Part I introduces film semiotics with plain definitions of terminology. Through familiar cinematic examples it emphasizes the myth-making nature of modern-day film and argues that semiotics can be used as a theoretical tool for reading film. Part II presents case studies of eight popular Japanese films as models of semiotic analysis. While discussing each film's use of common mythological motifs such as death and rebirth, its case study also unveils more covert cultural signifiers and folktale motifs including jizo, a savior of sentient beings, and koro, bewitching foxes and raccoon dogs hidden in the Japanese filmic text.
