lead us to ask why we swept them into that corner in the first place The articles in this book look at old letters a popular song a hit comedy an overlooked opera three Swedish composers of the period and illustrations in a popular book They are intended to surprise us with the residual vitality of what one can find in those dusty corners The choice of one place and time to sweep within this book is purely practical and not exclusive there remain many other dusty corners to be swept

Murray, 2014 A unique look at the career of a little known contemporary of Haydn and Mozart presented against a fascinating background of court musical life in late eighteenth century Germany Today the classical style is defined by the music of a handful of composers Haydn and Mozart being the most prominent As a result the accomplishments of these masters have all but eclipsed the music of most of their contemporaries In this book Sterling Murray examines one of the most talented of this group Antonio Rosetti Born around 1750 and trained in Bohemia Rosetti spent most of his creative life in Germany where he served as music director to the Prince of Oettingen Wallerstein between 1773 and 1789 and then the Duke of Mecklenburg Schwerin until his death in 1792 The Career of an Eighteenth Century Kapellmeister offers the first comprehensive study of Rosetti s life The events of the composer s biography are unfolded against a vivid picture of musical life at the two small German courts where Rosetti was employed The second half of the book is devoted to an examination of form and style in Rosetti s music illustrated with full score musical examples in the text and on a complementary website What emerges from this investigation is a portrait of a composer who having conquered the stylistic language of his day challenged those conventions to produce imaginative and highly creative works of great beauty Sterling E Murray is professor emeritus of the School of Music at West Chester University in West Chester Pennsylvania
