speaking the foundations of public speaking issues of diversity equity and inclusion considerations of public speaking across contexts assessment of public speaking and the future of public speaking in the twenty first century The evidence based chapters engage with a broad discussion of public speaking through a variety of viewpoints to demonstrate how subtopics are connected and fraught with complexity Contributors explore public speaking in education business and professional settings and political contexts and outline how skills learned through public speaking are applicable to interpersonal small group and business interactions Reinforcing the relevance importance and significance of public speaking in individual interpersonal social and cultural communication contexts this accessibly written handbook will be an indispensable resource for public speaking instructors and program administrators It will also be valuable reading for Communication Pedagogy and Introduction to Graduate Studies courses Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1976 Transforming Traditional Teaching for Today's College Students Amy Driscoll, Dan Shapiro, 2025-01-20 By giving students a greater voice in how their learning is facilitated this book offers a fresh spin on classic college teaching methods Seasoned faculty developers Driscoll and Shapiro cover seven common teaching approaches and how they can be leveraged to support the development of students as co teachers The easily digestible practical strategies throughout each chapter pair powerfully with candid case studies Readers are able to witness firsthand the uncertainties disappointments and successes of the post pandemic classroom as faculty and students work together to overcome challenges and form deep connections While an indispensable resource for those new to teaching this book also serves as an innovative tool for experienced instructors and educational developers alike imparting guidance that will result in more meaningful interactions stronger relationships and a genuine sense of community in the college classroom Microhistories of Communication Studies Pat Gehrke, 2018-04-19 The story of an academic discipline is usually conveyed in grand movements and long spans but it can also be told through the lives of individual scholars through the development of specialties through the creation and change of departments and through the formation and transformation of organizations Using twelve histories of micro dimensions of communication studies this volume shows how sometimes small decisions single scholars individual departments and marginalized voices can have dramatic roles in the history and future of an academic discipline As a compilation of micro histories with macro lessons this volume stands alone in communication studies Read as a companion to A Century of Communication Studies the National Communication Association s centennial volume it offers rich detail missing links and local narratives that fully flesh out the discipline In either case no education in communication studies is complete without an understanding of the themes challenges and triumphs embodied by the twelve micro histories offered in this book This book was originally published as two special issues of Review of Communication Speech Communication Raymond Samuel Ross,1986 Speech Communication Ernest G. Bormann,Nancy C. Bormann,1981 Peacemaking Through Communication Rod Troester,Colleen Elizabeth Kelley,1991
